History Of The Filipino People:

A History of the Philippines Renato Constantino, Letizia R. Constantino, 1975 Unlike other conventional histories the unifying thread of A History of the Philippines is the struggle of the peoples themselves against various forms of oppression from Spanish conquest and colonization to U S imperialism Constantino provides a penetrating analysis of the productive relations and class structure in the Philippines and how these have shaped and been shaped by the role of the Filipino people in the making of their own history Additionally he challenges the dominant views of Spanish and U S historians by exposing the myths and prejudices propagated in their work and in doing so makes a major breakthrough toward intellectual decolonization This book is an indispensable key to the history of conquest and resistance in the Philippine

The New Dimensions in Learning English I' 2003 Ed., Philippine Studies Priscelina Patajo-Legasto, 2008 These essays by Philippine and U S based scholars illustrate the dynamism and complexities of the discursive field of Philippine studies as a critique of vestiges of universalist Western hegemonic paradigms as an affirmation of traditional and emergent cultural practices as a site for new readings of old texts and new popular forms brought into the ambit of serious scholarship and as a liberative space for new art and literary genres

The Philippine Temptation Epifanio San Juan, 1996 In this incisive and polemical book E San Juan Jr the leading authority on Philippines U S literary studies goes beyond fashionable postcolonial theory to bring to our attention the complex history of Philippines U S literary interactions In sharp contrast to other works on the subject the author presents Filipino literary production within the context of a long and sustained tradition of anti imperialist insurgency and foregrounds the strong presence of oppositional writing in the Philippines After establishing the historical context of U S intervention and Filipino resistance San Juan examines the work of two very significant writers The first Carlos Bulosan a journalist and union activist became in the author s words a tribune of the people Bulosan s writings which combine critique and prophecy do not allow us to forget the atrocities inflicted on the Filipino people The other Jos Garcia Villa lapsed into premature obscurity on account of the complexity of his writings about the Filipino predicament Read through San Juan s eyes these writers are revealed as multifaceted thinkers and activists not stereotypical ethnic artists San Juan goes beyond literary studies and contemporary debates about nationalism and politics to point the way to a new direction in radical transformative writing He uncovers hidden agendas in many previous accounts of U S Philippine relations and this book exemplifies how best to combine activist scholarship with historically grounded cultural commentary Author note E San Juan Jr is Fellow of the Center for the Humanities and Visiting Professor of English Wesleyan University and Director of the Philippines Cultural Studies Center He was recently chair of the Department of Comparative American Cultures Washington University and Professor of Ethnic Studies at Bowling Green State University Ohio He received the 1999 Centennial Award for Literature from the Philippines Cultural Center His most recent books are Beyond Postcolonial Theory From Exile to Diaspora After Postcolonialism and Racism and Cultural Studies The Filipinos' Fight for Freedom Austin Craig, 1933

Dy, 1994 Philippine History M.c. Halili, 2004 A Short History of the Filipino People Louis La Ravoire Morrow, Norberto Romuáldez, 1936 Nation's Historical Sense and Ecclesiality for Life Junes Almodiel, 2011-07-13 The Book is about the history of struggle for respect of human dignity and freedom against man made darkness in which I F I is one expression This book aims to make people see that nation s human struggle is one venue to see the human design that by it man is one manifestation of the great Designer Creator The hope through it is that human history should be respected and sanctity be preserved and not be altered by propaganda and lies instead record of actuality and of truth in which by honesty liberates the oppressed and the oppressor Then we can affirm the truths of Jesus for life With all sects of prosperity self and of claims today Christianity seems reduced into selective Bible ism conversation in the table between pro imperialist and nationalistic heavenward and earthward is needed to make sense of Christianity here and now Jesus said Love the Lord your God with all your heart mind spirit and strength man s total being cannot pretend to be spirit only cannot dictate God to be for spirit and heaven only Historical sense shaped ecclesiality for the whole global community of all race
