Global Revolutionary Aesthetics and Politics after Paris '68

Martin Munro, William J. Cloonan, Barry J. Faulk, Christian P. Weber, 2021-02-22 The year 2018 marked the fiftieth anniversary of May 68 a startling by now almost mythic event which combined seriousness courage humor and theatrics The contributions of this volume based on papers presented the conference Does la lutte continue The Global Afterlife of May 68 at Florida State University in March 2019 explore the ramifications of that springtime protest in the contemporary world What has widely become known as the movement of 68 consisted in fact of many synchronous movements in different nations that promoted a great variety of political social and cultural agendas While it is impossible to write a global history of 68 this volume presents a kaleidoscope of different perceptions reflections and receptions of protest in France Italy and other nations that share in common a global utopian imaginary as expressed for example in the slogan All power to the imagination The contributions of this collection show that while all social struggles are political many lasting changes in individual mentalities and social structures originated from utopian ideas that were realized first in artistic productions and their aesthetic reception In this respect the various protests of May 68 continue conceivable way until they placed the seal of the revolution in his trustworthy hands Due to his subversive activities he fell foul of the French governor of Syria resulting in an order being issued for his execution but the Almighty God saved him During this period he was compliant in many attempts to overthrow French rule He was the companion of Sheikh Amin Kuftaro for almost twenty years and following his death Scholar Sheikho followed his footsteps and became the next in succession to guide and teach the disciples of the eminent sheikh His assemblies were distinguished by the profound level of wisdom with which he imparted his teaching and guidance He took great care to draw the attention of his followers to beware of the tales of the Israelites which defame the biography of the noble persons the Envoys of God pth and of anything ascribed to them which conflicts their perfection and impeccability In 1953 the famous coeval philosopher Sir John Godolphin Bennett came from Britain to visit him He remained in his company for three weeks that were filled with lengthy dialogues about the religion of Islam and its actuality Sir John asked Scholar Sheikho many questions about the exact definition of the spirit and the difference between that and the soul as well as asking for clarification about Godly Justice a topic which he found difficult to comprehend As a result of this visit Sir John practised Islamic legislation and performed the prayers along with the followers of the scholar This visit was referred to briefly in the autobiography of Sir John Bennett in his book Witness but after his death a book containing special personal recollections written by Sir John was published in 1975 under the title Journeys in Islamic Countries wherein he spoke in detail about this meeting In this book he gave a detailed account of the personality and character of Scholar Sheikho and of his lectures and disciples He also mentioned the great benefits he had derived from his life changing meeting with the scholar During his lectures Scholar Mohammad Amin Sheikho pointed frequently to the belief in the return of Jesus Christ pth from the Islamic perspective He also indicated the near advent of this significant world event as according to his explanations most of the conditions for this momentous Hour had been fulfilled This was disclosed in his book The Envoy of Peace Looms on the Horizon the Return of Jesus Christ In referring to his meeting with Scholar Sheikho Sir John made mention of this issue in his two books Witness and Journeys in Islamic Countries Professor Abdul Kadir John alias al Dayrani published the book Stories of the Scholar wherein he writes in detail about many deeds performed by his teacher Mohammad Amin Sheikho One of His Pupils Professor A K John alias al Dayrani is the best known and most distinguished among the pupils of Scholar Sheikho He received a certificate of General Education a Syrian certificate which included the study of nine different sciences Prof al Dayrani collected and verified more than fifty books which were dictated by Scholar Sheikho and written on his behalf Therefore his name is always mentioned in association with the name of Mohammad Amin Sheikho

The red-hot dollar, and other stories from the Black Cat H. D. Umbstaetter, 2025-04-24 In The Red Hot Dollar and Other Stories from the Black Cat H D Umbstaetter presents a collection of intriguing narratives that explore themes of greed morality and the human condition amidst a backdrop of early 20th century America The prose is characterized by its vivid descriptions and sharp dialogue reflecting the influence of literary realism while also embracing elements of the Gothic Each story offers a glimpse into the lives of complex characters caught in dilemmas that reveal the darker sides of desire and ambition making it a compelling read for those interested in the psychological interplay between wealth and ethics H D Umbstaetter an influential figure in early American literature drew from his own experiences in a rapidly industrializing society where economic disparities were becoming increasingly pronounced His literary career was marked by a keen observation of societal dynamics which undoubtedly informed the thematic richness of this collection His stories not only reflect personal moral philosophies but also serve as a critique of the capitalist ethos of his time merging personal narratives with broader societal critiques This collection is a must read for anyone intrigued by the moral complexities of human behavior and the socio economic forces that shape it Umbstaetter s incisive storytelling invites readers to reflect on their own values and the consequences of ambition making The Red Hot Dollar a timeless examination of the ties between wealth identity and moral choices

Life M. Kronegger, Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 In her Introduction Tymieniecka states the core theme of the present book sharply Is culture an excess of nature s prodigious expansiveness an excess which might turn out to be dangerous for nature itself if it goes too far or is culture a natural congenial prolongation of nature life If the latter then culture is assimilated into nature and thus would lose its claim to autonomy its criteria would be superseded by those of nature alone Of course nature and culture may both still be seen as being absorbed by the inner powers of specifically human inwardness on which view human being caught in its own transcendence becomes separated radically in kind from the rest of existence and may not touch even the shadow of reality except through its own prism Excess therefore or prolongation And on what terms The relationship between culture and nature in its technical phase demands a new elucidation Here this is pursued by excavating the root significance of the multiple rationalities of life In contrast to Husserl who differentiated living types according to their degree of participation in the world the phenomenology of life disentangles living types from within the onto-poietic web of life itself The human creative act reveals itself as the Great Divide of the Logos of Life a divide that does not separate but harmonizes thus dispelling both naturalistic and spiritualistic reductionism
