Violence in the City of Women Sarah Hautzinger, 2007-09-17 Brazil's innovative all female police stations installed as part of the return to civilian rule in the 1980s mark the country's first effort to police domestic violence against women Sarah J Hautzinger's vividly detailed accessibly written study explores this phenomenon as a window onto the shifting relationship between violence and gendered power struggles in the city of Salvador da Bahia Hautzinger brings together distinct voices unexpectedly macho policewomen the battered women they are charged with defending indomitable Bahian women who disdain female victims and men who grapple with changing pressures related to masculinity and honor What emerges is a view of Brazil's policing experiment as a pioneering and potentially radical response to demands of the women's movement to build feminism into the state in a society fundamentally shaped by gender

A Critical Realist's Theological Method Douglas W. Kennard, 2013-02-21 A Critical Realist's Theological Method explores a systematic theology method grounded in critical realism in the wake of Alister McGrath Imre Lakatos Nancey Murphy N T Wright and Dale Allison Kennard surveys philosophical and traditional theological approaches for contributions and limitations in order to set out a method for theology and science Kennard extends this method to a Thiselton Ricoeur hermeneutic that can fund insightful exegesis and Biblical theology in the wake of Ladd Dunn Vos and Goldingay This Biblical theology method is illustrated by wisdom literature the traditional reef of the discipline and then developed for the contributions toward systematic theology as Gabler had originally envisioned With contextualized Scripture sourcing most of the content for systematic theology the trajectory is shown in the subtitle Returning the Bible and Biblical Theology to be the Framer for Theology and Science The method is exemplified in exegesis of creation texts which frame possibilities for science Likewise Biblical theology frames a bio ethics integration of psychology and theology setting out a transactional model for psychological recovery with University of Chicago professor Paul Holmes A theology for peer review and work is also framed

Religious Epiphanies Across Traditions and Cultures James Kellenberger, 2017-08-08 This book explores religious epiphanies in which there is the appearance of God a god or a goddess or a manifestation of the divine or religious reality as received in human experience Drawing upon the scriptures of various traditions ancillary religious writings psychological and anthropological studies as well as reports of epiphanic experiences the book presents and examines epiphanies as they have occurred across global religious traditions and cultures historically and up to the present day Primarily providing a study of the great range of epiphanies in their phenomenal presentation Kellenberger also explores issues that arise for epiphanies such as the matter of their veridicality whether they are truly of or from the divine and the question of whether all epiphanies are of the same religious reality      AAAS Science Book List, 1978-1986 Kathryn Wolff, Susan M. O'Connell, Valerie J. Montenegro, 1986 A selected and annotated list of science and mathematics books which supplements the AAAS science book list 3rd ed 1970 and the AAAS science book list supplement 1978      Suicide Risk Assessment and Prevention Maurizio Pompili, 2022-12-19 This book explores suicide prevention perspectives from around the world considering both professionals points of view as well as first person accounts from suicidal individuals Scholars around the globe have puzzled over what makes a person suicidal and what is in the minds of those individuals who die by suicide Most often the focus is not on the motives for suicide nor on the phenomenology of this act but on what is found from small cohorts of suicidal individuals This book offers a tentative synthesis of a complex phenomenon and sheds some light on models of suicide that are less frequently encountered in the literature Written by international experts it makes a valuable contribution to the field of suicidology that appeals to a wide readership from mental health professionals to researchers in suicidology and students      Research Methods for Political Science David E. McNabb, 2015-07-17 Thoroughly updated more concise than the previous edition and available for the first time in paperback Research Methods for Political Science is designed to help students learn what to research why to research and how to research The text integrates both quantitative and qualitative approaches to research in one volume and includes the most comprehensive coverage of qualitative methods currently available It covers such important topics as research design specifying research problems designing questionnaires and writing questions designing and carrying out qualitative research and analyzing both quantitative and qualitative research data Heavily illustrated classroom tested and exceptionally readable and engaging the text also provides specific instructions on the use of available statistical software programs such as Excel and SPSS
