Good Amharic History:

Feasting on History James De Lorenzi, 2025-07-15 During the brutal Italian occupation of Ethiopia 1936-1941 the country descended into endless counterinsurgency and mass violence which specifically targeted local intellectuals with the sanction of Italy's leading experts. Yet these atrocities followed decades of dialogue between Ethiopian and Italian researchers and in the postcolonial era their successors continued to debate Ethiopia's past and future as survivors and perpetrators. This historical reckoning unfolded against the backdrop of Third World liberation, disputed colonial guilt and the search for postcolonial justice. Feasting on History is a wide-ranging intellectual history of the Italian-Ethiopian relationship told through the intertwined lives of Heruy Wold Sellas, an Ethiopian writer and civil servant, and Enrico Cerulli, an Italian Orientalist and colonial official. It takes place on the battlefields and detention sites of fascist empire within the evolving institutions of the international system and throughout the interlinked intellectual worlds of Europe, Africa and the African diaspora. James De Lorenzi documents the violence perpetrated by experts across these spaces as well as the pioneering Ethiopian effort to address the crimes of empire through international law. He also explores a distinctive European tradition of Africa-focused Orientalism and its critical reception by Ethiopian, African and Black American scholars, reconstructing a bold multilingual commentary on colonial knowledge, self-determination and the global color line. Challenging conventional narratives of African and European intellectual history, Feasting on History vividly illuminates the links among weaponized research, colonial trauma and the modern international order.

The Analytical Review, Or History of Literature, Domestic and Foreign, on an Enlarged Plan, 1790.
