CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country's problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don't they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of

Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University

Teaching English in Multilingual Contexts Graeme Cane, 2011-01-18 This collection of innovative thought provoking papers discusses contemporary issues practices and research related to the role and teaching of English in multilingual countries The papers written by experienced practitioners in the field from a number of different countries examine how the English language can be more effectively taught to students in Asia who speak English as their second third or fourth language The book will be of interest not only to linguists language teachers and educators but also to social science researchers involved in exploring the effects language policy can have on education and society at large The eleven chapters in this book are divided into three sections multilingual aspects in the teaching and learning of English code switching and code mixing and assessment Their authors came to Karachi from different academic cultural and geographic backgrounds and with diverse experiences of the world of English Language Teaching in order to participate in the Fifth International Seminar hosted by the Aga Khan University Centre of English Language The contributors are all multi linguals for whom the question of how best to teach languages is a challenge they face on a daily basis This small collection of papers is likely to become a powerful resource for English teachers scholars and researchers interested in the problems facing language educators in today s multilingual multi cultural world

Hinglaj Devi Jürgen Schaflechner, 2018 In this book Jürgen Schaflechner examines the political and cultural influences at work at the most influential Hindu pilgrimage site in Pakistan Hinglaj Devi The unique character of this pilgrimage site and its modern importance not only for Hindus but also for Muslims and Sindhi nationalists brings to the fore the lives of Hindu minorities in the Islamic Republic

Education, Inclusion, Pluralism and United Nations Sustainable Development Goals Sher Rahmat Khan, 2024-12-23 This book offers a compelling analysis of education s promise to achieve inclusive pluralistic and sustainable societies These globally shared challenges are examined through a detailed analysis of the cultural politics of education in postcolonial Pakistan The analysis provides a window into the ways that the intergenerational traumas of colonialism neocolonialism globalisation and forms of extremism continue to present significant challenges for postcolonial Pakistan Drawing on postcolonial theories and curriculum theory the author develops a critical discourse analysis of the cultural politics that shapes education in Pakistan

The analysis identifies key elements of this cultural politics such as religious and cultural dynamics geopolitical challenges the need to promote unity and cohesion employing history for nation building and gender relations and the ways in which these elements intersect to shape the possibilities of delivering on the promise of inclusion pluralism and sustainable development

(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation Authors voices come from a variety of contexts some historical some contemporary some providing analyses over time But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced invisible marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion ethnicity sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider This book is thus about who we are not only demographically but also in terms of the past especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks The concluding chapters provides ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts
