 Winner of the French Heritage Literary Award A beguiling memoir of a childhood in 1950s France from the much admired New York Times bestselling author of The Piano Shop on the Left Bank Like the castle Carhart's memoir imaginatively and smoothly integrates multiple influences styles and whims The New York Times For a young American boy in the 1950s Fontainebleau was a sight both strange and majestic home to a continual series of adventures a different language to learn weekend visits to nearby Paris family road trips to Spain and Italy Then there was the chateau itself a sprawling palace once the residence of kings its grounds the perfect place to play hide and seek The curiosities of the small town and the time with his family as expats left such an impression on him that thirty years later Carhart returned to France with his wife to raise their two children Touring Fontainebleau again as an adult he began to appreciate its influence on French style taste art and architecture Each trip to Fontainebleau introduces him to entirely new aspects of the chateau's history enriching his memories and leading him to Patrick Ponsot the head of the chateau's restoration who becomes Carhart's guide to the hidden Fontainebleau What emerges is an intimate chronicle of a time and place few have experienced In warm precise prose Carhart reconstructs the wonders of his childhood as an American in postwar France attending French schools with his brothers and sisters His firsthand account brings to life nothing less than France in the 1950s from the parks and museums of Paris to the rigors of French schooling to the vast chateau of Fontainebleau and its village built piece by piece over many centuries Finding Fontainebleau is for those captivated by the French way of life for armchair travelers and for anyone who has ever fallen in love with a place they want to visit over and over again Library Occurrent, 1928 Index to newspapers in each no beginning with Mar 1908 Oxford Examined Richard O.
