1. As a past student, write a letter to the head of your former school suggesting at least two ways which conditions in the school can be improved.
2. Write an article for publication in one of your national newspapers expressing your views on the topic, The usefulness of vacation classes.
3. Write a story that illustrates the saying, Shortcuts are dangerous.

PART B
COMPREHENSION
[10 marks]

4. Read the following passage carefully and answer all the questions which follow.

Among the Akans, a stool becomes vacant when the chief dies, abdicates or is destooled. It paves way for the process of installation of a new chief to begin.

First, the queenmother nominates a suitable candidate from among the contestants belonging to the royal clan for the elders' consideration and approval. The candidate to be nominated should be respectful and humble. He should exhibit a character worthy of emulation and be acceptable to the citizens of the town.

The candidate approved by the royal clan is then presented to the kingmakers of the town. These comprise the sub-chiefs and all the clan heads. This is the greatest hurdle the candidate has to clear. If he is accepted, his body is sprinkled with powder, he is carried shoulder high and the whole town goes gay.

The chief-elect is then confined for a period during which he is taken through the history of the stool that he is about to occupy. He is taught how to speak, walk and behave as a chief. He is also made aware of the rules and regulations of his high office. He is well fed and given all the attention he deserves and ample time to rest. These are to make him refreshed and dignified.

At the end of his confinement, he is outdoored and presented to his people at a colourful ceremony of his sub-chiefs, clan heads, invited guests and well-wishers. This is the climax of the ensoulment process. He, holding a state sword, swears the oath of allegiance to the sub-chiefs, elders and the people, who in turn swear the same oath of allegiance to him. This process firmly confirms the candidate as the chief.

He then begins to perform his functions as such.

- (a) Mention any two events that make a stool vacant.
- (b) Who nominates a candidate for the vacant stool?
