Explosion Dorothy Cameron Disney, 1950 Blind Vengeance Ray Jenkins, 1997 Just days before Christmas 1989 bombs delivered through the U S mail exploded in two southern states taking the lives of a federal judge in Alabama and a civil rights attorney in Georgia The same week two more deadly packages were intercepted en route to a federal courthouse and an office of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Blind Vengeance is the riveting account of the frantic federal state and local investigations that ensued eventually resulting in the arrest and conviction of Walter Leroy Moody Jr a small time con man who blamed society for his failures In depth portraits of the victims and their killer show three men representative of the changing South the privileged white man Judge Robert Smith Vance of Birmingham who saw the necessity of political changes the black lawyer and city alderman Robert Robinson of Savannah who prevailed in a segregated society to become a respected professional figure and the embittered lifelong criminal Roy Moody who led a brooding solitary life on the edges of society Ray Jenkins's research is based on new information from interviews record searches and unprecedented access to Moody's psychiatric profile The result is a chilling exploration of the mind of a killer blinded by a desire for revenge Flash Point Michael D. Kelleher, 1997-07-16 The crime of mass murder is surrounded by myth false assumptions and misinformation It is frequently sensationalized in the press while the complex motivations of the perpetrator are ignored or soon forgotten The mass murderer is rarely a crazed killer who lashes out against his victims in a mindless frenzy of violence This book examines not only the crime of mass murder but also the complex motivations of the mass murderer presenting a completely new method of categorizing and analyzing the crime and its perpetrator The evolving nature of the crime is examined in the context of actual case histories of mass murder in America Kelleher's insights will be of interest to criminologists and anyone interested in the sociology of crime Bath Massacre Arnie Bernstein, 2009-03-16 With the meticulous attention to detail of a historian and a storyteller's eye for human drama Bernstein shines a beam of truth on a forgotten American tragedy Heartbreaking and riveting Gregg Olsen New York Times best selling author of Starvation Heights A chilling and historic character study of the unfathomable suffering that desperation and fury once unleashed inside a twisted mind can wreak on a small town Contemporary mass murderers Timothy McVeigh Columbine's Dylan Klebold and Virginia Tech's Seung Hui Cho can each trace their horrific genealogy of terror to one man Bath school

bomber Andrew Kehoe

Mardi Link author of When Evil Came to Good Hart On May 18 1927 the small town of Bath Michigan was forever changed when Andrew Kehoe set off a cache of explosives concealed in the basement of the local school Thirty eight children and six adults were dead among them Kehoe who had literally blown himself to bits by setting off a dynamite charge in his car The next day on Kehoe's farm what was left of his wife burned beyond recognition after Kehoe set his property and buildings ablaze was found tied to a handcart her skull crushed With seemingly endless stories of school violence and suicide bombers filling today's headlines Bath Massacre serves as a reminder that terrorism and large scale murder are nothing new

The Encyclopedia of Mass Murder Brian Lane, Wilfred Gregg, 2004 Exploring the world's most extreme cases of mass murder this title includes over 200 notorious cases such as Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold two heavily armed students who opened fire at Columbine High School Colorado killing 13 and Michael Ryan perpetrator of the notorious Hungerford Massacre in which 16 people were shot dead

Burned Edward Humes, 2019-01-08 Was a monstrous killer brought to justice or an innocent mother condemned On an April night in 1989 Jo Ann Parks survived a house fire that claimed the lives of her three small children Though the fire at first seemed a tragic accident investigators soon reported finding evidence proving that Parks had sabotaged wiring set several fires herself and even barricade her four year old son inside a closet to prevent his escape Though she insisted she did nothing wrong Jo Ann Parks received a life sentence without parole based on the power of forensic fire science that convincingly proved her guilt But more than a quarter century later a revolution in the science of fire has exposed many of the incontrovertible truths of 1989 as guesswork in disguise The California Innocence Project is challenging Parks's conviction and the so called science behind it claiming that false assumptions and outright bias convicted an innocent mother of a crime that never actually happened If Parks is exonerated she could well be the Patient Zero in an epidemic of overturned guilty verdicts but only if she wins Can prosecutors dredge up enough evidence and roadblocks to make sure Jo Ann Parks dies in prison No matter how her last ditch effort for freedom turns out the scenes of betrayal ruin and hope will leave readers longing for justice we can trust

Last Chance for Justice

T. K. Thorne, 2013-09-01 On the morning of September 15 1963 a bomb exploded outside the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church in Birmingham Alabama killing four young girls Thirty two years later stymied by a code of silence and an imperfect and often racist legal system only one person Robert Dynamite Bob Chambliss had been convicted in the murders though a wider conspiracy was suspected With many key witnesses and two suspects already dead there seemed little hope of bringing anyone else to justice But in 1995 the FBI and local law enforcement reopened the investigation in secret led by detective Ben Herren of the Birmingham Police Department and special agent Bill Fleming of the FBI For over a year Herren and Fleming analyzed the original FBI files on the bombing and activities of the Ku Klux Klan then began a search for new evidence Their first interview with Klansman Bobby Frank Cherry broke open the case but not in the way they expected Told by a longtime officer of the Birmingham Police Department Last Chance for Justice is the inside story of one of the most infamous crimes of the civil rights era T K Thorne follows the ups and downs of the investigation detailing how Herren and Fleming identified new witnesses and unearthed lost evidence With tenacity humor dedication and some luck the pair encountered the worst and best in human nature on their journey to find justice and perhaps closure for the citizens of Birmingham Human Time Bombs Real STORIES,2018-12-29 Human time bombs are people who are programmed in some cases even from conception by a complex interaction of biological psychological social and spiritual forces to commit crimes so heinous and bloody that even the police are confounded by the depth of hatred the killers display toward their victims Yet these killers give off clear warning signs about the impending danger long before they erupt Read the story of LUCAS JOHN HELDER the bomber who thought he was reforming society of GEORGE HENNARD JR the one who would commit one of the single largest mass murders in the history of the United States and of ARTHUR SHAWCROSS who raped then killed then ate his victims remains What you are about to read will shock sadden terrify and enrage you These are stories about murder Real stories The Encyclopedia of Mass Murder Brian Lane,Wilfred Gregg,2004-04-13 The Encyclopedia of Mass Murder is a remarkable revelatory exploration of the world s worst cases of mass murder This comprehensive guide has been recently revised and updated for its U S debut from two true crime experts From this chilling collection a significantly consistent pattern emerges of the person who commits mass murder almost always male a loner lacking in social skills unable to form stable relationships Bearing a grudge against society in general or blaming certain individuals in particular he seeks revenge in the most extreme way Among the 200 notorious cases profiled are Timothy McVeigh responsible for the deaths of 168 people in the Oklahoma City bombing Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold two heavily armed students who opened fire at Columbine High School killing 13 students and Brenda Spencer a rare instance of a female mass murderer who shot dead eleven junior high classmates because she said I don t like Mondays Eight pages of black and white photographs are included
