Public Opinion and the Political Economy of Education Policy around the World Martin R. West, Ludger Woessmann, 2021-04-27 Comparative analyses of the influence of public opinion on education policy in developed countries Although research has suggested a variety of changes to education policy that have the potential to improve educational outcomes politicians are often reluctant to implement such evidence based reforms Public opinion and pressure by interest groups would seem to have a greater role in shaping education policy than insights drawn from empirical data The construction of a comparative political economy of education that seeks to explain policy differences among nations is long overdue This book offers the first comparative inventory and analysis of public opinion and education in developed countries drawing on data primarily from Europe and the United States

Spiraling Downward: Thinking About and Planning for Economic Collapse Peter Damaris, 2013-03-14 America has suffered two economic blows in less than a decade the collapse of the dot com bubble in 2000 and the collapse of the real estate bubble in 2007 2009 These blows have left the U S struggling to stay on its feet Spiraling Downward considers the consequences if a still weak America took another hit another stock market crash and credit crunch Given unaddressed imbalances in the US economy an economic collapse is indeed possible This book charts a path that an economic collapse might take It starts with the anatomy of a market crash and a credit crunch It seeks to identify the danger zones from which another crash might arise It then looks at how a crash might shock an economy already weak into an unarrested downward spiral Spiraling Downward thus offers a way to think about the unthinkable At a time when conventional views of recession and recovery prevail this book asks us to consider a different proposition maybe this time it s different

Teaching Middle Level Social Studies Scott L. Roberts, Benjamin R. Wellenreiter, Jessica Ferreras-Stone, Stephanie L. Strachan, Karrie L. Palmer, 2022-03-01 This textbook is a comprehensive and practical guide to teaching middle level social studies Middle level students are just as capable as high school students at engaging in hands on progressive reflective activities yet pedagogical strategies designed specifically for the middle grades are often overlooked in teacher education programs This text provides both progressive and traditional teaching methods and strategies proven effective in the middle level classroom The content of this book consists of conventional chapters such as What is Social Studies and Unit and Curriculum Planning as well as unique chapters such as The Middle Level Learner Best Practices for Teaching State History and Integrating the Core Subjects in Middle Level Social Studies In addition to the unique chapters and lesson plans many additional features of the book will be useful for middle level teaching and learning These features include A list of website resources that provide links to thousands of lesson plans state and national standards and other multimedia tools that can be used in the classroom Individual collaborative and whole class activities that will help

methods students develop a better understanding of the topics lessons and strategies discussed High quality lesson ideas and classroom tested teaching strategies embedded throughout the book Images of student work samples that will methods students visualize the finished product that is being discussed An examination of state and national standards that will help guide methods students in their lesson planning

Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States United States. President, 2017 Containing the public messages speeches and statements of the President 1956 1992 Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States, George Bush Barack Obama, 1990 Advancing Knowledge and Building Capacity for Early Childhood Research Sharon Ryan, M. Elizabeth Graue, Vivian L. Gadsden, Felice J. Levine, 2021-01-20 This volume employs a multidisciplinary approach to research on a high profile topic very much on the agenda of state and national policy leaders early childhood development and education It aims to reflect how scholarly perspectives shape the contours of knowledge generation and to illuminate the gaps that prevent productive interchange among scholars who value equity in the opportunities available to young children their families and teachers caregivers The editors and authors identify and prioritize critical research areas assess the state of the field in terms of promising research designs and methodologies and identify capacity building needs and potential cross group collaborations Dividing the Public Matthew Gardner Kelly, 2024-01-15 Winner of the Vincent P DeSantis Book Prize from The Society for Historians of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era and awarded with Honorable Mention in the Outstanding Book Award by the History of Education Society and Honorable Mention in the New Scholar s Book Award from AERA s Division F In Dividing the Public Matthew Gardner Kelly takes aim at the racial and economic disparities that characterize public education funding in the United States With California as his focus Kelly illustrates that the use of local taxes to fund public education was never an inadvertent or de facto product of past practices but an intentional decision adopted in place of well known alternatives during the Progressive Era against past precedent and principle in several states From efforts to convert expropriated Indigenous and Mexican land into common school funding in the 1850s to reforms that directed state aid to expanding white suburbs during the years surrounding World War II Dividing the Public traces in intricate detail how a host of policies connected to school funding have divided California by race and class over time In bringing into view the neglected and poorly understood history of policymaking connected to school finance Kelly offers a new story about the role public education played in shaping the racially segregated economically divided and politically fragmented world of the post 1945 metropolis
