Cross-Cultural Psychology John W. Berry,1992-01-31 A comprehensive overview of cross cultural studies in a number of substantive areas psychological development social behaviour personality cognition and perception which covers theory and applications to acculturation work communication health an Unlocking the chains of knowledge Monwabisi K Ralarala,Suren Pillay,Zannie Bock,Russell H. Kaschula,2025-02-28 Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal addresses the complex yet imperative task of reshaping the colonial legacy embedded within South African higher education and beyond The book confronts the historical and ideological bindings that have entrenched European centric knowledge within the fabric of academia in Africa propelling a transformative journey within the Arts and Humanities At its core this work presents a tripartite focus firstly understanding the deep seated issues ingrained in the traditional university structure secondly remaking pedagogical practices and lastly renewing the curriculum Recognising the historical dominance of Eurocentric ideas the book explores various movements theories and practices from negritude to postcolonial theory aiming to emancipate and amplify the voices and knowledge of those historically excluded With a commitment to a pluralistic approach the book scrutinises the power dynamics of language the importance of diverse perspectives and the challenging task of inclusion without replicating the divisive structures of the past Prof Christine Winberg Research Chair in Work integrated Learning Cape Peninsula University of Technology In Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal the editors provide a decisive and detailed reflection and profound understanding of complexities of knowledge generation in Southern Africa Unlike many volumes that address these intricate complexities this volume not only navigates the intricate complexities of the long history of epistemic injustices and intolerance in the Southern African higher education environment but delves deeper into the core of what is required for curriculum transformation and renewal The groundbreaking volume addresses the urgent need for linguistic inclusivity consciousness about decoloniality as well as embedding social justice in South African and Zimbabwean education and by doing so presents strategies that can be used by the rest of the African continent in addressing the scourge of coloniality Prof Pamela Maseko Executive Dean Faculty of Humanities Nelson Mandela University Perspectives on Thought Leadership for Africa's Renewal Kondlo, Kwandiwe, 2014-05-05 This book outlines perspectives of emerging and established African scholars on what one could describe as the debate on leadership and the articulation of the life of the mind in Africa's socio economic political and cultural life from the time of independence to date The papers contained in the book cover the following thematic areas Alternative Leadership Paradigm for Africa's Advancement African Perspectives on Globalisation and international relations Pan Africanism and the African Renaissance Scientific Technological and Cultural Dimensions of African Development The first section deals with alternative leadership paradigms for Africa's advancement It also debates the thin line separating management studies from leadership studies and untangles the hermeneutic complexities in the term leadership Section two examines among other things the crucial challenge of globalisation and public ethics and others African perspectives The section also interrogates the current complexities and credibility deficits in the global governance of trade and towards the end engages philosophical questions about conscience and consciousness in African development and progress The debates in section three continue to section four and focus on the overall issues of language and liberation the significance of Multi Inter and Trans Disciplinary Approaches in the analysis of the African continent appropriate indigenous paradigms for promoting the African renaissance as well as a series of debates on the meaning and prospects of regional integration in Africa's renewal This provides just a snapshot of a very wide ranging and interesting debate contained in the publication Southern African Linguistics and Applied Language Studies ,2007 Education Africa Forum Karin Fieldgate, Jane Hofmeyr, Helene Perold, 2001

Nordic Research in Mathematics Education ,2019-02-11 This volume presents the state of the art of Nordic research on mathematics education within four broadly defined areas the study and design of mathematics teaching in classrooms the identity and education of mathematics teachers the use of new technology in mathematics education meanings and challenges of providing mathematical education to all citizens in modern societies It provides the reader with insights into research done not only by scholars from the Nordic countries Denmark Finland Norway Sweden and Iceland but also by colleagues from the rest of Europe and even other parts of the world While the principal research questions addressed are universal in nature their investigation in concrete contexts will inevitably relate to more contingent issues and conditions

This book offers both in depth view into the reality of mathematics teaching in the settings studied by the authors syntheses by world renowned scholars of current problems and methods within each of the four areas and cross links to studies done in different countries as represented both by this book and by the wealth of referenced literature it draws upon Each of the book s four sections therefore provides rich material for studies within the corresponding areas for the beginner as well as for the expert The chapters of the book result from the work of the fifth Nordic congress in research on mathematics education which was held in Copenhagen in April 2008 It includes 32 full research papers 8 agendas and reports from discussions in working groups and 22 short communications
