relationship between power and knowledge the authority of religious texts and institutions and the involvement and responsibility of the researcher undertaking such studies as a gendered subject This book is the outcome of an international collaboration between a wide range of researchers from different countries and fields of religious studies The range and diversity of their contributions is the very strength of this book for it shows how gendering works in studying different religious materials whether foundational texts from the Bible or Koran philosophical ideas about truth essentialism history or symbolism the impact of French feminist thinkers such as Irigaray or Kristeva or again critical perspectives dealing with the impact of race gender and class on religion or by deconstructing religious data from a postcolonial critical standpoint or examining the impact of imperialism and orientalism on religion and gender

Traumatic Memories of the Second World War and After Peter Leese, Jason Crouthamel, 2016-10-05 This collection investigates the social and cultural history of trauma to offer a comparative analysis of its individual communal and political effects in the twentieth century Particular attention is given to witness testimony to procedures of personal memory and collective commemoration and to visual sources as they illuminate the changing historical nature of trauma The essays draw on diverse methodologies including oral history and use varied sources such as literature film and the broadcast media The contributions discuss imaginative communal and political responses as well as the ways in which the later welfare of traumatized individuals is shaped by medical military and civilian institutions Incorporating innovative methodologies and offering a thorough evaluation of current research the book shows new directions in historical trauma studies

New Microhistorical Approaches to an Integrated History of the Holocaust Frédéric Bonnesoeur, Hannah Wilson, Christin Zühlke, 2023-11-06 In 1997 Saul Friedlander emphasized the need for an integrated history of the Holocaust His suggestion to connect the policies of the perpetrators the attitudes of surrounding society and the world of the victims provides the inspiration for this volume Following in these footsteps this innovative study approaches Holocaust history through a combination of macro analysis with micro studies Featuring a range of contemporary research from emerging scholars in the field this peer reviewed volume provides detailed engagement with a variety of historical sources such as documents artifacts photos or text passages The contributors investigate particular aspects of sound materiality space and social perceptions to provide a deeper understanding of the Holocaust which have often been overlooked or generalised in previous historical research Yet as we approach an era of no first hand witnesses this multidisciplinary micro historical approach remains a fundamental aspect of Holocaust research and can provide a theoretical framework for future studies

The Holocaust David M. Crowe, 2018-05-04 This book details the history of the Jews their two millennia old struggle with a larger Christian world and the historical anti-Semitism that created the environment that helped pave the way for the Holocaust It helps students develop the interpretative skills in the fields of history and law

The Holocaust Novel Efraim Sicher, 2013-10-31 The first comprehensive study of Holocaust literature as a major postwar literary genre The Holocaust Novel provides an ideal student guide to the powerful and moving works written in response to this historical tragedy This student friendly volume answers a dire need for readers to understand a genre in which boundaries are often blurred between history fiction autobiography and memoir Other essential features for students here include an annotated bibliography chronology and further reading list Major texts discussed include such widely taught works as Night Maus The Shawl Schindler's List Sophie's Choice White Noise and Time's Arrow KL Nikolaus Wachsmann, 2015-04-14 The deeply researched groundbreaking first comprehensive history of the Nazi concentration camps Adam Kirsch The New Yorker In a landmark work of history Nikolaus Wachsmann offers an unprecedented integrated account of the Nazi concentration camps from their inception in 1933 through their demise seventy years ago in the spring of 1945 The Third Reich has been studied in more depth than virtually any other period in history and yet until now there has been no history of the camp system that tells the full story of its broad development and the everyday experiences of its inhabitants both perpetrators and victims and all those living in what Primo Levi called the gray zone In KL Wachsmann fills this glaring gap in our understanding He not only synthesizes a new generation of scholarly work much of it untranslated and unknown outside of Germany but also presents startling revelations based on many years of archival research about the functioning and scope of the camp system Closely examining life and death inside the camps and adopting a wider lens to show how the camp system was shaped by changing political legal social economic and military forces Wachsmann produces a unified picture of the Nazi regime and its camps that we have never seen before A boldly ambitious work of deep importance KL is destined to be a classic in the history of the twentieth century Praise for KL A Wall Street Journal Best Book of 2015 A Kirkus Reviews Best History Book of 2015 Finalist for the National Jewish Book Award in the Holocaust category A monumental study a work of prodigious scholarship with agonizing human texture and extraordinary detail Wachsmann makes the unimaginable palpable That is his great achievement Roger Cohen The New York Times Book Review Wachsmann's meticulously detailed history is essential for many reasons not the least of which is his careful documentation of Nazi Germany's descent from greater to even greater madness To the persistent question How did it happen Wachsmann supplies voluminous answers Earl Pike The Plain Dealer Cleveland Hunting Eichmann Neal Bascomb, 2009 With the intrigue of a detective story Hunting Eichmann follows the Nazi as he escapes two American POW camps hides in the mountains and builds an anonymous life in Buenos Aires before finally being captured and brought to trial The Faith and Doubt of Holocaust Survivors Reeve Robert Brenner, 2017-07-12 The Faith and Doubt of Holocaust Survivors reveals the victims' frank and thought provoking answers to searching questions about their experiences Was the Holocaust God's will Was there any meaning or purpose in the Holocaust Was Israel worth the price six million had to pay Did the experience in the death camps bring about an avowal of faith A denial of God A reaffirmation of religious belief Did the Holocaust change beliefs about the coming of the Messiah the Torah the Jews as the chosen people and the nature of God Drawing on the responses of seven hundred survivors Reeve Robert Brenner reveals the changes rejections reaffirmations doubts and despairs that have so profoundly affected the faith practices ideas and attitudes of survivors and by extension the entire Jewish people Many survivors carried their deepest secrets and innermost beliefs silently from internment to interment But Brenner s quest provided the impetus for many survivors to end their silence about the past and come forth with their feelings In poignant vignettes scattered throughout the book their answers to these profound questions are offered disclosing ardent overpowering passions and sensibilities

The Survivor Terrence Des Pres,1980 An examination of how inmates survived both physically and mentally their internment in camps discussing not only the Nazi concentration and extermination camps but also the Soviet Gulag

Scent and Scent-sibilities Kelvin E. Y. Low,2008-12-18 Smells are distinct and ubiquitous They envelope us enter our bodies and emanate from us Yet they remain relegated to the background of everyday life experiences This book attempts to highlight the social salience of smell in social actors day to day encounters where issues involving morality and social othering presentation of self and personhood intertwine with analyses of smell as a social conduit These encounters include the experiences of anosmic individuals which capture non olfactive social worlds that are rarely addressed hitherto Further deliberations on olfaction in relation to social memberships of race class and gender elucidate upon social boundaries of inclusion and exclusion constructed vis vis smell as a social marker Olfactive adjudications of race and class are then expanded upon through the author s discussion of various smellscape in the context of Singapore Olfaction sanitary discipline and olfactive simulacra are also expounded upon thereby underscoring the control and manipulation of scents in the contexts of modernity and postmodernity Smells therefore offer insights into the workings of social relations and power structures in society By predicating analyses on empirical data procured from Singapore along with case studies from the region and beyond this study draws much needed attention on smell which has been a neglected sense in the wider literature In addition the concurrent employment of the other senses will also be explicated which therefore demonstrates the social character of smell and other sensory modalities through historical and contemporary milieux This book is a pioneering effort in offering sociocultural interpretations of scents based on primary and secondary data analysed using the trajectory of sociology of everyday life

Are Women Human? Catharine A. MacKinnon,2007-11-30 More than half a century after the Universal Declaration of Human Rights defined what a human being is and is entitled to MacKinnon asks Are women human yet She exposes the consequences and significance of the systematic maltreatment of women and its systemic condonation as she points toward fresh ways of targeting its toxic orthodoxies
