Elude Rachel Van Dyken, 2015-06-15 Twenty four hours before we were to be married I offered to shoot her Ten hours before our wedding I made a mockery of her dying wish Five hours before we were going to say our vows I promised I d never love her One hour before I said I do I vowed I d never shed a tear over her death But the minute we were pronounced man and wife I knew I d only use my gun to protect her I d give my life for hers I d cry And I would most definitely lose my heart to a dying girl a girl who by all accounts should have never been mine in the first place I always believed the mafia would be my endgame where I d lose my heart while it claimed my soul I could have never imagined it would be my redemption Or the beginning of something beautiful The beginning of her The end of us Page 4 of cover
