A school consists of 740 students divided into 5 grade levels. The numbers of students in each grade are shown in the table below.

Grade	8	9	10	11	12
Number of students	120	125	119	195	181

The Principal of the school wishes to select a sample of 25 students. She wishes to ensure that, as closely as possible, the proportion of the students from each grade in the sample is the same as the proportions in the school.

- (a) Calculate the number of grade 12 students who should be in the sample. [3]

The Principal selects the students for the sample by asking those who took part in a previous survey if they would like to take part in another. She takes the first of those who reply positively, up to the maximum needed for the sample.

- (b) State which two of the sampling methods listed below best describe the method used. [2]

Stratified Quota Convenience Systematic Simple random

, The Baccalaureate Graham Phillips, Tim Pound, 2003-12-16 Every year the UK A Level results bring with them the inevitable tide of questions about the quality and standard of the exams Are they getting easier Is studying for three or four subjects in great detail right in the modern world Can standards and pass rates be sustained One option already available to schools and students is the baccalaureate system With reform of the gold standard A level likely and with qualification reform in Wales and Scotland already a reality this unique book will be essential reading for anyone who needs to know about the post 16 qualifications debate Covering national and international approaches the IBO curriculum reform and political and educational imperatives the book including expert contributions by the leading figures in the bac debate from the HE state and independent schools sectors as well as from political and research fields Adelphi Papers Volker Perthes, 2004

ASEAN International Law Eric Yong Joong Lee, 2021-10-13 This book consists of updated and refreshed papers written by international law scholars and practitioners from the ASEAN region and published by the Journal of East Asia and International Law comprehensively covering almost all contemporary international legal issues related to ASEAN Legal analysis of the ASEAN integration as one community with one vision in this book provides readers with a better understanding of the current social climate and future developments of ASEAN Each section within the book covers a highly topical issue on ASEAN cooperation and dispute resolution from an international law perspective ASEAN is one of the biggest economic communities in the world and the ASEAN 3 covers nearly half of global GDP Given the region's global impact this book is of interest to Asia watchers academics and policymakers alike Doves of War Paul Preston, 2003-05-08 This beautifully written biographical work depicts the lives of four extraordinary women to paint a vivid dramatic and poignant portrait of the ideologies horrific realities and long lasting emotional costs of the Spanish Civil War 1936 1939 Secret Affairs Mark Curtis, 2018-01-04 This updated edition of Secret Affairs covers the momentous events of the past year in the Middle East and at home in the UK It reveals the unreported attempts by Britain to cultivate relations with the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt after the fall of Mubarak the military intervention on the side of Libyan rebel forces which include pro al Qaeda elements and the ongoing reliance on the region's ultimate fundamentalist state Saudi Arabia to safeguard its interest in the Middle East It illuminates path of Salman Abedi the bomber who attacked Manchester in May 2017 and his terror network how he fought in Libya in 2011 as part of a group of fighters which the UK allowed to leave the country to go and battle against Gadafi to topple him In this ground breaking book Mark Curtis reveals the covert history of British collusion with radical Islamic and terrorist groups Secret Affairs shows how governments since the 1940s have connived with militant forces to control oil resources and overthrow governments The story of how Britain has helped nurture the rise of global terrorism has never been told Fixing Financial Crises in the 21st Century Andrew Haldane, 2004-04 This new book with contributions from leading academics policy makers and practitioners goes beyond critical analysis and offers useful advice with regard to actually bringing financial crises to an end Rule, Britannia! Homer B. Pettey, R. Barton Palmer, 2018-10-09 Winner of the 2019 SAMLA Studies Book Award for Edited Collections presented by the South Atlantic Modern Language Association Rule Britannia surveys the British biopic a genre crucial to understanding how national cinema engages with the collective experience and values of its intended audience Offering a provocative take on an aspect of filmmaking with profound cultural significance the volume focuses on how screen biographies of prominent figures in British history and culture can be understood as involved if unofficially in the shaping and promotion of an ever protean national identity The contributors engage with the vexed concept of British nationality especially as this sense of collective belonging is problematized by the ethnically oriented alternatives of English Scottish Welsh and Irish nations They explore the critical and historiographical issues raised by the biopic demonstrating that celebration of conventional virtue is not the genre's only natural subject Filmic depictions of such personalities as Elizabeth I Victoria George VI Elizabeth II Margaret Thatcher Iris Murdoch and Jack the Ripper are covered The Limits of Regionalism Robert G. Finbow, 2017-11-28 Assessing the effectiveness of the North American Agreement on Labour Cooperation NAALC this book examines the operation of the core institutions the Secretariat and National Administrative Offices over the past seven years It discusses the main functions of these institutions in hearing public submissions on violations of labour laws and in conducting research and cooperative activities Based on interview research the analysis reviews the strengths and weaknesses of the accord to assess its contribution to a common labour relations regime in North America and its impact in creating new transnational communities of actors in government and civil society in the three countries The NAALC is also compared with the social dimension of the European Union system and a final assessment is made as to whether the NAALC institutions live up to the promises of their founders and whether these can be a model for labour relations in any future Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA agreement Zoological Record, 2002 External Perceptions of the European Union as a Global Actor Sonia Lucarelli, Lorenzo Fioramonti, 2009-10-16 This book examines how the European Union EU is perceived beyond its borders in the US the Middle East Israel Palestinian territories Lebanon Iran Russia China India Brazil and South Africa The book also analyses the main perceptions of the EU in some key international institutions including the World Bank World Trade Organization United Nations African Union and transnational actors including non Western media such as Al Jazeera It seeks to provide a thorough analysis of the implications that these perceptions might have for the global role of the EU By taking this approach and by providing both conceptual and empirical arguments the volume provides an innovative perspective on the analysis of the EU as a global actor It also strengthens a research agenda on the EU external image an underdeveloped area of investigation in which the editors and the main contributors to this volume have played a pioneering role in the past few years It will be of strong interest to academics and students of international politics European studies and development studies Businessmen, Clientelism, and Authoritarianism in Egypt Safinaz El Tarouty, 2016-04-29 After the ousting of former Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak in February 2011 much debate surrounded the reasons for the former regime's longevity and its collapse Here Safinaz El Tarouty provides an original contribution to the study of authoritarianism in Egypt by focusing on the role of businessmen in authoritarian survival As the regime intensified neoliberal economic reforms that led to social deprivation and frustration among increasing numbers of Egyptian citizens they co-opted businessmen in order to defuse challenges and buttress the regime constructing a new political economy of authoritarianism Extending the existing literature on clientelism El Tarouty creates a typology of regime businessmen relations to describe the multiple mechanisms of co-option in the context of economic liberalization Ultimately though these businessmen proved too narrow a constituency to provide legitimacy to the regime and in fact formed one of the reasons for its collapse

Romance Languages and Linguistic Theory 2006 Danièle Torck, Leo Wetzels, 2009 The annual conference series Going Romance has developed into a major European discussion forum where ideas about language and linguistics and about Romance languages in particular are put in an interactive perspective giving room to both universality and Romance internal variation The current volume contains a selection of the papers that were presented at the 20th Going Romance conference held at the VU University in Amsterdam in December 2006 The papers in the volume deal with current issues in phonology morphology syntax and semantics and range across a variety of Romance languages

Human Development Report 2005 United Nations Development Programme, 2005 The Human Development Report 2005 examines the scale of the challenge facing the world at the start of the ten year countdown to the 2015 Millennium Development Goals mark The Report focuses on three pillars of cooperation each of which is in urgent need of renovation The first pillar is international aid the Millennium Development Goals MDGs project has been compromised by chronic and sustained under-financing allied to problems in aid quality The second pillar is international trade Under the right conditions trade can act as a powerful catalyst for human development The development round of World Trade Organization talks launched in 2001 provided northern governments with an opportunity to create those conditions The third pillar is that of security violent conflict is a source of systematic human rights violation and a barrier to progress towards the MDGs that must be overcome
