Images and Literacy Lynne Suzanne Hamiter, 1998 School Life, 1945 Musical Life in Guyana Vibert C. Cambridge, 2015-05-21 Musical Life in Guyana is the first in depth study of Guyanese musical life It is also a richly detailed description of the social economic and political conditions that have encouraged and sometimes discouraged musical and cultural creativity in Guyana The book contributes to the study of the interactions between the policies and practices by national governments and musical communities in the Caribbean Vibert C Cambridge explores these interactions in Guyana during the three political eras that the society experienced as it moved from being a British colony to an independent nation The first era to be considered is the period of mature colonial governance guided by the dictates of new imperialism which extended from 1900 to 1953 The second era the period of internal self government and the preparation for independence extends from 1953 the year of the first general elections under universal adult suffrage to 1966 the year when the colony gained its political independence The third phase 1966 to 2000 describes the early postcolonial era Cambridge reveals how the issues of race class gender and ideology deeply influenced who in Guyanese multicultural society obtained access to musical instruction and media outlets and thus who received recognition He also describes the close connections between Guyanese musicians and Caribbean artists from throughout the region and traces the exodus of Guyanese musicians to the great cities of the world a theme often neglected in Caribbean studies The book concludes that the practices of governance across the twentieth century exerted disproportionate influence in the creation production distribution and consumption of music

Dark Carnival David J. Skal, Elias Savada, 2025-02-18 The definitive biography of Hollywood horror legend Tod Browning now revised and expanded with new material One of the most original and unsettling filmmakers of all time Tod Browning 1880 1962 began his career buried alive in a carnival sideshow and saw his Hollywood reputation crash with the box office disaster turned cult classic Freaks Penetrating the secret world of the Edgar Allan Poe of the cinema Dark Carnival excavates the story of this complicated fiercely private man In this newly revised and expanded edition of their biography first published in 1995 David J Skal and Elias Savada researched Browning s recently unearthed scrapbooks and photography archives to add further nuance and depth to their previous portrait of this enigmatic artist Skal and Savada chronicle Browning s turn of the century flight from an eccentric Louisville family into the realm of carnivals and vaudeville his disastrous first marriage his rapid climb to riches in the burgeoning silent film industry and the alcoholism that would plague him throughout his life They offer a close look at Browning s legendary collaborations with Lon Chaney and Bela Lugosi as well as the studio politics that brought his remarkable run to an inglorious conclusion With a revised prologue epilogue filmography and new text and illustrations throughout Dark Carnival is an unparalleled account of a singular filmmaker and an illuminating depiction of the evolution of horror and the early film industry

Mexican Waves Sonia Robles, 2019-10-08 Mexican Waves is the fascinating history of how borderlands radio stations shaped the identity of an entire region as they addressed the needs of the local population and fluidly reached across borders to the United States In so doing radio stations created a new market of borderlands consumers and worked both within and outside the constraints of Mexican and U S laws Historian Sonia Robles examines the transnational business practices of Mexican radio entrepreneurs between the Golden Age of radio and the early years of television history Intersecting Mexican history and diaspora studies with communications studies this book explains how Mexican radio entrepreneurs targeted the Mexican population in the United States decades before U S advertising agencies realized the value of the Spanish language market Robles s robust transnational research weaves together histories of technology performance entrepreneurship and business into a single story Examining the programming of northern Mexican commercial radio stations the book shows how radio stations from Tijuana to Matamoros courted Spanish language listeners in the U S Southwest and local Mexican audiences between 1930 and 1950 Robles deftly demonstrates Mexico s role in creating the borderlands adding texture and depth to the story Scholars and students of radio Spanish language media in the United States communication studies Mexican history and border studies will see how Mexican radio shaped the region s development and how transnational listening communities used broadcast media s unique programming to carve out a place for themselves as consumers and citizens of Mexico and the United States

Estrellita en la ciudad grande / Estrellita in the Big City, 2008 Relates in Spanish and English a telephone conversation in which young Estrellita who has recently moved to Brooklyn New York tells her grandmother who still lives in Puerto Rico all about her adventures in and near Manhattan

The Californians, 1996 Interrogating Critical Pedagogy Pierre Wilbert Orelus, Rochelle Brock, 2014-11-13 Educators teacher practitioners and social activists have successfully used critical pedagogy as a tool to help marginalized students develop awareness and seek alternative solutions to their poor educational and socioeconomic situations. However, this theory is often criticized as being mostly dominated by privileged white males bringing issues of race and gender to the forefront. This volume provides insight on how critical pedagogy can be helpful to scholars and teachers alike in their analysis of racial, gender, linguistic, and political problems. It features a wide range of respected scholars who examine the way and the degree to which critical pedagogy can be used to improve education for students of color, women, and other marginalized groups.
