Discipline Problems Tadashi Dozono, 2024-05-07 Angel a Black tenth grader at a New York City public school self identifies as a nerd and likes to learn But she s troubled that her history classes leave out events like the genocide and dispossession of Indigenous people in the Americas presenting a sugar coated image of the United States that is at odds with her everyday experience The history I learned in school is simpler she says The world I live in is a lot more complex Angel like every student interviewed in Discipline Problems has been identified by teachers as a troublemaker a student whose behavior disrupts classroom norms and interferes with instruction But her critiques of the curriculum she's taught speak to her curiosity and insight crucial foundations for understanding history Like many students who have been marginalized by systemic racism in American schools she exposes the shortcomings of her classrooms academic environments by challenging both the content and the methods of her education All too often these challenges are framed as troublemaking and the students are disciplined for acting out instead of being rewarded for their intellectual engagement Tadashi Dozono a professor of education and former high school social studies teacher takes seriously the often overlooked critiques that students of color who get labeled as troublemakers direct toward their high school history curriculum He reinterprets troublemaking usually cast as a behavioral deficit as an intellectual asset and form of reasoning that challenges the disciplining reason of classrooms where whiteness is valued over the histories and knowledge of people of color Dozono shows how what are traditionally framed as discipline problems can be seen through a different lens as responses to educational practices that marginalize non white students Discipline Problems reveals how students of color seek out alternate avenues for understanding their world and imagines a pedagogy that champions the curiosity intellect and knowledge of marginalized learners Global History and Geography Readings and Documents Norman Lunger, 2002-12-10

A Global History of The Earlier Palaeolithic Mark J. White, 2022-10-10 This book tells the story of both the ancient humans who made handaxes and the thoughts and ideas of scholars who have spent their lives trying to understand them Beginning with the earliest known finds this volume provides a linear and thematic account of the history of the Old Stone Age or Palaeolithic period covering major discoveries interpretations and debates worldwide a story that takes us from the embers of the Great Fire of London to the beginning of the Covid 19 pandemic It offers a comprehensive and unique history of archaeological theory and interpretation seeking to explain how we know what we know about the deep past and how ideas about it have changed over time reflecting both scientific and societal change At its heart lies the quest for an answer to a most curious and sometimes beautiful tool ever made the handaxe While focused on the Earlier Palaeolithic period the book provides a readable account of how ideas about the prehistoric past generally were formed and altered showing how the wider discipline came to be dominated by a succession of different theoretical paradigms each seeking different answers from the same data set Serving a dual purpose as a historical narrative and as a reference source this book will be of interest to all students and researchers interested in deep human prehistory and evolution archaeological theory and the history of archaeology CliffsTestPrep Regents U.S. History and Government Workbook American BookWorks Corporation, 2008-06-02 Designed with New York State high school students in mind CliffsTestPrep is the only hands on workbook that lets you study review and answer practice Regents exam questions on the topics you're learning as you go. Then you can use it again as a refresher to prepare for the Regents exam by taking a full-length practice test. Concise answers and explanations immediately follow each question so everything you need is right there at your fingertips. You'll get comfortable with the structure of the actual exam while also pinpointing areas where you need further review. About the contents: Inside this workbook you'll get an introduction and a short lesson on writing essays. You'll also find sequential topic-specific test questions with fully explained answers for each of the following sections: U.S. and New York State History, World History, Geography, Economics, Civics, Citizenship, and Government. A full-length practice test at the end of the book is made up of questions culled from multiple past Regents exams. Use it to identify your weaknesses and then go back to those sections for more study. It's that easy.

Teaching History with Big Ideas S. G. Grant, Jill M. Gradwell, 2010-07-16. In the case studies that make up the bulk of this book, middle and high school history teachers describe the decisions and plans and the problems and possibilities they encountered as they ratcheted up their instruction through the use of big ideas. Framing a teaching unit around a question such as "Why don't we know anything about Africa?" offers both teacher and students opportunities to explore historical actors' ideas and events in ways both rich and engaging. Such an approach exemplifies the construct of ambitious teaching whereby teachers demonstrate their ability to marry their deep knowledge of subject matter, students, and the school context in ways that fundamentally challenge the claim that history is boring      Regents Global History and Geography Power Pack 2021 Michael J. Romano, William Streitwieser, Mary Martin, Mark Willner, George Hero, 2021-01-05
