Tom's Version Robert Irwin, 2025-06-01 This is the story of a story that plays out in real life Tom is a stock controller Though management of the shelves kept him busy in the daytime his nights were frightful Again and again he dreamt of guns conjuring tricks car chases burials disinterments Martian landscapes and Molly Tom is new to the Story as it was known to the sinister crew who first appeared in The Runes Have Been Cast They make their reappearance in this new novel Molly is a hoplophiliac Quentin is the sort of person who knows what a hoplophiliac is someone who likes the use of guns in sex Lancelyn is terrified of women Jaimie has committed murder in order to understand what it is like to be evil Ferdie is a conjuror with bad breath Bernard is an expert on ghost stories Mortimer is a thug who works at the The Times Literary Supplement But Tom is just so ordinary apart from his visions of Fairyland Hovering in the background are the ghostly presences of St Ignatius of Loyola St Joseph of Cupertino Robert Louis Stevenson and M R James Tom's Version is a lament for the sixties and then a mad race towards old age and death there is much fun to be had in these pages and the novel ends with a deftly executed twist of perspective It is a book haunted by many earlier writers but it is Irwin's own antic voice which proves to be the most memorable element JS Barnes in The Literary Review Tom's Version his 10th novel talks of edgy things from abusive relationships to narcotics and sexual power games but with a jovial almost cosy air that suggests this is all now second nature for the 77 year old author Tom's Version is in many ways a book about books with all the erudite insularity that entails For all its esoteric trappings there's nothing especially high minded about this energetic romp at its core which I mean in a good way Noel Gardner in Buzz Magazine
