Getz Donald Events And Public Policy Getz Donald 2007:

Event Studies Donald Getz, 2007 Abstract The Oxford Handbook of Arts and Cultural Management Yuha Jung, Neville Vakharia, Marilena Vecco, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Arts and Cultural Management surveys contemporary research in arts and cultural management fulfilling a crucial need for a curated high quality first line resource for scholars by providing a collection of empirical and theoretical chapters from a global perspective With a focus on rigorous and in depth contributions by both leading and emerging scholars from international and interdisciplinary backgrounds the Handbook presents established and cutting edge research in arts and cultural management and suggests directions for future work

Strategic Management in Public Organizations Paul Joyce, Anne Drumaux, 2014-06-13 Strategic Management in Public Organizations European Practices and Perspectives offers the first wide ranging survey and assessment of strategic management practices at various levels of government and public service in European countries It shows that strategic management is much more than a management tool imported from the private sector it has become a key element of public management reforms and European governments at all levels are developing strategic state characteristics Written by leading European experts on strategic management in the public sector and in government this book presents evaluations and analysis based on empirical investigations The book covers strategic management at different levels of government explore the roles of different players and incorporate theory and practice with opening and concluding chapters by the editors that provide an overview of strategic management in the public services and a cross societal discussion of practices reforms and lessons It reflects not only developments in strategic management practices in the European public sector but also the increasing importance of strategic capabilities for the modernization of public governance This book is ideal for students in postgraduate management courses MPA MSc or MBA in Europe and elsewhere New Tourism Ventures

Dimitri Tassiopoulos, 2008 An entrepreneurial and managerial approach Continual increases in wealth and leisure time have given a sharp rise to tourism which resulted in the rapid development of tourism related ventures such as hotels bed and breakfast accommodation travel agencies restaurants theme parks event companies resorts tourist guides and tour operators to mention a few New Tourism Ventures An Entrepreneurial and Managerial Approach provides a definitive grounding of how to create and manage such tourism ventures It takes an entrepreneurial and managerial approach to the subject underpinning the various concepts associated with entrepreneurship and demonstrating the linkages of the subject with the tourism economy within the context of international best practice and research Event Evaluation: Donald

Getz, 2018-04-20 This is the first textbook and reference work on evaluation intended for event management and event tourism Drawing upon generic evaluation theory and methods event and tourism research and real world experiences it provides concepts and tools for a comprehensive evaluation system and the implementation of evaluation projects Event Studies Donald Getz, 2013-03-12 Many books exist on various aspects of event management reflecting growing academic and professional interest but there has not been a book written on Event Studies until now. As the event management field expands, there is a growth in demand for advanced texts, particularly with a multidisciplinary research and theoretical orientation. Event Studies is the first text to embrace this new direction in the field of event management, providing students and practitioners with an explanation of why planned events are important from a social, cultural, economic, and environmental perspective. Readers with an understanding of how various disciplines and other professional fields view planned events and the contributions they make to understanding events. Research students with a detailed evaluation of research issues and challenges and of methodologies and theories applicable to event studies. The bibliography is extensive and numerous research examples are provided. Professionals with a tool to expand their knowledge well beyond the art and science of producing events to include the philosophical and scientific foundations of event studies. For the event management student and for professionals, Event Studies provides the necessary body of knowledge and theoretical methodological underpinnings on the subject of planned events.

The Value of Events Erik Lundberg, John Armbricht, Tommy D. Andersson, Donald Getz, 2017-05-08. The Value of Events fills an important niche in the literature on events, being the first book to comprehensively deal with the subject of value creation and measurement, as opposed to impact assessment and programme evaluation. Value creation and measurement is often done routinely from specific perspectives such as tourism, event management, corporate marketing, or customer satisfaction. However, there exist a number of discourses on value and evaluation that have not yet received adequate attention, including the justification of governmental intervention and the costs and benefits of hosting major events. This edited book, written by an international group of academics with expertise in the relevant fields of events, tourism, sport, and culture, offers new insight into events and their relationship to sustainability, social responsibility, cultural and social value. Fostering debate in the context of conceptual thinking, philosophising, multiple stakeholder perspectives, and interdisciplinary approaches, it challenges the events industry, students, policy makers, and strategists with new perspectives on value with implications for impact forecasting and assessment. This is a book for all students pursuing degrees in fields where planned events are important topics while being of great interest to researchers, policy makers, evaluators, and organisers/managers of planned events. Within a subject in need of further attention, The Value of Events offers the most comprehensive overview of event value to date.

The Routledge Handbook of Events Stephen J. Page, Joanne Connell, 2014-10-14. The Routledge Handbook of Events explores and critically evaluates the debates and controversies associated with this rapidly expanding discipline. It brings together leading specialists from a range of disciplinary backgrounds and geographical regions to provide state-of-the-art theoretical reflection and empirical research on the evolution of the subject. It is the first major study to examine what events is as a discipline in the twenty-first century, its significance in contemporary society, and growth as a mainstream subject area. The book is divided into five inter-related sections. Section one evaluates the evolution of events as a discipline and defines what events studies is

Section two critically reviews the relationship between events and other disciplines such as tourism and sport Section three focuses on the management of events section four evaluates the impacts of events from varying political social and environmental perspectives and section five examines the future direction of growth in event related education and research It offers the reader a comprehensive synthesis of this field conveying the latest thinking and research The text will provide an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in Events Studies encouraging dialogue across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study Events Management Glenn A. J. Bowdin, Johnny Allen, Rob Harris, Leo Jago, William O'Toole, Ian

McDonnell, 2023-07-31 A must have introductory text of unrivalled coverage and depth focusing on events planning and management the fourth edition of Events Management provides a complete A to Z of the principles and practices of planning managing and staging events The book offers a systematic guide to organising successful events examining areas such as event design logistics marketing human resource management financial planning risk management impacts evaluation and reporting The fourth edition has been fully updated and revised to include content covering technology including virtual and hybrid events concepts such as social capital soft power and events social inclusion equality accessibility and diversity and the latest industry reports research and legal frameworks The book is logically structured and features new case studies showing real life applications and highlighting issues with planning events of all types and scales in a range of geographical locations This book has been dubbed the events management bible and fosters an interactive learning experience amongst scholars of events management tourism and hospitality Making Music at the Bottom of the World in Southland,

Aotearoa/New Zealand Sally Bodkin-Allen, 2020-01-21 This volume brings together a number of perspectives on the musical landscape of Invercargill a city at the bottom of Aotearoa New Zealand Invercargill is in many ways unique it is relatively isolated its access to liquor is controlled by a licensing trust and it is home to the longest serving mayor in Aotearoa The musicking that occurs within Invercargill is surprisingly diverse and wide ranging This book acknowledges and explores many of the South's musical communities and in doing so illustrates the importance of music in local communities It highlights the ways in which social connectedness local identity and individual lives are enriched through musical activities being interwoven through communities
