Embroideries Marjane Satrapi:

Embroideries Marjane Satrapi, 2005 From the author of the acclaimed comic strip autobiography Persepolis comes this comic book for grown ups a gloriously entertaining and revealing look into the sex lives of Iranian women Embroideries gathers together many of the women in Marjane Satrapi's life her beloved grandmother her mother an eccentric aunt their friends and neighbours for an afternoon of tea drinking and talking And as is only to be expected when a group of women reunite around cups of tea the subjects turn to love sex and the vagaries of men in this case Iranian men As the afternoon progresses these colourful women share their secrets about among other things how to fake your virginity how to escape the husband your family has chosen for you how to enjoy the miracles of plastic surgery and how to take advantage of being someone's mistress By turns revealing and hilarious these are stories about the lengths to which some women will go to find a man to keep a man or just to keep up appearances We also witness tearful confessions and heavy hearted tales of regret and betrayal of unhappy marriages and of young women forced or choosing to marry for all the wrong reasons of their suffering is due to a culture that prizes men above women and makes a woman's worth dependent on her virginity Full of surprises this introduction to the private lives of some very interesting ordinary women also demonstrates brilliantly how much women the world over have in common

Invisibility in Visual and Material Culture Asbjørn Grønstad, Øyvind Vågnes, 2019-06-01 The essays in Invisibility in Visual and Material Culture contribute pioneering and revelatory insights into the phenomenon of invisibility forging new and multi disciplinary approaches at the intersection of aesthetics technology representation and politics Importantly they acknowledge the complex interaction between invisibility and its opposite visibility arguing that the one cannot be fully grasped without the other Considering these entanglements across different media forms the chapters reveal that the invisible affects many cultural domains from digital communication and operative images to the activism of social movements as well as to identity race gender and class issues Whether the subject is comic books photographic provocations biometric and brainwave sensing technologies letters or a cinematic diary the analyses in this book engage critically and theoretically with the topic of invisibility and thus represent the first scholarly study to identify its importance for the field of visual culture

Apprehensions Lene M. Johannessen, Jena Habegger-Conti, 2021-01-12 Aesthetic Apprehensions Silences and Absences in False Familiarities is a scholarly conversation about encounters between habitual customs of reading and seeing and their ruptures and ossifications In closely connected discourses the thirteen essays collected here set out to carefully probe the ways our aesthetic immersions are obfuscated by deep seated epistemological and ideological apprehensions by focusing on how the tropology carried by silence absence and false familiarity crystallize to define the gaps that open up As they figure in the subtitle of this volume the tropes may seem straightforward enough but a closer examination of their function in relation to social cultural and political assumptions and gestalts reveal troubling oversights Aesthetic Apprehensions comes to name the attempt at capturing the outlier meanings residing in habituated receptions as well as the uneasy relations that result from aesthetic practices already in place emphasizing the kinds of thresholds of sense and sensation which occasion rupture and creativity Such after all is the promise of the threshold of the liminal to encourage our leap into otherness for then to find ourselves and our sensing again and anew in novel comprehensions Gender & Life Narratives Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-01-23 In this book we will study about gender and life narratives It focuses on autobiographies memoirs and storytelling as tools to understand gendered experiences and societal roles "Persepolis" by Marjane Satrapi and

Terry Smith, 2012-08-10 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today s multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami. At the same time, Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice, one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity, history, and globalization. A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time, place, mediation, and ethics through small-scale, closely connective art making. Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds, Smith offers a behind-the-scenes introduction to the institutions, the personalities, the biennials, and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary. The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going.
