On Becoming a Racially Sensitive Therapist: Race and Clinical Practice Kenneth V. Hardy, 2025-05-06 Transform your clinical practice by transforming yourself Claims of color blindness and the insistence that all clients are essentially the same have contributed to a dearth of knowledge and understanding regarding the delivery of racially sensitive treatment For many clinicians addressing issues of race in therapy mirrors the same discomfort that permeates most of our efforts to discuss it outside of treatment Yet providing racially sensitive therapy as well as possessing the clinical acumen to address complex issues of race and culture is vital to competent contemporary practice The volume is organized into three fundamental sections with contributions from mental health experts who have done the work to unlearn systemic biases about race and therapy The first section introduces the concept of a racially sensitive therapist and what it means to become one The second section focuses on cultural and racial storytelling to help uncover unknown parts of oneself and emphasizes racial self examination self interrogation and personal transformation And the final section transports the reader from seeing and being to doing with racially informed intervention methods A monumental undertaking this book is an essential step for healers and caregivers to reframe the therapy process for all clients Contributors include Lane Arye Vanessa Bing Toby Bobes Bonnie Cushing Elana Katz Niketa Kumar Sharon RC Lee Gloria Lopez Henriquez Yasmeen Rubidge and Virginia Seewaldt
