Good Will Hunting: Do Disasters Make Us More Charitable? Mr. Serhan Cevik, 2023-02-03 Humans are usually compassionate caring and empathetic toward others but are we really hardwired for altruism when a disaster hits There is evidence that people exposed to natural disasters tend to behave more philanthropically but most studies rely on small scale surveys and experimental data For that reason this paper contributes to the literature by investigating whether the COVID 19 pandemic has altered prosocial tendencies and charitable donations using a novel daily dataset of debit and credit card transactions I conduct a real time analysis of actual charitable donations in three European countries and find that the COVID 19 pandemic and government interventions have no significant effect on how much people contribute to charities as a share of total spending A higher preference for precautionary savings in the midst of the pandemic appears to outweigh altruistic behavior while government welfare programs crowds out private charitable donations

Principles of Counseling and Psychotherapy Paul R. Peluso, Gerald J. Mozdierz, Joseph Lisiecki, 2013-12-17 Research has shown that the most effective way to prepare students for practice with real clients is to learn to think in a new way rather than simply learning and using a set of steps While there is much to be learned from what master practitioners do in their sessions there is even more knowledge to gain from learning how they think The second edition of Principles of Counseling and Psychotherapy offers students and practitioners a way to understand the processes behind effective outcomes with a wide variety of clients The second edition is infused with real world clinical case examples and opportunities for readers to apply the material to the cases being presented New thought exercise sections are specifically designed to engage the reader's natural non linear thinking and transcript material both from cases and from master therapists themselves are interwoven in the text Accompanying videos available through Alexander Street Press bring the text to life and instructors will find testbanks transition notes and narrated PowerPoints available for free download from the book's website at www.routledge-mentalhealth.com

Rethinking America's Past Robert Cohen, Sonia E. Murrow, 2021-11-01 No introductory work of American history has had more influence over the past forty years than Howard Zinn's A People's History of the United States which since its publication in 1980 has sold more than three million copies Zinn's iconoclastic critique of American militarism racism and capitalism has drawn bitter criticism from the Right most recently from President Donald Trump who at his White House Conference on American History in 2020 denounced Zinn as a Left propagandist and accused teachers aligned with Zinn of indoctrinating students to hate America and be ashamed of its history Rethinking America's Past is the first work to use archival and classroom evidence to assess the impact that Zinn's classic work has had on historical teaching and learning and on American culture This evidence refutes Trump's charges showing that rather than indoctrinating students Zinn's book has been used by teachers to have students debate and rethink conventional versions of American history Rethinking America's Past also explores the ways Zinn's work fostered deeper more critical renderings of the American past in movies and on stage and television and traces the origins and assesses the strengths and weaknesses of A People's History in light of more recent historical scholarship

Good Will Hunting Ben Affleck, Matt Damon, 1997-12-25 As director Gus Van Sant observes in the introduction to Matt Damon's and Ben Affleck's screenplay Good Will Hunting the two young actors somewhat resemble the characters they play in the film they're best friends and Affleck who plays Chuckie habitually chauffeurs Damon Will who doesn't drive Van Sant says we can see how badly Damon drives by watching the film's last scene in which he is actually driving the car with the camera mounted on it But Damon and company write better than he drives this script contains some of the boldest best monologues since Pulp Fiction Van Sant and cast member Robin Williams helped the young actors tame the tigers in their cranial tanks trimming the
