Five To Fifteen A Woman A Prison A Redemption:

In Search of Safety Barbara Owen, James Wells, Joycelyn Pollock, 2017-01-24 In Search of Safety takes a close look at the sources of gendered violence and conflict in women's prisons. The authors examine how intersectional inequalities and cumulative disadvantages are at the root of prison conflict and violence and mirror the women's pathways to prison. Women must negotiate these inequities by developing forms of prison capital: social, human, cultural, emotional, and economic, to ensure their safety while inside. The authors also analyze how conflict and subsequent violence result from human rights violations inside the prison that occur within the gendered context of substandard prison conditions, inequalities of capital among those imprisoned, and relationships with correctional staff. In Search of Safety proposes a way forward: the implementation of international human rights standards for U.S. prisons.

Five to Fifteen Denise Sassoon, 2015-03-15 In September 1975 Denise Sassoon entered the front gates of the Arizona State Prison for Women inside the back of a caged state transport van. She was sentenced to no less than five, no more than fifteen years of incarceration. At 21 years old, how had she, a 1960s hippie child who embraced peace, love, and freedom, wound up in this strange, confined, and violent place? What would she become within the walls of prison, and what would become of her once she was granted her freedom again? Fascinating in its detailed and personal perspective, Five to Fifteen: A Woman, A Prison, A Redemption is Denise's story. She not only shares how she survived being in prison from 1975 to 1980 but is also candid about how, once released, she dove into the rampant drug culture of the 1980s and journeyed through 22 challenging years of battling her demons. A woman hopeful to overcome her life of molestation, rape, beatings, addiction, and prison, Denise was indeed able to redeem her life by conquering her past and allowing love to heal her. Since 1988, Denise has helped countless other people do the same as she has worked tirelessly in many aspects of the field of recovery. Now she is hopeful that sharing the story of her journey will aid others in having the courage to do as she did. Denise is also hopeful that she can help others choose to experience the joy and personal peace that exist in moving toward the light of self-love.

Place of Redemption Second Edition Catholics, Bishops' Conferences, 2006-06-30 This Guide sets out how, in nine sessions, the key themes of the book can be explored and discussed by a group, with practical suggestions about how people might become more involved and how, from a Christian perspective, public policy could be changed for the better. This important book deserves to be taken seriously if we are to face what is happening and do what we can to help improve a penal system that is still far from what any civilized society should be content with.

After Prison--What? Maud Ballington Booth,2019-12-13 In After Prison What Maud Ballington Booth explores the significant yet often overlooked challenges faced by ex convicts reintegrating into society Through a blend of poignant anecdotes and sociological insights Booth reflects on the systemic barriers that persist upon release offering a critical examination of the societal structures that contribute to recidivism Written in a compelling and accessible style the book serves as both an indictment of the criminal justice system and a compassionate plea for rehabilitation illuminating the complexities of reintegration in the context of early 20th century America Maud Ballington Booth a prominent advocate for prison reform and social justice drew from her extensive experience in the realm of penal reform when writing this work As co founder of the Volunteers of America with her husband she was deeply engaged with the plight of those marginalized by society Her life s work was infused with a passion for empathy and understanding which she channeled into her writings depicting the often ignored voices of the incarcerated and their struggles post release After Prison What is essential reading for those interested in criminal justice reform sociology and human rights It serves as a thought provoking exploration of the pressing need for a more compassionate approach to rehabilitation making it a significant contribution to the dialogue surrounding this vital issue The Nation ,1918 When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness,2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritabily ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ s executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars American Women Frances Elizabeth Willard, Mary Ashton Livermore, 1897 Women Lifers Meredith Huey Dye, Ronald H. Aday, 2019-06-08 The number of women in United States prisons has increased dramatically since the 1980s and has in proportion outpaced that of men s incarceration Despite these numbers incarcerated women and women lifers specifically represent a relatively small percentage of the overall correctional and lifer populations As such women lifers are easy to overlook discount and diminish as such a small group Many women lifers perceive themselves as a forgotten group most often those whom we lock up and throw away the key They feel excluded from prison programming within and from their own families outside They feel stigmatized by staff and other women in prison Aging fast many have real fears about declining health and losing family members over lengthy stretches of time However women lifers are some of the most resilient and strongest women who survive life in prison with the support of each other and religious faith often transforming themselves in the process of doing time While most of the women had extensive histories of trauma abuse and mental health issues few had prior experience as offenders Despite the term lifer many of these women will be released from prison after serving long sentences Beyond this basic profile there is much more to learn and share about the lives of women lifers Focusing on women s pathways into prison the ways they cope with life behind bars and their diverse reentry needs Meredith Dye and Ronald Aday give voice to women lifers and place their experiences within the larger context of penal harm policies The authors look at their physical and mental health family connections adjustment to prison prison supports and activities and experiences with abuse trauma while also looking at the growing public and policy concerns over mass incarceration in general Women Lifers provides insight into the lives of incarcerated women before during and following a life sentence especially the population of those serving life sentences With the growing numbers of women lifers in the United States the authors emphasize the importance for the public and policymakers to understand the unique circumstances that brought these women to prison the policies that keep them there and the major challenges they face in carving out a successful life in prison and beyond Women, Film, and Law Suzanne Bouclin, 2021-03-15 Entertainment and profit constitute the driving force behind popular representations of women in correctional facilities But the creative influence of film and television also generates legal meaning The women in prison WIP genre can leave viewers feeling both empathetic toward the women portrayed in these representations and troubled about the crimes for which they have been convicted Focusing on five exemplary WIP films and a television series Ann Vickers Caged Caged Heat Stranger Inside Civil Brand and Orange Is the New Black Women Film and Law asks how fictional representations explore shape and refine beliefs about women who are incarcerated From melodrama to exploitation and from theatre screenings to on demand film television programs and music videos these texts bring into view the legal economic and political structures that criminalize women differently from men and that target those women who are already marginalized Women Film and Law convincingly argues that popular depictions of women s imprisonment can illuminate the multiple forms of social exclusion and oppression experienced by criminalized women Reading Is My Window Megan Sweeney,2010-02-15 Drawing on extensive interviews with ninety four women prisoners Megan Sweeney examines how incarcerated women use available reading materials to come to terms with their pasts negotiate their present experiences and reach toward different futures Foregrounding the voices of African American women Sweeney analyzes how prisoners read three popular genres narratives of victimization urban crime fiction and self help books She outlines the history of reading and education in U S prisons highlighting how the increasing dehumanization of prisoners has resulted in diminished prison libraries and restricted opportunities for reading Although penal officials have sometimes endorsed reading as a means to control prisoners Sweeney illuminates the resourceful ways in which prisoners educate and empower themselves through reading Given the scarcity of counseling and education in prisons women use books to make meaning from their experiences to gain guidance and support to experiment with new ways of being and to maintain connections with the world Their Sisters' Keepers Estelle B. Freedman,1981 This study of prison reform adds a new chapter to the history of women s struggle for justice in America

Session of the General Assembly Indiana,1875 The Black Church - Where Women Pray and Men Prey Deborah Cooper,2012 This book continues an uncomfortable examination of Prosperity Gospel the con game of religion and slick preachers The truth is revealed about the many ways Black women are set up in churches by unscrupulous men out to control demean sexually abuse and rob them and their children Back cover

The Canadian Woman's Annual and Social Service Directory ,1915 Shaking the Gates of Hell Sharon Delgado,2020-01-07 Shaking the Gates of Hell Faith Led Resistance to Corporate Globalization breaks new ground by describing the global economy and its effects from the perspective of an integrated theology of the earth as primary revelation and the institutional powers of this world It reaches the conclusion that hope lies in nonviolent resistance and ecological and social responsibility based on God s action in Jesus and in the triumph of God over the powers This book describes today s interrelated social economic and ecological crises and makes the case that we face a living hell on earth if we do not address them It provides an overview of the global economic system and offers a comprehensive theological analysis of the network of primary institutions that make up what Walter Wink calls the Domination System It points readers in the direction of hope based on following the way of Jesus who lived in nonviolent resistance to the powers of his day This new revised edition continues the powerful story of the original extending the analysis of the global economy from the 2008

collapse and recession to its alleged recovery It addresses the Obama administration s policies on economics trade and the environment and provides further reflections on American foreign and military policy in this so called New American Century
