Does the Village Still Raise the Child? Beth Blue Swadener,2000-09-22 Examining the degree to which Kenyan children are still communally raised this book presents findings from a national collaborative study considering the impacts of rapid social economic and cultural change on child rearing and early education in Kenya The narratives of over 460 parents grandparents preschool teachers children and community leaders provide unique insights on the impacts of neo colonial policies development practices and national austerity measures on everyday lives of families A unique aspect of this book is that it decolonizes research through sustained collaboration on all aspects of the study from design and interview protocol development to data collection and analysis through dissemination This book becomes then an invaluable model for how to do thoughtful collaborative comparative research
