Impact Aid United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Elementary, Secondary, and Vocational Education, 1984 The Texas Outlook , 1981 Resources in Education , 1993-04 Staff Development , 1985 Approaches to the Development of Character National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Testing and Assessment, 2017-04-24 The development of character is a valued objective for many kinds of educational programs that take place both in and outside of school Educators and administrators who develop and run programs that seek to develop character recognize that the established approaches for doing so have much in common and they are eager to learn about promising practices used in other settings evidence of effectiveness and ways to measure the effectiveness of their own approaches In July 2016 the National Academies of Sciences Engineering and Medicine held a workshop to review research and practice relevant to the development of character with a particular focus on ideas that can support the adults who develop and run out of school programs This publication summarizes the presentations and discussions from the workshop Hearings on H.R. 6, Reauthorization of Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Elementary, Secondary, and Vocational Education, 1994 These hearing transcripts present testimony concerning the reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act Much of the testimony was from members of congress educators and representatives of education organizations concerning the efficacy of specific programs and activities funded by the Act particularly those items that they would like to see expanded or improved Testimony was heard from 1 Representatives Robert E Andrews Peter Hoagland Donald M Payne Terry Everett and Lynn C Woolsey 2 the director of the National Urban Alliance for Effective Schools 3 the executive director of the Main Line Project Learning Brookline School Havertown Pennsylvania 4 a former congressman 5 four school superintendents 6 a program manager from the Pennsylvania Department of Education 7 a senior researcher from SRI International 8 two elementary school principals 9 the dean of Montclair State College s School of Professional Studies 10 three school district officials 11 the president of the National Association of Migrant Education 12 an official of the National Association of State Directors of Migrant Education 13 an education consultant and 14 the president of the American Federation of Teachers MDM Fort Polk, LA to Fort Hood, Realignment of the 5th Infantry Division (mechanized) , 1992 Strengthening the Military Family Readiness System for a Changing American Society National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on the Well-Being of Military Families, 2019-10-25 The U S military has been continuously engaged in foreign conflicts for over two decades The strains that these deployments the associated increases in operational tempo and the general challenges of military life affect not only service members but also the people who depend on them and who support them as they support the nation their families Family members provide support to service members while they serve or when they have difficulties family problems can interfere with the ability of service members to deploy or remain in theater and family members are central influences on whether members continue to serve In addition rising family diversity and complexity will likely increase the difficulty of creating military policies programs and practices that adequately support families in the performance of military duties Strengthening the Military Family Readiness System for a Changing American Society examines the challenges and opportunities facing military families and what is known about effective strategies for supporting and protecting military children and families as well as lessons to be learned from these experiences This report offers recommendations regarding what is needed to strengthen the support system for military families Who's who in American Education ,1990 The Military Child Mary M.
