Essential Cinema An Introduction To Film Analysis:

Essential Cinema Jon Lewis, 2014 Essential Cinema Jon Lewis, 2017-01-10 Succinct lively and affordable ESSENTIAL CINEMA AN INTRODUCTION TO FILM ANALYSIS vividly illustrates principles in action as it helps you develop effective skills in close analysis The book is packed with frame captures you can readily relate to and it also features interviews with film practitioners throughout giving you insight into real world practice In addition unique screening questions at the end of each chapter help you apply chapter concepts to any film you watch while the running glossary and end of text illustrated glossary offer easy access to full explanations of concepts This edition includes an updated card reflecting the new guidelines from the 2016 MLA HANDBOOK Eighth Edition Writing in Film Studies, from Professional Practice to Practical Pedagogy Bryan Mead, 2024-01-09 A common refrain heard from instructors in offices across the world is that students have a hard time producing quality written discourse This is no different in the world of film studies where many undergraduate students struggle to cogently discuss the films they watch in class How can film instructors help students become better writers This book answers this question by first uncovering the disciplinary expectations we have for students and then offering strategies to explicitly teach those expectations in the classroom This book examines and identifies the disciplinary conventions of professional film studies discourse along with the expectations we have for student writing in undergraduate film courses What becomes clear from this analysis is that the pedagogical expectations we have for students are aligned with and shaped by professional writing in the discipline It helps to uncover the argument types instructors take for granted and helps those teaching undergraduate students not only to know what those expectations are but also how to use that knowledge to foster better student writing The New Woman's Film Hilary Radner, 2017-01-20 With the chick flick arguably in decline film scholars may well ask what has become of the woman's film Little attention has been paid to the proliferation of films often from the independent sector that do not sit comfortably in either the category of popular culture or that of high art films that are perhaps the corollary of the middle brow novel or smart chick flicks This book seeks to fill this void by focusing on the steady stream of films about and for women that emerge out of independent American and European cinema and that are designed to address an international female audience The new woman's film as a genre includes narratives with strong ties to the woman's film of classical Hollywood while constituting a new distinctive cycle of female centered films that in many ways continue the project of second wave feminism albeit in a modified form Topics addressed include The Bridges of Madison County Clint Eastwood 1995 the feature length films of Nicole Holofcener 1996 2013 the film roles of Tilda Swinton Rachel Getting Married Jonathan Demme 2008 Blue Jasmine Woody Allen 2013 Frances Ha Noah Baumbach 2012 Belle Amma Asante 2013 Fifty Shades of Grey Sam Taylor Johnson 2015 and Jane Campion's Top of the Lake Sundance Channel 2013 Understanding Film James R Russo, 2021-01-12 This film analysis textbook contains sixteen essays on historically significant artistically superior films released between 1922 and 1982 Written for college high school and university students the essays cover central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills This film casebook is geographically diverse with eight countries represented Italy France the United States Russia Germany Great Britain Japan and India The essays sophisticated yet not overly technical or jargon heavy are perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general The book's critical apparatus features credits images and bibliographies for all films discussed filmographies for the directors a glossary of film terms the elements of film analysis a chronology of film theory and criticism topics for writing and discussion a bibliography of film criticism and a comprehensive index Understanding Film A Viewers Guide bucks the trend of current film analysis texts few of which contain actual film analyses by promoting analysis of the chosen films alongside the methods and techniques of film analysis It has been prepared as a primary text for courses in film analysis and a supplementary text for courses such as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation History of Film or Survey of Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination

Teaching Sound Film R. J. Cardullo, 2016-10-26 Teaching Sound Film A Reader is a film analysis and criticism textbook that contains 35 essays on 35 geographically diverse historically significant sound films The countries represented here are France Italy England Belgium Russia India China Cuba Germany Japan Russia Romania Czechoslovakia Brazil Taiwan Austria Afghanistan South Korea Finland Burkina Faso Mexico Iran Israel Colombia and the United States The directors represented include Jean Renoir Orson Welles Akira Kurosawa Federico Fellini Woody Allen Aki Kaurismäki Ken Loach Tomás Gutiérrez Aléa Abbas Kiarostami Michael Haneke and Hong Sang-soo Written with university students and possibly also advanced high school students in mind the essays in Teaching Sound Film A Reader cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy This makes them perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Moreover this book's scholarly apparatus features credits images bibliographies for all films discussed filmographies for all the directors a list of topics for writing and discussion a glossary of film terms and an appendix containing three essays respectively on film acting avant garde cinema and theater vs film

Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo, 2015-04-01 The essays in this insightful film analysis text show cover twenty one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century showing what makes each of them outstanding These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy They will make perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Written with university students in mind these essays cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class The book is aimed at students teachers and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film analysis and criticism The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann's relatively brief Ten Great Films 136 pp 2012 The current work offers twenty one illustrated essays Kauffmann's book contains no images and focuses on Europe The countries represented are France Italy England Hungary Belgium Sweden Scotland Denmark Russia Spain Germany Scotland and Finland Twenty One Landmark European Films 1939 1999 overlaps with Kauffmann's book only in the case of L'avventura though the two approach this film from vastly different angles Moreover the book provides a complete critical apparatus notes bibliographies credits and filmographies whereas Kauffmann's has none This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan's A Short Guide to Writing about Film 8th edition 2011 It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation Western European Cinema History of Film or Global Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination

The New Generation in Chinese Animation Shaopeng Chen, 2021-09-23 In 1995 Chinese animated filmmaking ceased to be a state run enterprise and was plunged into the free market Using key animated films as his case studies Shaopeng Chen examines new generation Chinese animation in its aesthetic and industrial contexts He argues that unlike its predecessors this new generation does not have a distinctive national identity but represents an important stage of diversity and exploration in the history of Chinese animation Chen identifies distinct characteristics of new generation filmmaking including an orientation towards young audiences and the recurring figure of the immortal monkey like Sun Wukong He explores how films such as Lotus Lantern Baolian Deng 1999 responded to competition from American imports such as The Lion King 1994 retaining Chinese iconography while at the same time adopting Hollywood aesthetics and techniques Addressing the series Boonie Bears Xiong Chumo 2014 5 Chen focuses on the film's adaptation from the original TV series and how the films were promoted across generations and by means of both online and offline channels Discussing the series Kuiba Kui Ba 2011 2013 2014 Chen examines Vasoon Animation Studio's ambitious attempt to create the first Chinese style high fantasy fictional universe and considers why the first film was a critical success but a failure at the box office He also explores the relationship between Japanese anime and new generation Chinese animation Finally Chen considers how word of mouth social media engagement lay behind the success of Monkey King Hero is Back 2015 Visual Ethics Michael Schwartz, Howard Harris, 2018-05-31 This volume includes six varied contributions to the study of visual ethics in organizations The implications of our visual world for organizational life and personal behaviour have received scant research attention This volume sets out to address that lack of research Die Hard Jon Lewis, 2025-09-18 Upon its release John McTiernan's Die Hard 1988 was met with immense commercial and critical success breaking the 100 million mark at the box office in its first run and resulting in four Academy Award nominations Jon Lewis's study of the action classic closely examines the film's novel and script adaptation highlighting the influential role of producer Joel Silver He delves into Silver's ground breaking whammy theory which redefined script structure by organizing scripts around timed beats rather than traditional acts or scenes tracing its impact not only in Die Hard but also in other iconic franchises like Lethal Weapon Predator and The Matrix Lewis goes on to consider the film's evocation of post Vietnam male panic and its connection to the Iron John movement He highlights Die Hard as a prime example of the male rampage film genre where white male protagonists express frustration with cultural antagonists like feminism economic regulation government bureaucracy and political corruption Finally he reflects on how Die Hard resonated with its 1988 audience looking for new antagonists in a changing world The film's anticipation of European radical political groups and later terrorism rooted in North Africa and the Middle East foreshadows the era defining war on terror that would follow
