Transactions of the International Astronomical Union C. de Jager, A. Jappel, 2012-12-06 The changing character of the IAU General Assemblies becomes most clear from a comparison of the agenda of the Brighton meeting with that of one of the earlier meetings The fourth General Assembly Cambridge Mass 1932 had about 240 participants registered guests included the Brighton meeting had about 2300 people attending The Cambridge meeting lasted 5 working days of which however three half days were exclusively devoted to excursions leaving four real meeting days At that time the nearly 30 commissions had each only one meeting during part of a morning or afternoon some commissions did not meet at all There was one public lecture by Sir Arthur Eddington on The Expanding Universe Most of the small European countries were represented by two or three delegates only but the delegations of France and Great Britain were composed of 20 and 18 scientists respectively at that time there were only two delegates from Germany After the Brighton General Assembly with about 200 commission meetings one commission met eleven times six Joint Discussions four Invited Discourses a Special Meeting and hardly time for excursions there were a few complaints about too many overlapping meetings

Astronomers as Diplomats Thierry Montmerle, Danielle Fauque, 2022-07-08 This book illuminates a few highly significant events in history in which astronomers have helped keep contacts between astronomers of different states in moments of international political tensions or even crises The chapters written by 20 international authors focus on four periods where astronomers were particularly active in international relations 1 The WWI period the epoch of the creation of the IAU in the context of the simultaneous creation of other scientific unions The book also singles out the important role of A S Eddington and his network across forbidden borders 2 The Cold war period and its consequences when several countries were divided between opposite blocs The China crisis is told here from different viewpoints by Chinese astronomers both from the mainland and from Taiwan in parallel with the evolution of astronomy in South and North Korea Germany's twisted path in its membership of the IAU from its admission in 1951 to its reunification in 1991 is shown as another example 3 The book then highlights a third period when radio astronomers in particular were very active in building bridges between East and West It also tells the history of how the apparently innocuous issue of the lunar nomenclature became extremely sensitive The part ends on two chapters on Russian robotic missions and lunar surface features as well on the Russian participation in the International Virtual Observatory project 4 The fourth part reports for the first time on the hidden story of the relations between the IAU and the United Nations after the Moon race when the United Nations decided to challenge the IAU's authority on extraterrestrial names The final chapter reviews how twenty years later UNESCO and the IAU had become strong partners in the difficult but highly successful organization of the International Year of Astronomy

Instruments in Art and Science Helmar Schramm, Ludger Schwarte, Jan Lazardzig, 2008 This volume presents a collection of original papers at the intersection of philosophy the history of science cultural and theatrical studies Based on a series of case studies on the 17th century it contributes to an understanding of the role played by instruments at the interface of science and art The papers pursue the hypothesis that the development and construction of instruments make a substantive contribution to the opening of new fields of knowledge the development of new cultural practices but also to the delineation of particular genres methods and disciplines This perspective leads the authors to reflect anew on what actually defines an instrument and to develop a series of basic questions to determine what an instrument is which actions does the instrument incorporate which actions does the instrument make possible when do the objects of examination themselves become instruments what skills are required to use an instrument which skills does it produce With its combination of new theoretical models and historical case studies its detailed demonstration of the mutual influence of art and science with the instrument as the point of intersection this volume enters new territory It is of great value for all those interested in the history of our perception of instruments Besides the editors the authors of the papers are J rg Jochen Berns Olaf Breidbach Georges Didi Huberman Peter Galison Sybille Kr mer Dieter Mersch Hans J rg Rheinberger Wilhelm Schmidt Biggemann and Otto Sibum Decoding the Stars: A Biography of Angelo Secchi, Jesuit and Scientist Ileana Chinnici, 2019-06-17 Winner of the 2021 Donald E Osterbrock Book Prize for Historical Astronomy In Decoding the Stars Ileana Chinnici offers an account of the life of the Jesuit scientist Angelo Secchi 1818 1878 In addition to providing an invaluable account of Secchi s life and work something that has been sorely lacking in the English language scholarship this biography will be especially stimulating for those interested in the evolution of astrophysics as a discipline from the nineteenth century onward Despite his eclecticism reminiscent of the natural philosophers of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Secchi was in many ways a very modern scientist open to innovation and cooperation and a promoter of popularization and citizen science Secchi also appears fully inserted in the cultural context of his time he participated in philosophical and scientific debates spread new theories and ideas but also suffered the consequences of political events that marked those years and impacted on his life and activities Carte du ciel , Catalogue of Scientific Papers Royal Society (Great Britain), 1914 Catalogue of Scientific Papers (1800-1900): ser. 4 , 1884-1900 Royal Society (Great Britain), 1914
