Vickers,Kevin L. Smith,2020-08-15 The day after the deadly shooting at the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School the rallying cry heard across the country was no more school shootings It was clearly evident that school shootings are increasing and reactive measures are not going to change this Images from Parkland Sandy Hook and Columbine made it ever so clear that whereas the atrocities caught our attention schools are still soft targets There are no manuals from the United States Department of Education to turn to for guidance to secure schools No guidance on how to train administration and staff as they truly are the first responders in such an event Rather than wait for the heads of the federal and state education departments to step up and take action the time has come for all school leaders and administrators to take the step to protect their school communities This book will help school leaders and administrators proactively take action to protect their school communities and yet still maintain a warm and nurturing learning environment      Taking Your First Shot Lynne Finch, 2013-06-13 Numbers don't lie more and more women are purchasing guns and learning to shoot While shooting used to be a male dominated sport women across the country have begun discovering that a trip to the range not only is relaxing but also brings with it a sense of strength and empowerment Taking Your First Shot is an introductory guide perfect for either those stepping out onto the range for the first time or those looking to brush up on their skills Author Lynne Finch coaches women on the decision to learn to shoot how to find formal training selecting and purchasing a handgun defensive versus practice ammunition storing and caring for your gun and concealed carry options Along with learning the shooting basics Finch also teaches readers the importance of situational awareness and the basics of self defense Sometimes a gun isn't always an answer and it's important to have a proportional response to the situation Finch begins with teaching readers how to become aware of their surroundings what to watch for and how to respond From there she goes on to define proportional response and why carrying pepper spray a kubotan or even a whistle can make all the difference Learning to shoot is a personal decision but with the proper training and practice shooting can become both an enjoyable and liberating sport
