Volkwein, 2011-11-22 This volume offers administrators and practitioners a summary guide to assessment in higher education from the reasons for undertaking assessment to the delivery of findings It opens with the questions that precede an effective study and drive research design To what extent is the study aimed at educational improvement and to what extent is it aimed at external accountability Are the results expected to demonstrate goal attainment improvement comparison to others meeting standards cost effective investment What is the population from whom assessment data are being collected Are we measuring the knowledge and skills of individuals and making decisions about their remediation certification or development Or are we sampling from particular groups of students and comparing them to each other or perhaps to themselves over time The core of the volume is devoted to the objects of assessment basic skills general education knowledge attainment in the major personal growth attitudes and satisfaction and alumni outcomes keeping in mind both cognitive and noncognitive measures One chapter describes common obstacles to effective assessment others describe conceptual models research methods and data collection strategies and instruments The concluding chapter underscores the importance of communicating research results effectively This is a special volume of the Jossey Bass higher education quarterly report series New Directions for Institutional Research Always timely and comprehensive New Directions for Institutional Research provides planners and administrators in all types of academic institutions with guidelines in such areas as resource coordination information analysis program evaluation and institutional management Assessment in Higher Education

Clifford Adelman, 1986 Saving Higher Education Martin J. Bradley, Robert H. Seidman, Steven R. Painchaud, 2011-09-09 Praise for Saving Higher Education At last a book that answers one of higher education's most burning questions How do we provide America a cheaper faster undergraduate experience without cheating on the old family recipe and compromising standards At a time when challenges of college value quality and mission are high on the public agenda and an unprecedented number of institutions are exploring three year degree programs we are provided a road map that maintains academic integrity by focusing on learning outcomes rather than process inputs Bravo and about time This book will add value and inform the thinking of all stakeholders even the most skeptical of faculty A three year baccalaureate aligns the academy with the needs and aspirations of the future While enhancing effectiveness it affords students what they want and need while meeting the national agenda for socially and economically productive citizens Stephen Joel Trachtenberg president emeritus and University Professor of Public Service George Washington University This book provides a powerful model of how to redesign a university in the interests of student learning The authors proposed curriculum model addresses many of the fundamental dysfunctions of higher education the fragmentation incoherence and unfocused activity that produces the dispiriting results of our enormous investment They offer an evidence based framework for reshaping our institutions to serve the goals we all wish to achieve while beginning to address the pervasive financial challenges that undermine our efforts This book provides a vivid and stimulating analysis of how to think about and execute constructive change Anyone concerned about the future of higher education should read it and learn from it John Tagg professor emeritus Palomar College and author The Learning Paradigm College This book offers one thoughtful approach to a high quality education at a significantly lower cost If educators respond students will win Margaret L Drugovich president Hartwick College
