

English Paper One Tips

THE (TITLES) WHY (UN)RAIDING AND (A)UDIENCE) WHAT (CONTENT) HOW (STYLE) THE (TONE) HOW (FORM)/STRUCTURE) at the top of the question paper and work to help you understand your response to that poem.

If you find the poem difficult and don't really understand it, here are a few things you can do which will help to gain you marks. (Having coloured highlighters available helps!)

- Underline all the verbs – these often are interesting and will explain why the poet has written.
- Underline all the visual images and give one which you find is particularly vivid to comment on.
- Underline all the words employed in the poem. These might be chosen if they are unusual/specific, but look for examples of personification or personae or alliteration or alliteration or internal rhyme. Then you can give one or more and explain the effect the poet was trying to achieve.
- Underline all the adjectives and choose one which you think is used in an interesting/descriptive way.
- Underline any similes and metaphors in the poem. Pick out one or two and explain what they mean. Say why they are effective.
- Look at the poem's rhyme (the poet has chosen to break the lines, find one line break that you can comment on which shows either an emphasis (the poem particular words/phrases for a reason).
- Discuss what the poet is trying to say in your opinion.

Before anything else, read the poem first or three times. Then try to grasp its meaning – what is the theme, what is the tone, what is the poet trying to say? Read the structure and language of the poem, you will gain an insight into the poem's meaning. The more times you read the poem, the more you will understand the meaning of the poem.

Reading and study contemporary poetry is sometimes difficult to interpret. It can often have several meanings, or its meaning can be ambiguous. Sometimes, the poet doesn't want it to have any particular meaning, preferring instead the reader takes his/her own interpretation. You are allowed to be as open and make judgements as possible when answering the various poetry questions.

The poet communicates thoughts, emotions and ideas to the reader through a particular choice of words and structure. The objective of the poem can differ. Sometimes the poem might challenge readers' perceptions of how they view things, and help them see things in a different light. For some people, poetry is highly personal, and they engage with poems on a subjective level. In this case, you can learn a lot about life and understanding the through poetry.

To help you gain a deeper understanding of what the meaning or content of a poem, try answering the following:

Before

- What does you believe to be the poem's main idea or theme of the poem, representing it means for readers.
- Note the key words or phrases repeated throughout the poem.
- Think about why the characters are structured in a particular way.
- Explain the relationships throughout the poem.
- Note if there are any recurring themes in the poem, and what the poet is trying to say by writing about them.
