Eulogy For Mom From Son:

Harvesting Memories Linda Lee Cermak Kocan, 2025-02-07 Harvesting Memories abounds with intimate and heartfelt recollections from a lone survivor of a family and by extension a way of life that has virtually disappeared from the American landscape. The life she vividly portrays as a child growing up in rural Ohio as the youngest member of a farm family in the 1950s and 1960s, one generation away from two sets of grandparents who immigrated from Czechoslovakia, taught her invaluable life lessons among its triumphs and setbacks. Coal mining and farming coexisted as unlikely bedfellows in that part of the country, but the author's father, who dropped out of school to work in the mines, ultimately came to live a hardscrabble but fulfilling life as a farmer dedicated to his undying belief that the land will feed you. Edward Cermak's realized dream of providing for his family by living off the land came with a death sentence of Black Lung Disease from his years of breathing in coal dust. He and wife Anna were married at the onset of the Great Depression, a most challenging time, and it is fair to say that they shared a prodigious workload and occasional hardship over several decades of farming and never regretted their journey together. The greater the difficulties, the harder they worked, and the more they learned to adapt. As for daughter Linda, the baby and unexpected addition to the family, joining a much older sister and brother, her two decades on the farm were so special that she, as sole survivor, had to put it all into the words that comprise this book as she embarked into her seventies. There are many stories, from the exultant to the tragic, told in these pages. Linda takes you back in time through her memories and ultimately sharing the many truths that came to serve her well as a wife, mother, and grandmother. Perhaps most fascinating is a way of life so reliant on and respectful of family and neighbors, captured in this memoir. You might even find yourself, as did the author in her youth, enjoying the antics of a pet groundhog or dealing with the meanest gobbler ever to walk the face of the earth. It is a compilation of stories and maxims that can only be shared by a dwindling number of those among us who have experienced this rapidly disappearing way of life. All proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated equally to the Dillonvale High School Alumni Association and to the community of East Palestine, Ohio, who suffered the tragic train derailment in 2023 in memory of Linda's Dad and Mom, Ed and Anna Cermak. About the author: Linda Lee Cermak Kocan, the youngest of three children, is the second daughter and only surviving child of the late Edward and Anna Cermak of Dillonvale, Ohio. At 71 years of age, Linda decided to take pencil to paper and record her experiences and lessons learned growing up on her small 150-acre family farm in Ohio's Jefferson County in the 1950s and 1960s. Just jot down a few interesting stories in a notebook to tell her children and grandchildren about their roots and pass on some important life values she had learned during those years. A vociferous reader, Linda is not a formally trained writer, but this memoir reveals a natural talent for writing about what is most important in life via an approach that is inviting, gentle, and authentically warm and loving. She asks that you place your hand in hers as she takes you on a virtual journey back in time to her farm and a childhood replete with memories told in an unpretentious style that can be humorous, charming, and at times assertive and life affirming She promises that Harvesting Memories will inspire and inform you in ways you might find surprising Linda currently lives in the verdant countryside outside of Towanda Pennsylvania with Mark her husband of 52 plus years They live on a 22 acre piece of land which they share with deer various wild critters and their 17 year old cat Sydney Mom's Everything Book for Sons Becky Freeman,Becky Freeman Johnson,2003 Short practical suggestions offer mothers ideas to build a quality relationship with their eight to 12 year old sons following the pattern set in Luke 2 52 The Savvy Mom's Guide to Sons Tina Krause,2014-07-01 The Savvy Mom s Guide to Sons will encourage your faith challenge you spiritually and give you real life advice on how to parent boys with wisdom and confidence Biblically based advice will equip you to guide your boys in the Christian faith plus you ll encounter some humorous common sense tips along the way Each of these 101 accessible chapters wraps up with thought provoking quotations and questions making The Savvy Mom s Guide a perfect book to read alone or with other mothers of sons Memories of a Brooklyn Boy Sol Schwartz,2018-03-09 This is the story of Sol Schwartz the youngest of three children born to Sam and Rose Schwartz Romanian immigrants who migrated to America in the early part of the twentieth century Sol born in 1925 relates about his stressful life growing up in Brooklyn as part of a somewhat fractured family He relates his struggles with education jobs and business ventures and his battles with cancer throughout most of his life that was constantly attacking members of his extended family as well as himself Being widowed twice forced Sol to cope with the problems of raising three children in a home environment with different mother images Sols business responsibilities necessitated his being away from home frequently on foreign trips complicating matters that at times were so stressful he considered suicide Then a third relationship found its way into his life and gave him cause to want to go on living The Child Catcher Andrew Bridge,2024-09-24 The Child Catcher is the true story of the fight to rescue the children confined to a violent and secretive institution in the rural South Andrew Bridge s bestselling memoir Hope s Boy told the story of his survival after he was taken from his mother who struggled with schizophrenia and was left to foster care Bridge was first confined at one of our country s most notorious children s institutions MacLaren Hall Now in The Child Catcher he chronicles his role in the longest running most bitterly fought mental health lawsuit in American history After graduating from Harvard Law School Bridge joined the small team of civil rights lawyers representing the children of the Eufaula Adolescent Center a violent and secretive institution in the rural South against the State of Alabama Eufaula was a place Alabama had refused to surrender Parents were lured into sending their children there unable to get them back Thousands of children went through Eufaula just as thousands went through the institution that Bridge survived as a boy The fight for justice led him through squatters camps in backwoods and into the lives of families caught in a permanent underclass He sat with children as they struggled to explain what had gone wrong in their lives In this David and Goliath battle The Child Catcher is the story of Bridge s personal redemption and the hope that justice for children is possible

Udochukwu Vincent Ogbuji,2013-02 There is an ancient proverb that instructs Physician heal thyself It helps to keep this saying in mind as we seek to bring peace to others That is because our collective peace of mind makes for a beautiful life family and society and no one gives what he or she has not As a priest my endeavor to bring inner healing and peace to many comes with challenges among which includes maintaining my own personal tranquility Urged by my friends and wish to make a difference I decided to write this book after my car accident and resulting paralysis I hope that reading this book will inspire you to continue searching for peace and what makes life worth living No Longer on Pedestals Carol A.

Kuhnert,2015-01-08 Carol Kuhnert always trusted priests completely As a child growing up in a strict Catholic family clergy stood on pedestals next to God in her eyes When her brother Norman expressed a desire to become a priest and entered the seminary after eighth grade Carol had no idea that one day her daughter would reveal a shocking secret Norman was a serial pedophile Stunned and angered by what she learned Carol not only reveals how she confronted her brother and the Catholic Church but also reflects on the events that led up to that moment providing a poignant glimpse into her faith her belief that priests were infallible and her trust in the church its leaders and their assurance to her that they were handling everything But as time passed and Carol struggled to understand why molesters were being left in active ministry and victims were being ignored she details how she embarked on a purposeful crusade to prompt the church to take action and bring justice and hope to its sexual abuse victims No Longer on Pedestals shares the powerful and inspirational true story of one woman s journey to the truth and her subsequent heartfelt mission to reach out to abuse survivors after she learns her brother is a pedophile priest Son of Sister Maria Michael Parlee,2011-07-11 As an older foster child Andrew longed for the day when he'd be adopted by a real family because they loved him and wanted him to be part of their family unit Until that day dawned like many other foster kids he lived with the stigma that he was kept by his foster parents to generate income for them Of late bad had gone to worse for 13 year old Andrew He was being sexually abused by Blanche his new single foster mom Blanche had been abandoned by her husband and despised men Although she used Andrew for her own depraved needs she treated him poorly To add to his pain news of this sexual relationship leaked out to his peers at school and he was now enduring verbal torment at recesses and noon hour Andrew couldn't bear the pain any longer when the only friend who'd stuck up for him at school turned against him He felt totally alone so unloved Dear God I have nothing left to live for he sobbed one night when his foster mom left for a party Please forgive me for what I have to do but I'm hurting so much Andrew headed to his foster mother's shed to get the rope With the rope coiled up under his coat he headed to the big black poplar tree in the Kinsman Park Twelve feet off the ground was a large branch at right angles to the trunk Andrew quickly fashioned a hangman's noose and shinnied up the tree Bracing himself with his legs he slipped the noose over his head and tied the other end of the rope to the branch Grasping the branch he let himself down As he hung there by his fingertips his short life passed before him Letters from Alaska Richard Bartoo,Norma Bartoo,2013-08-08 Letters from Alaska Someone has commented that the Bartoo family is made of people who are highly literate adventurous and in love with the outdoors and animals From the articles in this collection I think any reader will agree with that In their 30 to 40 years of living in Alaska my mom and dad wrote many things to describe what their life was like Some were letters written to family and friends some were trapping logs some were just personal accounts of activities on hunting trips and other travels often written strictly for their own enjoyment My mother and dad were over 50 when they moved to Alaska and started a new life there From my mother's letters over the years she tells all about their life in Alaska in the 20th century She makes the stories of their experiences come alive hunting for moose goats or caribou then fishing for salmon and halibut and how they lost the Salmon Derby and their fur trapping of mink martin etc The perennial question folks ask What's it like to live in Alaska Mom

answers from her viewpoint both in showing details of daily routines of growing flowers while weeding and feeding mosquitoes as well as how to prepare for spending weeks or months at a time in the bush on their annual trapping trip

Out But Safe Al Clark,Dan Schlossberg,2014-05-01 If an umpire could steal the show in a Major League game Al Clark might well have been the one to do it Tough but fair in his thirty years as a professional umpire he took on some of baseball s great umpire baiters such as Earl Weaver Billy Martin and Dick Williams while ejecting any number of the game s elite once tearing a hamstring in the process He was the first Jewish umpire in American League history and probably the first to eject his own father from the officials dressing room But whatever Clark was doing officiating at Nolan Ryan s three hundredth win Cal Ripken s record breaker or the earthquake World Series of 1989 or braving a labor dispute an anti Semitic tirade by a Cy Young Award winner or a legal imbroglio it makes for a good story Called Out but Safe is Clark s outspoken and often hilarious account of his life in baseball from umpire school through the highlights to the inglorious end of his stellar career Not just a source of baseball history and lore Clark s book also affords a rare look at what life is like for someone who works for the Major Leagues other team Burning Hearts Eugene G.
