Essays on the Poetry of Trevor Joyce Niamh O'Mahony, 2014-11-14 Essays on the Poetry of Trevor Joyce is the first collection of critical responses to an Irish poet whose writing consistently challenges received ideas of Irish poetry The contributions that make up this collection span Joyce's writing career from Sole Glum Trek 1967 to Rome's Wreck 2014 and are written by literary critics poets and publishers These essays illuminate Joyce's poetry aligning careful reading with insightful analysis to reveal Joyce as one of Ireland's most innovative and creative living poets Contributors to this volume include Lucy Collins Eric Falci Fergal Gaynor John Goodby Fanny Howe David Lloyd Peter Manson Niamh O Mahony Marthine Satris Geoffrey Squires Keith Tuma and Jeffrey Twitchell Waas Incomparable Poetry Robert Kiely, 2020 Incomparable Poetry An Essay on the Financial Crisis of 2007 2008 and Irish Literature is an attempt to describe the ways in which the financial crisis of 2007 8 impacted literature in Ireland and thereby describe the ways in which poetry engages with is structured by and wrestles with economic issues Ireland and its contemporary poetry is a particularly suitable case study for studying the effect of the economic crisis on Anglophone poetry because poetry in Ireland has a special relationship to the state and economy due to its status as a postcolonial nation state Beginning with a summary of recent Irish economic and cultural history and moving across experimental and mainstream poetry this essay outlines how the poetry of Trevor Joyce Leontia Flynn Dave Lordan and Rachel Warriner addresses in its form and content the boom years of the Celtic Tiger and the financial crisis Incomparable Poetry also discusses the concerns and historical contexts these poets have turned to in order to make sense of these events including Chinese history accountancy sexual violence and Iceland's economic history In contemporary Irish poetry the author argues we see a significant interest in matching capitalism's accounting abilities but in this attempt these poems often end up broken by the imposition of an external conceptual framework or economic logic Robert Kiely grew up in Cork Ireland and now lives in London His critical work has been published in Irish University Review Journal of British and Irish Innovative Poetry The Parish Review and Samuel Beckett Today Aujourd hui His chapbooks include How to Read Crater 2017 and Killing the Cop in Your Head Sad 2017 He is Poet in Residence at University of Surrey for 2019 20 Irish Poetry Since 1950 John Goodby, 2000-12-15 Irish Poetry since 1950 is a survey of poetry from Northern Ireland the Republic Britain and the US covering the 1950s the 1960s the early period of the Troubles up to 1976 the 1980s and the 1990s Modernist Afterlives in Irish Literature and Culture Paige Reynolds, 2016-09-22 Modernist Afterlives in Irish Literature and Culture explores manifestations of the themes forms and practices of high modernism in Irish literature and culture produced subsequent to this influential movement The interdisciplinary collection reveals how Irish artists grapple with modernist legacies and forge new modes of expression for modern and contemporary culture Modernism and Ireland Patricia Coughlan, 1995 An incisively argued collection of essays which sets out to look afresh at

Modernism and Ireland Patricia Coughlan,1995 An incisively argued collection of essays which sets out to look afresh at the landscape of Irish poetry in the 1930s Continuity and Change in Irish Poetry, 1966–2010 Eric Falci,2012-07-30 In this book Eric Falci reshapes the story of Irish poetry since the 1960s He shows how polemical arguments concerning the role of poetry in 1960s Ireland evolve into a set of formal and compositional strategies for emerging Irish poets in the mid 1970s and beyond His study presents a cohesive picture of the relationship between Northern Irish poetry from the Republic of Ireland since World War II and traces the lineage of lyric practice from a unique historical perspective At the same time it recontextualizes late twentieth century Irish poetry within the long Irish poetic tradition places Irish writing more accurately within the field of postwar Anglophone poetry and offers a new account of lyric's critical capacities Of interest to Irish studies and twentieth century poetry specialists this book provides a much needed guide to some of the most inventive and notable poetry written in the past forty years Coleridge's Ancient Mariner J. C. C. Mays, 2016-10-27 This is the first book length study to read the Ancient Mariner as poetry in Coleridge's own particular sense of the word Coleridge's complicated relationship with the Mariner as an experimental poem lies in its origin as a joint project with Wordsworth J C C Mays traces the changes in the several versions published in Coleridge's lifetime and shows how Wordsworth's troubled reaction to the poem influenced its subsequent interpretation This is also the first book to situate the Mariner in the context of the entirety of Coleridge's prose and verse now available in the Bollingen Collected edition and Notebooks that is not only in relation to other poems like The Ballad of the Dark Ladi and Alice du Cl s but also to ideas in his literary criticism especially Biographia Literaria philosophy and theology Using a combination of close reading and broad historical considerations reception theory and book history Mays surveys the poem's continuing life in illustrated editions and educational textbooks its passage through the vicissitudes of New Criticism and critical theory and in a final chapter its surprising affinities with some experimental poems of the present time The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, Alan Gillis, 2012-10-25 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry consists of 40 essays by leading scholars and new researchers in the field Beginning with W B Yeats the figure who towers over the century s poetry it includes chapters on the major poets to have emerged in Ireland over the last 100 years Beckett and Nature Charles Clements, Eleanor Green, James Martell,2025-07-10 New analyses on the insightful ways in which Beckett s work actively engages with contested notions of Nature and the natural developing a radical version of modernism's main questions and insights Beckett and Nature takes its cue from contemporary developments in Beckett scholarship focused on ecocriticism posthumanism and the Anthropocene going beyond them into a questioning of the very concepts of Nature and the natural It examines one of the most unthought ontological dimensions of literature and life that symbolic space deemed natural or part of Nature appears necessary and undeniable and therefore impossible to be deconstructed In doing so the authors show that in fact this space takes on many shapes recognizing three natural dimensions criticized by Beckett bodies worlds and literatures Featuring a wide range of both Beckett s work and Beckett scholars including Jean Michel Rabat and Stanley E Gontarski Beckett and Nature offers contextualized readings of the understandings of nature and the natural throughout his decade spanning uvre The volume shows that part of the radicality of Beckett's writing is that through a variety of evolving techniques and strategies it questions what appears in our cultures as the most unquestionable and opens up possibilities for thinking not only what is human literature and philosophy but also gender identity and any attempt at definitions of ourselves or the world at large

Representations of Loss in Irish Literature Deirdre Flynn, Eugene O'Brien, 2018-07-30 This is the first book on Irish literature to focus on the theme of loss and how it is represented in Irish writing It focuses on how literature is ideally suited to expressions and understanding of the nature of loss given its ability to access and express emotions sensations feelings and the visceral and haptic areas of experience Dealing with feelings and with sensations poems novels and drama can allow for cathartic expressions of these emotions as well as for a fuller understanding of what is involved in loss across all situations The main notion of loss being dealt with is that of death but feelings of loss in the wake of immigration and of the loss of certainties that defined notions of identity are also analysed This volume will be of interest to scholars students and researchers in Irish Studies loss memory trauma death and cultural studies Revisioning Beckett S. E. Gontarski, 2018-05-31 Revisioning Beckett reassesses Beckett s career and literary output particularly his engagement with what might be called decadent modernism Gontarski approaches Beckett from multiple viewpoints from his running afoul of the Irish Censorship of Publications Acts in the 1930s through the 1950s his preoccupations to find literature in the pornography or beneath the pornography his battles with the Lord Chamberlain in the mid 1950s over London stagings of his first two plays and his close professional and personal associations with publishers who celebrated the work of the demimonde Much of that term encompasses an opening to the fullness of human experience denied in previous centuries and much of that has been sexual or decadent As Gontarski shows the aesthetics that emerges from such early career encounters and associations continues to inform Beckett's work and develops into experimental modes that upend literary models and middle class values an aesthetics that furthermore has inspired any number of visual artists to re vision Beckett The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson, 2013-09-26 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry offers thirty eight chapters of ground breaking research that form a collaborative quide to the many groupings and movements the locations and styles as well as concerns aesthetic political cultural and ethical that have helped shape contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland The book's introduction offers an anthropological participant observer approach to its variously conflicted subjects while exploring the limits and openness of the contemporary as a shifting and never wholly knowable category. The five ensuing sections explore a history of the period s poetic movements its engagement with form technique and the other arts its association with particular locations and places its connection with and difference from poetry in other parts of the world and its circling around such ethical issues as whether poetry can perform actions in the world can atone redress or repair and how its significance is inseparable from acts of evaluation in both poets and readers Though the book is not structured to feature chapters on authors thought to be canonical on the principle that contemporary writers are by definition not yet canonical the volume contains commentary on many prominent poets as well as finding space for its contributors enthusiasms for numerous less familiar figures It has been organized to be read from cover to cover as an ever deepening exploration of a complex field to be read in one or more of its five thematically structured sections or indeed to be read by picking out single chapters or discussions of poets that particularly interest its individual readers Essays on James Clarence Mangan S. Sturgeon, 2015-12-31 This is the first collection of essays to focus on the extraordinary literary achievement of James Clarence Mangan 1803 1849 increasingly recognized as one of the most important Irish writers of the nineteenth century It features contributions by acclaimed contemporary writers including Paul Muldoon and Ciaran Carson The English Baroque in Early Modern Literature Robert Hudson Vincent, 2025 While the baroque remains a foundational concept for other European literary and aesthetic traditions scholars have largely elided the word from British literary history Instead of baroque most critics prefer to use terms like metaphysical Stuart and Laudian words that emphasise England's primacy rather than its connections with the world In response to these Anglocentric approaches The English Baroque in Early Modern Literature demonstrates how the baroque can deepen our understanding of the multilingual cross confessional and interdisciplinary features of early modern English literature It connects the works of Margaret Cavendish John Donne John Milton and William Shakespeare among other English authors to the style of excess that spread across Europe and the colonial world during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries In doing so Robert Hudson Vincent offers a compelling new vision of the baroque as an aesthetic logic for thinking about and living with excess in the early modern world The Cambridge Companion to Irish Modernism Joe Cleary, 2014-08-11 The story of Irish modernism constitutes a remarkable chapter in the movement's history This volume serves as an incisive and accessible overview of that brilliant period in which Irish artists not only helped to create a distinctive nationalist literature but also changed the face of European and anglophone culture This Companion surveys developments in modernist poetry drama fiction and the visual arts Early innovators such as Oscar Wilde George Bernard Shaw Jack B Yeats and James Joyce as well as late modernists including Elizabeth Bowen Samuel Beckett Flann O Brien M irt n Cadhain and Francis Bacon all appear here Significantly however this volume ranges beyond such iconic figures to open up new ground with chapters on Irish women modernists Irish American modernism Irish language modernism and the critical reception of modernism in Ireland The New Irish Studies Paige Reynolds, 2020-09-24 The New Irish Studies demonstrates how diverse critical approaches enable a richer understanding of contemporary Irish writing and culture The early decades of the twenty first century in Ireland and Northern Ireland have seen an astonishing rate of change one that reflects the common understanding of the contemporary as a moment of acceleration and flux This collection tracks how Irish writers have represented the peace and reconciliation process in Northern Ireland the consequences of the Celtic Tiger economic boom in the Republic the waning influence of Catholicism the increased authority of diverse voices and an altered relationship with Europe The essays acknowledge the distinctiveness of contemporary Irish literature reflecting a sense that the local can shed light on the global even as they reach beyond the limited tropes that have long identified Irish literature The collection suggests routes forward for Irish Studies and unsettles presumptions about what constitutes an Irish classic

Art and Science in Word and Image, 2019-03-27 Art and Science in Word and Image investigates the theme of riddles of form exploring how discovery and innovation have functioned inter dependently between art literature and the sciences Using the impact of evolutionary biologist D Arcy Thompson s On Growth and Form on Modernist practices as springboard into the theme contributors consider engagements with mysteries of natural form in painting photography fiction etc as well as theories about cosmic forces and other fields of knowledge and enquiry Hence the collection also deals with topics including cultural inscriptions of gardens and landscapes deconstructions of received history through word and image artworks and texts experiments in poetic materiality graphic re mediations of classic fiction and textual transactions with animation and photography Contributors are Dina Aleshina M rcia Arbex Donna T Canada Smith Calum Colvin Francis Edeline Philippe Enrico tienne F vrier Madeline B Gangnes Eric T Haskell Christina Ionescu Tim Isherwood Matthew Jarron Philippe Kaenel Judy Kendall Catherine Lanone Kristen Nassif Solange Ribeiro de Oliveira Eric Robertson Frances Robertson Cathy Roche Liger David Skilton Melanie Stengele Barry Sullivan Alice Tarbuck Frederik Van Dam Companion to Contemporary Irish Poetry Matthew Campbell, 2003-08-28 In the last fifty years Irish poets have produced some of the most exciting poetry in contemporary literature writing about love and sexuality violence and history country and city This book provides a unique introduction to major figures such as Seamus Heaney but also introduces the reader to significant precursors like Louis MacNeice or Patrick Kavanagh and vital contemporaries and successors among others Thomas Kinsella Paul Muldoon and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Readers will find discussions of Irish poetry from the traditional to the modernist written in Irish as well as English from both North and South This Companion the only book of its kind on the market provides cultural and historical background to contemporary Irish poetry in the contexts of modern Ireland but also in the broad currents of modern world literature It includes a chronology and guide to further reading and will prove invaluable to students and teachers alike A Contemporary Interpretation of James Joyce's A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man Indrani Deb, 2024-11-27 James Joyce is one of the most well known modernist writers of the twentieth century whose novels are special in that they use a form that he popularized first in English literature the stream of consciousness style The novel A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man is just as contemporary as it was when it was written at the beginning of the twentieth century It is the aim of Dr Deb to discover the various ways that Joyce uses to bring out the thematic nuances of the novel This book is a collection of nineteen critical essays on James Joyce s A Portrait of the Artist and the author has gone beyond the established critical material on this novel providing analyses from twenty first century lenses This book will serve as a reference point for all types of readers of the novel students scholars teachers and also the common
