Sports and film are media that create time They are temporal not only in the sense that they are defined and regulated by certain temporalities as a result of processes of social negotiation but also in the sense of modulating and intervening in these processes in the first place They are determined by multiple temporalities referring to and aligning along perceptual corporeality but at the same time they also produce time through and along temporalities of bodily expression and perception Thus as much as we perceive and understand sports and film by means of our culturally coded conceptions of time this comprehension is itself already the product of these media s fabrication and modulation of certain audiovisual imaginations of time This book examines these imaginations with regard to US team sports feature films understanding the former as the latter s constitutive conflict which makes these films graspable as a genre in the first place By addressing temporality as an ever new crystallization of a heroic past and an unattainable future in a saturated yet volatile present this conflict connects substantially to the American Dream as an idea of community building historicity Departing from a non taxonomic approach in genre theory and such philosophical recognition of the American Dream as less an ideological narrative but more a social and socially effective imaginary embedded in an audiovisual discourse of time this book demonstrates the interrelation of sports cinema and American subjectivization along close readings of the poetics of affect of five exemplary sports films FIELD OF DREAMS WE ARE MARSHALL KNUTE ROCKNE ALL AMERICAN JIM THORPE ALL AMERICAN MIRACLE My Fall Through Time Agnes Clare Ventura, 2017-06-28

My Fall Through Time is the chronological story of this authors experiences after a life changing event This story recalls how the author lived her life after the catastrophe Struck down when she was just seventeen years old Ms Ventura has presented us here with the story of how her life changed in one fell swoop Written in an easy to read style the author has graced us with personal and in depth accounts of strange occurrences and odd situations that she endured Throughout the journey of her life the author experienced spiritual and psychological renderings of extraordinary happenings The story tells the readers about visions strange dreams out of body experiences aneurisms seizures medicines mental depressions and the archaic brain tests which eventually brought to light the cause of all the changes in her life Finally there is the acknowledgement belief and the acceptance by the author of the spiritual reality that our lives are truly in the hands of God The final tribute here is that the author shares her story telling the readers about the lessons she learned because of her fall through time The hope of the author is that perhaps through her experiences she can help her readers gain insight and understanding of their own life journey The Psychology of Time Mary Sturt, 1925
