Phenomenal Sydney Marcia Cameron, 2016-10-19 The Diocese of Sydney is admired hated loved and feared While often criticized as no longer Anglican it has at its heart an adherence to classic Anglicanism While to some it is a beacon in the darkness to others it is like a threatening bushfire It is very large very wealthy and very influential in other places Its opposition to ordaining women priests and in many parishes to women preaching mystifies and angers many Anglicans within and outside its boundaries What makes this diocese such a phenomenon The answer lies in its history in the men and women who shaped it in a particular view of the authority of the Bible and in the influence wielded by some powerful institutions that have prospered Its energy comes from the Scriptural mandate for mission to bring the outsider into the community of Christian people but not to leave it there To educate them in
