Memon,Mariam Alhashmi,Mohamad Abdalla,2021-05-10 This book demonstrates why and how it is necessary to redesign Islamic Education curriculum in the K 12 sector globally From Western public schools that integrate Muslim perspectives to be culturally responsive to public and private schools in Muslim minority and majority contexts that teach Islamic studies as a core subject or teach from an Islamic perspective the volume highlights the unique global and sociocultural contexts that support the disparate trajectories of Islamic Education curricula Divided into three distinct parts the text discusses current Islamic education curricula and considers new areas for inclusion as part of a general renewal effort that includes developing curricula from an Islamic worldview and the current aspirations of Islamic education globally By providing insights on key concepts related to teaching Islam case studies of curriculum achievements and pitfalls and suggested processes and pillars for curriculum development contributors present possibilities for researchers and educators to think about teaching Islam differently This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of secondary education Islamic education and curriculum studies Those interested in religious education as well as the sociology and theory of religion more broadly will also enjoy this volume      The Awakening of Muslim Democracy Jocelyne Cesari,2014-04-14 Why and how did Islam become such a political force in so many Muslim majority countries In this book Jocelyne Cesari investigates the relationship between modernization politics and Islam in Muslim majority countries such as Egypt Iraq Pakistan Tunisia and Turkey countries that were founded by secular rulers and have since undergone secularized politics Cesari argues that nation building processes in these states have not created liberal democracies in the Western mold but have instead spurred the politicization of Islam by turning it into a modern national ideology Looking closely at examples of Islamic dominance in political modernization this study provides a unique overview of the historical and political developments from the end of World War II to the Arab Spring that have made Islam the dominant force in the construction of the modern states and discusses Islam s impact on emerging democracies in the contemporary Middle East      Learning Islam Level 3 TXT ,2011-06-01      I Love Islam Level 1 TXT ,2005-01-01      The Advocate ,2001-08-14 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States      Gendered Paradoxes Fida J. Adely,2012-09-15 In 2005 the World Bank released a gender assessment of the nation of Jordan a country that like many in the Middle East has undergone dramatic social and gender transformations in part by encouraging equal access to education for men and women The resulting demographic picture there highly educated women who still largely stay at home as mothers and caregivers prompted the World Bank to label Jordan a gender paradox In Gendered Paradoxes Fida J Adely shows that assessment to be a fallacy taking readers into the rarely seen halls of a Jordanian public school the al Khatwa High School for Girls and revealing the dynamic lives of its students for whom such trends are far from paradoxical Through the lives of these students Adely explores the critical issues young people in Jordan grapple with today nationalism and national identity faith and the requisites of pious living appropriate and respectable gender roles and progress In the process she shows the important place of education in Jordan one less tied to the economic ends of labor and employment that are so emphasized by the rest of the developed world In showcasing alternative values and the highly capable young women who hold them Adely raises fundamental questions about what constitutes development progress and empowerment not just for Jordanians but for the whole world

Safi,2023-12-15 Islam and the Drive to Global Justice

Principles of Justice Beyond Dominant Ethnic and Religious Communities contributes to the current debate over Islam in a globalizing world by drawing on the contemporary and historical justice discourse within the Islamic traditions and by examining policies and practices of global powers towards Muslim populations in the Global South. The discussions aim at bringing insights from Islamic authoritative sources and scholarly literature and to enrich the current deliberation on the universality of modern values and the relevance of the Islamic traditions to advancing more inclusive notion of global justice. The book examines in particular several models rooted in the monotheistic traditions crucial for overcoming three interrelated challenges facing the dispensation of justice in contemporary society: inclusivity, disparity, and selectivity. The book uses the normative framework it outlines to analyze the connection between European powers and the autocratic regimes in the MENA region. Several chapters in the book illustrate how supporting Arab autocracy contributes to the rise of religious extremism and has already produced failed states in Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, and Yemen that undermine both national and global peace and stability.
