The Language of Flowers, With Illustrative Poetry, 2016-10-07 Excerpt from The Language of Flowers With Illustrative Poetry To Which Is Now First Added the Calendar of Flowers But little study will be requisite for the science which we teach Nature has been before us We must however premise two or three rules When a flower is presented in its natural position the sentiment is to be understood affirmatively when reversed negatively For instance a rose bud with its leaves and thorns indicates fear with hope but if reversed it must be construed as saying you may neither fear nor hope Again divest the same rose bud of its thorns and it permits the most sanguine hope deprive it of its petals and retain the thorns and the worst fears may be entertained The expression of every flower may be thus varied by varying its state or position The Marigold is emblematical of pain place it on the head and it signifies trouble of mind on the heart the pangs of love on the bosom the disgusts of ennui The pronoun I is expressed by inclining the symbol to the right and the pronoun thou by inclining it to the left About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
