

5E Lesson Plan

Teacher(s): Danielle Musil
Date: April 18 th , 2022 to April 22 nd , 2022
Subject/grade level: Science/ 5 th grade
Materials: Laptops, printed out reading materials, highlighters, Biome worksheets,
State Standards: - LS2-5-2: Use evidence to construct an explanation for how the variations in characteristics among individuals of the same species may provide advantage in surviving, finding mates, and reproducing. - LS2-5-3: Construct an argument with evidence that in a particular habitat some organisms can survive well, some survive less well, and some cannot survive at all.
Lesson objective(s): - Answer the question "What is a Biome?" - Know what each biome is (desert, tropical rainforest, temperate rainforest, marine, savanna and tundra) and the characteristics that are associated with each biome - Plant life and animals that live in each biome and how they adapt and survive.
Differentiation/Accommodation strategies to meet diverse learner needs: - Student with a reading disability would be able to - access the reading passages online and listen to me read them while following along on their laptops. - Work in small groups - Access the assignment at home so they can have more time to navigate and work the assignment with parents/guardians.
ENGAGEMENT - Introduce the term "biome" to the whole class and brainstorm what we might think biome is in regards to science and animals. - Watch a video on YouTube, explaining what biomes are.
EXPLORATION - Once we complete the whole group brainstorming activity, we will break out into small group work to complete the biome worksheets. This is where they show me what they "already know" about biomes, and then they can do research to discover more. - This particular part will take more than one class period (possibly 2 to 3 class periods) - Work on major vocabulary from the unit - Find the definition for the words on their own - Separate into teams and search the room for the definitions
EXPLANATION - What types of animals do you notice that live in (specific biome)? - What do these animals have in common? What is different? - How do these animals compare to animals that live in different biomes? - Why do you think these animals have these specific traits or characteristics?
ELABORATION Introduced Vocab: Biome, vegetation, climate, wildlife, desert, tropical rainforest, temperate rainforest, marine, savanna, tundra, adaptation, predator, prey.
EVALUATION Students will take all the knowledge and research they've done to pick between two final projects; a Demetrikopoulos, John L. Pecore, 2015-12-17 This book explores education for juvenile offenders in relation to Passages Academy which is both similar to and representative of many school programs in juvenile correctional facilities Examining the mission and population of this school contributes to an understanding of the ways in which the teachers think about and ultimately act with respect to their detained juveniles students and particularly illustrates how the tension between punishment and rehabilitation is played out in school policies and design By calling attention to the decisions that surround juvenile detention education the extant research concentrates on three main areas first the social political and pedagogical forces that determine who enters the juvenile justice systems second how these court involved youths are educated while they are in the system and third the practical problems and the social justice issues youths encountered when transitioning back to their community schools I Hope I Don t See You Tomorrow is both heartwarming and heartbreaking its vast empathy for the students that L A Gabay teaches is edifying while its unsparing examination of the forces that push youth into detention is soul shearing Gabay is at once Tocqueville and Kozol he brilliantly guides us through the educational territory that is foreign to most of us even as he paints a searing portrait of teachers who shape lesson plans for students who must learn under impossible conditions Gabay s haunting and eloquent missive from the front lines of pain and possibility couldn t be more timely as the nation s first black president seeks to lessen the stigma of nonviolent ex offenders in our society Gabay s book confronts the criminal justice system at its institutional roots in the economic misery and racial strife of schooling that compounds the suffering of poor youth as they are contained by a state that often only pays attention to them when they are in trouble Gabay opens eyes and vexes minds with this stirring and sober account of what it means to teach those whom society has deemed utterly expendable Michael Eric Dyson author of The Black Presidency Barack Obama and the Politics of Race in America As a beneficiary of Lee Gabay and his colleague's patience, discipline and compassionate teaching at the school, this timely book beautifully decrypts the pedagogical framework within the juvenile justice system. As America comes to term with its zeal for incarceration, policymakers, educators, government officials, parents and advocates should take advantage of this carefully written book and use it as reflection and pause as we prepare our young court-involved students towards adulthood. A Guide to Co-Teaching Richard A. Villa, Jacqueline S. Thousand, Ann I. Nevin, 2013-01-04. Your go-to guide for co-teaching. Differentiated instruction for a diversity of learners is the reality of today's classrooms and a tough task to take on alone. But co-teaching more than just lightens your load. When you and a co-teacher bring together your individual skill sets and strategies, you'll create a more enjoyable, creative and productive teaching experience and deliver more effective outcomes to your students too. Where do you start? This brand new edition of the go-to guide uses updated research and case studies to provide detailed profiles of four approaches to co-teaching: supportive, parallel, complementary and team teaching. New features include a brand new chapter on preparing co-teachers in clinical practice with examples, expanded explanations of the roles of paraprofessionals, administrators and students in co-teaching, updated discussions of co-teaching in the RTI process, new lesson plans linked to the Common Core State Standards and technology, new forms and tools for establishing trust, improving communication and planning. With quotes and advice from teachers and students plus practical features like self-assessments and organization tips, this is the ultimate guide to co-teaching. Find out why so many teachers prefer co-teaching to teaching alone and how co-teaching improves the process of learning for all students.
