Reach and Teach: Steve Curtis, 2016-08-30 Many churches are involved in short term mission trips Most of these trips however are focused on economic or social development projects coupled with relational evangelism Not many are focused on discipleship or more specifically training indigenous pastors in the essential doctrines of the faith so that they can in turn disciple their church In fact reproducible models for in depth theological education during short term missions are rare As a missionary presently ministering in a number of underdeveloped nations Steve Curtis has witnessed the need for and potential benefit of such models The reality is that there are countless pastors throughout the majority world who have had little to no formal training in Bible or doctrine This book suggests a practical way that churches can use their short term missions program together with their adult discipleship program to help meet this critical global need

Miller,2021-03-18 This book puts John Chrysostom in conversation with deliverance ministries and the prosperity gospel in modern African charismatic Christianity Samantha Miller argues that Chrysostom had a cosmology not unlike that present in the charismatic Christianity of the global south where the world is populated by spirits able to affect the material world Additionally Chrysostom had plenty to say about suffering demons and prosperity Through this conversation issues of personal moral responsibility and salvation rise to the surface and it is through these issues that modern Western and African Christians theologians pastors missionaries and laity can perhaps have a conversation that gets past the question of a spirit inhabited world and talk together about the saving work of Christ for the benefit of all the church

Pipeline David J. Wilson, Lorane Wilson, 2018-05-01 What would it look like if your church really took the last words of Jesus seriously The Great Commission was not just a suggestion by our Lord but an imperative mandate given to his followers Missionary sending agencies are deploying workers to the field but many of them come from disengaged churches that are not producing well equipped disciples We need a fully integrated global supply chain a pipeline that has disciples as the precious commodity as well as an effective infrastructure to distribute and replicate them around the globe Pipeline seeks to re engage the church in mobilizing the next generation of workers for the harvest This is a collaboration of forty different authors from churches agencies and cross cultural servants As people in distant places wait for a messenger of hope and salvation will your church venture into the pipeline

Leading from Below Bill Taylor, 2025-03-18 Follow the downward path of the cross What does it mean to lead from a position of humility calling and service In Leading from Below Bill Taylor shares insights learned from six decades of cross cultural ministry This narrative theology combines elements of autobiography theological insight and practical guidance where leadership lessons emerge more from the crucible of life rather than books podcasts or seminars Taylor s honest stories reflect vulnerability but also the strength to live into the sometimes painful often inscrutable promises of God He reflects on his Third Culture Kid life grapples with the slippery slogans of missions encounters the Holy Spirit in new dimensions of presence and power and seeks to make sense of the many mistakes he made He concludes with a series of reflections on leadership and finishing well Leading from Below is both inspirational and instructive It is designed to encourage and equip leaders with a framework of leading with integrity and a Christ centered perspective

God's Absence and the Charismatic Presence Roy D. Kindelberger, 2017-05-17 The author s theological inquiry is intended to raise questions of interpretation within the camp of openness theology and to direct a discussion on the implications of this movement for the charismatic Pentecostal community Open theism or openness theology affirms that the universe is open the future is not settled God is essentially relational love and the risks of love and the threats against it are real The author digs deep into this area of doctrine in order to question how far openness theology is willing to go Is it only the future that is open to God or are there perhaps unknown aspects to the past and present as well What does God know about sin and when does he know it Is it possible for God to be totally absent from a person s life or even from an entire nation If God can be absent can he also be exceptionally present in the lives of believers What would the divine presence and the charismata spiritual ministries look like in an open universe

Reflecting God's Glory Together A. Scott Moreau, Beth Snodderly, 2011-09-15 The true story of mission has been deeper wider and far more diverse than many Christians in countries with long histories of church presence have realized The authors in Reflecting God s Glory Together Diversity in Evangelical Mission drive that point home in a variety of ways From Filipino and Ghanaian missionary work in North American cities to Canadian work among the Chinese diaspora to African American work in Zimbabwe the authors help us begin to grasp just how many ways evangelicals in mission are truly going from and coming to everywhere as they follow Christ s mandate to reach the nations Diverse voices utilizing diverse strategies pursuing a common call these result in a mosaic whose larger pattern glorifies the God who came to live among us and who continues to send us out in the pattern God so clearly established As editors Beth and Scott invite you to explore the stories embedded in that marvelous mosaic that we have been privileged to collect for this volume

Sharing in God's Presence Roy D. Kindelberger, 2018-10-05

Sharing in God's Presence means far more than getting saved and experiencing God's blessing in our lives. As believers, his presence becomes a very personal part of who we are and what we do. God actually shares himself with us. The language that we use often fails to capture the depths of God's nature penetrating ours, the fullness of his Spirit permeating our hearts and the innermost infusion of his presence in our lives. But the truth couldn't be more intimate. The person who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him (1 Corinthians 6:17). This book is an invitation to share in God's presence by allowing God to share himself with you. God wants everyone to share in his embrace. As we accept our responsibility for prayer ministry and even revival, we share in the very precious dynamic of give and response that's involved in an intimate walk with Jesus Christ. For a general readership, this book is a reworking of material from the second half of the author's academic work, God's Absence and the Charismatic Presence.
