Understanding History Teaching Chris Husbards,Alison Kitson,Anna Pendry,2003-09-16 Understanding History Teaching is an enjoyable read with a logical and flowing structure It lives up to its goal of appealing to both academic and professional readers with both academic depth and real insights and opportunities for the professional teacher to draw from It presents its data and interpretations in a manner which does not avoid the issues revealed within the research but has an uplifting effect on the reader and leaves them feeling optimistic about the quality of History teaching in UK secondary schools Robert Wyness Student De Montfort University Leicester UK Why do we teach and learn about the past How is history taught in schools What are the influences on the way teachers teach and pupils learn about the past History is one of the most ideologically disputed of school subjects Over the past generation the subject has experienced fundamental changes in content pedagogy and approach This book is the first detailed account of the way history is taught in schools to be published for 30 years Drawing on fieldwork in comprehensive schools and on research studies worldwide the authors pose fundamental questions about the way teachers teach and learners learn They consider its purposes on teaching about the past in a world of accelerating change The book sets out to explore the realities of classroom history teaching and to offer pointers for the development on the subject in a new century Social Studies Education in South and South East Asian Contexts Kerry J Kennedy,2021-07-22 The education of young people is context bound This edited volume explores the contexts that characterise South and South East Asia and their influence on social studies education There is not a single context across this broad geographical expanse rather different religions different political systems and different values exert influences that create distinctive programmes that characterise different countries Yet there are also commonalities such as the post colonial nature of most of the countries portrayed in this book determined efforts at establishing new national communities and multiple value systems that lead to distinctive local priorities There are also voices of resistance in these chapters recognising the realities of local contexts but also recognising the need for change Social studies education in these contexts may well be descended from its origins in North America but in South and South Asian contexts it has taken on new purposes new forms and new values Education researchers policymakers and postgraduate students in comparative education will find the volume useful in its exploration and comparison of the social studies curricular and reforms that shaped them The Educational record, with the proceedings at large of the British and foreign school society British and foreign school society,1881 History for the IB Diploma: Communism in Crisis 1976-89 Allan Todd,2012-05-10 An exciting new series that covers the three prescribed subjects for Paper 1 of the IB 20th Century World History syllabus This coursebook covers Paper 1 Prescribed Subject 3 Communism in Crisis 1976 89 in the 20th Century World History syllabus for the IB History programme The text is divided into clear sections following the IB syllabus structure and content specifications It offers in depth coverage of the subject as well as detailed study of a wide range of primary and secondary sources to develop students analytical skills It also provides plenty of exam practice including student answers with examiner s comments simplified mark schemes and practical advice on approaching the document based Paper 1 examination methodological pivot for comparing a range of societies They enable us to contrast the West and the East the North and the South tribal and mass society ancient and postmodern civilization and so on Comparing parallel societies from across Asia the Middle East Europe and North America this book proposes fundamental transitions in sociological research from system to process and from communication to composition through intensive studies on examinations It uses ethnographies interviews questionnaires documents statistics and big data analyses to make comparisons on broad scales of time and space In so doing it suggests hypotheses encompassing different kinds of societies in human history including those in the Axial Age and the Modern Ages     History Teacher's Magazine ,1915
