Good Straplines For Music Festivals:

Critical Mass James W. St.G. Walker, Andrew S. Thompson, 2008-02-21 Public concern about inequitable economic globalization has revealed the demand for citizen participation in global decision making Civil society organizations have taken up the challenge holding governments and corporations accountable for their decisions and actions and developing collaborative solutions to the dominant problems of our time Critical Mass The Emergence of Global Civil Society offers a unique mixture of experience and analysis by the leaders of some of the most influential global civil society organizations and respected academics who specialize in this field of study Co published with the Centre for International Governance Innovation

Branding Your Business James Hammond, 2011-03-03 The only way forward for business success is to create a memorable brand and fix it in the consumer's mind Branding Your Business explains the whole branding process in easy to follow terms Providing practical help instead of academic theories it explains what a brand is and what it is not how to conduct a DIY brand audit and how to use marketing NLP and psychology principles to create a powerful brand for your business Based around the theory that a brand is the total perception a customer has about a company its products or services Branding Your Business will reveal what is needed to create and manage successful brands increase profits and leave the competition standing

Hack Graham Johnson, 2012-05-10 Graham Johnson was a fresh faced journalist with an ambition to break the big news stories and make his name as a star reporter when an offer came in to work at a leading tabloid he couldn't say no Instantly he found himself drawn into a world of sleaze spin and corruption where bending the law was justifiable in the hunt for the big selling story and bending the truth was the norm Against his better judgement Graham found his niche in this new world and what's more he found that he was good at it In his time at first the News of the World then the Sunday Mirror he made a name for himself as a man who could deliver the story no matter what a kind of tabloid terrorist who rifled through celebrity's rubbish bins stalked out politicians hotel rooms and paid up page three girls to seduce Premiership footballers all in the name of scoring a front page story Hack is a compelling and intoxicating story of one man's time in the tabloid jungle a world that in its heady mix of sex drugs and casual immorality is reminiscent of the City and how he ultimately saved himself

Geography of Tourism Peter Mason, 2017-11-30 Provides both an awareness of the spatial nature of tourism by means of a geographical perspective and offers critical analysis of major contemporary geographical themes and issues that relate to tourism

Events Management Debra Wale, Peter Robinson, Geoff Dickson, 2010 The book examines the different aspects of events management It is divided into three parts The first part provides an introductory outline of the historical developments and current state of the industry while also taking into account wider political and cultural issues The second part of the book concentrates on practical operations management including planning project management marketing human resource management health and safety logistics and funding Finally the third part covers critical issues such as impacts sustainability and legacy of events Each chapter contains case studies from around the world and review questions ensuring that the book is a useful learning tool and provides a current and up to date view of the industry in this increasingly popular field of study The publication is designed for students and practitioners in the event sector and has been developed so that readers are able to understand theory and concepts presented through applied examples

Managing Organisational Success in the Arts David Stevenson, 2018-10-10 The creative and cultural industries are a dynamic and rapidly expanding field of enterprise Yet all too often the dominant narrative about arts organisations is one of crisis collapse and closure This edited collection seeks to challenge that narrative through pursuing a focus on organisational success in the management of creative and cultural organisations This book offers a robust and in depth analysis of nine international case studies exploring how different organisations have achieved their objectives through effectively managing their resources Spanning a broad cross section of the cultural sector including Theatres Multi Arts Venues Performing Arts Companies Museums and Galleries and Festivals and Events these cases highlight the importance of examining an individual organisation s success in relation to its environmental context revealing not only how arts organisations work in practice but also providing inspiration and encouragement for those wishing to emulate such success With an explicit focus on examining theory in practice this unique collection will be of great interest to students academics and practitioners alike While traditional approaches have often been overly theoretical this pragmatic approach will help students to gain a richer understanding of how to manage cultural and creative organisations more effectively

Gramophone ,2008

Innovative Marketing Communications Guy Masterman, Emma Wood, 2007-06-01 Innovative Marketing Communications for Events Management provides students and event managers with a complete insight into the strategic and innovative marketing of events of all scales and nature The book builds a conceptual framework for the development planning implementation and evaluation of innovative communication strategies for the marketing of events and the effective use of events as an innovative communications method in general organizational marketing With a strong practical underpinning Innovative Marketing Communications for Events Management emphasises to event managers the importance of effectively integrating a range of tools and techniques to communicate the event and provides them with a better understanding of how a variety of private and public sector organisations can use events within their communication strategies

Contemporary Dance Festivals in the Former Yugoslav Space Alexandra Baybutt,2023-06-09 This book expands the understanding of conditions defining the creation and circulation of contemporary dance that differ across Europe It focuses on festival making connected with the Balkan regional project Nomad Dance Academy NDA and highlights collective approaches to sustain a theorisation of festivals using the concepts of dissensus and imperceptible politics Drawing from anthropological methods three festivals PLESkavica Slovenia Kondenz Serbia and LocoMotion North Macedonia are explored through social political and historical currents affecting curatorial practice This book closely follows how festival makers navigate the values of international development that during and after the Yugoslav wars looked to art as part of peacekeeping and nation building processes This coincided with increasing discourse and practices of contemporary dance that gained momentum in the 1980s alongside European festivalisation I show how contemporary dance acts as an agent for transformation but also a carrier of older forms of social organisation reflecting methods and values of Yugoslav Worker Self management that are deployed by the groups creating the festivals This book will be of interest to dance scholars as well as researchers tracing the long term effects of the dissolution of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia Mozart Studies 2 Simon P. Keefe,2015-09-10 Essays by leading Mozart scholars explore the composer s popular works biography and reception appealing to scholars and Mozart lovers alike Music, Encounter, Togetherness Nicholas Cook, 2024-04-23

Modern Western musical thought tends to represent music as a thing a pattern a structure even an organism than as a human practice Music Encounter Togetherness focusses on music as something people do as a mode of encounter between individuals and cultures and as an agent of interpersonal and social togetherness It presents music as a utopian dimension of everyday life Exceptional Experiences Petra Rethmann, Helena Wulff, 2023-07-14 Looking at encounters that can puncture or jolt us this volume uses art as a lens through which to register and understand exceptional experiences The volume also includes the fieldworker s experience of unexpected events that can lead to key understandings as well as revelatory moments that happen during artistic creation and while looking at art By exploring exceptional experiences through art the volume asks probing questions for anthropology In recognizing that art is all encompassing including as it does narrative performance dance and images Exceptional Experiences situates itself within a number of conversations on methodological and conceptual issues in anthropology and beyond
