The Face Tash Aw,2016-03 A whirlwind personal history of modern Asia as told through his Malaysian and Chinese heritage

Our Evenings Alan Hollinghurst,2025-08-19 Named a Best Book of the Year by The New Yorker The Winnipeg Free Press The Guardian TIME The Irish Times Kirkus Reviews Publishers Weekly Slate A New York Times Notable Book of 2024 From the internationally acclaimed winner of the Booker Prize a piercing novel that envisions modern England through the lens of one man s acutely observed and often unnerving experience as he struggles with class and race art and sexuality love and violence The finest novel yet from one of the great writers of our time The Guardian Did I have a grievance Most of us without looking far could find something that had harmed us and oppressed us and unfairly held us back I tried not to dwell on it thought it healthier not to though I d lived my short life so far in a chaos of privilege and prejudice Dave Win the son of a British dressmaker and a Burmese man he s never met is thirteen years old when he gets a scholarship to a top boarding school With the doors of elite English society cracked open for him heady new possibilities lie before Dave even as he is exposed to the envy and viciousness of his wealthy classmates above all that of Giles Hadlow whose worldly parents sponsored the scholarship and who find in Dave someone they can more easily nurture than their brutish son Our Evenings follows Dave from the 1960s on through the possibilities that remained open for him and others that proved to be illusory as a working class brown child in a decidedly white institution a young man discovering queer culture and experiencing his first formative love affairs a talented but often overlooked actor on the road with an experimental theater company and an older Londoner whose late in life marriage fills his days with an unexpected sense of happiness and security Moving in and out of Dave's orbit are the Hadlows Estranged from his parents who remain close to Dave Giles directs his privilege into a career as a powerful right wing politician whose reactionary vision for England pokes perilous holes in Dave's stability And as the novel accelerates towards the present day the two men's lives and values will finally collide in a cruel shock of violence This is one of our most gifted writers The Boston Globe sweeping readers from our past to our present through the beauty pain and joy of one deeply observed life

The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes Andrew J. Moody, 2024 This volume describes both the history and the contemporary forms functions and status of English in Southeast Asia The chapters provide a comprehensive overview of current research on a wide range of topics addressing the impact of English as a language of globalization and exploring new approaches to the spread of English in the region Pacific Automobility Gijs Mom, 2022-09-13 The beginning of the 21st century has seen important shifts in mobility cultures around the world as the West's media driven car culture has contrasted with existing local mobilities from rickshaws in India and minibuses in Africa to cycling in China In this expansive volume historian Gijs Mom explores how contemporary mobility has been impacted by social political and economic forces on a global scale as in light of local mobility cultures the car as an adventure machine seems to lose cultural influence in favor of the car's status character

We, the Survivors Tash Aw, 2019-09-03 From the author of The Harmony Silk Factory and Five Star Billionaire a compelling depiction of a man's act of violence set against the backdrop of Asia in flux Ah Hock is an ordinary man of simple means Born and raised in a Malaysian fishing village he favors stability above all a preference at odds with his rapidly modernizing surroundings So what brings him to kill a man This question leads a young privileged journalist to Ah Hock's door While the victim has been mourned and the killer has served time for the crime Ah Hock's motive remains unclear even to himself His vivid confession unfurls over extensive interviews with the journalist herself a local whose life has taken a very different course The process forces both the speaker and his listener to reckon with systems of power race and class in a place where success is promised to all yet delivered only to its lucky heirs An uncompromising portrait of an outsider navigating a society in transition Tash Aw's anti nostalgic tale We the Survivors holds its tension to the very end In the wake of loss and destruction hope is among the survivors Transitive Cultures Christopher B. Patterson, 2018-04-02 Texts written by Southeast Asian migrants have often been read taught and studied under the label of multicultural literature But what if the ideology of multiculturalism with its emphasis on authenticity and identifiable cultural difference is precisely what this literature resists Transitive Cultures offers a new perspective on transpacific Anglophone literature revealing how these chameleonic writers enact a variety of hybrid transnational identities and intimacies Examining literature from Malaysia Singapore and the Philippines as well as from Southeast Asian migrants in Canada Hawaii and the U S mainland this book considers how these authors use English strategically as a means for building interethnic alliances and critiquing ruling power structures in both Southeast Asia and North America Uncovering a wealth of texts from queer migrants those who resist ethnic stereotypes and those who feel few ties to their ostensible homelands Transitive Cultures challenges conventional expectations regarding diaspora and minority writers

Handbook of Anglophone World Literatures Stefan Helgesson, Birgit Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-09-07 The Passenger: Paris The Passenger, 2021-09-29 The best new writing photography art and reportage from and about Paris in the rich and engrossing series for literary travelers Times Literary Supplement Paris's postcard image has suffered multiple blows in recent years the November 2015 terrorist attacks the demonstrations of the yellow vests the riots in the suburbs Notre Dame in flames record heatwaves and the coronavirus Meanwhile soaring living costs are forcing many Parisians to leave the city Yet these are not just a series of unfortunate events They are phenomena from increasing population density to climate change from immigration to the repercussions of globalization and geopolitics that all metropolises in the world must face And in Paris today the mood is not one of defeat but of renewal from the city's ongoing environmental and urbanistic transformation to the fight by a new generation of chefs against the traditionalism of starred restaurants from the children of immigrants who take to the streets for the right to feel French to the women determined to break the sexism and stereotypes that dominate the fashion industry Is there anyone who seriously thinks they can teach Parisians how to make a revolution This volume includes Out of the Shadows by Tash Aw Against the Stars by Tommaso Melilli Afraid of Being Free by Samar Yazbek Plus the Champs Elysées between luxury and riots the French Republic between anti-Semitism and Islamophobia the most elegant Congolese dandies of all time one Parisian woman you will not encounter the city's legendary football team that is not the PSG and much more The Passenger readers will find none of the typical travel guide sections on where to eat or what sights to see Consider the books rather more like a literary vacation Publishers Weekly

Belonging to the Nation Edmund Gomez, Gregor Benton, 2016-04-14 This study reviews developments in the ethnic and national identity of the descendants of migrants taking ethnic Chinese as a case study Our core question is why in spite of debates worldwide about identity exclusion and rights do minority communities continue to suffer discrimination and attacks This question is asked in view of the growing incidence in recent years of racial conflicts between majority and minority communities and among minorities in both developed and developing countries The study examines national identity from the perspective of migrants descendants whose national identity may be more rooted than is often thought Concepts such as new ethnicities cultural fluidity and new and multiple identities feature in this examination These concepts highlight identity changes across generations and the need to challenge and reinterpret the meaning of nation and to review problems with policy initiatives designed to promote nation building in multi ethnic societies This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2020-05-15 This collection of essays brings together work by some of the most internationally acclaimed critics of Malaysian literature in English from different parts of the world including Australia Canada Japan Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the works of major writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on thematic and stylistic trends The book pays particular attention to issues such as gender ethnicity nationalism multiculturalism diaspora hybridity and transnationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English first introduced by
