Art from Trauma Rangira Béa Gallimore, Gerise Herndon, 2019-08-01 What is the role of aesthetic expression in responding to discrimination tragedy violence even genocide How does gender shape responses to both literal and structural violence including implicit linguistic familial and cultural violence How might writing or other works of art contribute to healing Art from Trauma Genocide and Healing beyond Rwanda explores the possibility of art as therapeutic capable of implementation by mental health practitioners crafting mental health policy in Rwanda This anthology of scholarly personal and hybrid essays was inspired by scholar and activist Chantal Kalisa 1965 2015 At the commemoration of the nineteenth anniversary of the genocide in Rwanda organized by the Rwandan Embassy in Washington DC Kalisa gave a presentation Who Speaks for the Survivors of the Genocide against Tutsi Kalisa devoted her energy to giving expression to those whose voices had been distorted or silenced The essays in this anthology address how the production and experience of visual dramatic cinematic and musical arts in addition to literary arts contribute to healing from the trauma of mass violence offering preliminary responses to questions like Kalisa's and honoring her by continuing the dialogue in which she participated with such passion sharing the work of scholars and colleagues in genocide studies gender studies and francophone literatures

The Unspeakable Amy L. Hubbell, Névine El Nossery, 2013-10-03 The Unspeakable Representations of Trauma in Francophone Literature and Art is situated at the crossroads of language culture and genre it contends that suffering transcends time space and cultural specificity Even when extreme trauma is silenced it often still emerges in surprising and painful ways This volume draws together examples from throughout the Francophone world including countries such as Algeria Morocco Lebanon Rwanda Cameroon Congo Cote d'Ivoire Haiti New Caledonia Quebec and France and across genres such as autobiography poetry theater film fiction and visual art to provide a cohesive analysis of the representation of trauma In addition to the survivors expression of trauma the witnesses and receivers are also taken into account By gathering studies that explore diverse bodily and psychological traumas through tropes such as repetition silence and working through it tackles ethical responsibility and interrogates how expressive forms evoke a terrible reality through the use of imagination The aim of this volume is not to question if suffering is representable but rather to examine to what extent art surpasses its own limitations and goes straight to its essence The Unspeakable hopes to provide models for the cultural translation of trauma because when represented and released from silence and isolation trauma can give way to the arduous process of healing

The Barefoot Woman Scholastique Mukasonga, 2018-12-18 FINALIST FOR THE NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FOR TRANSLATED LITERATURE A moving unforgettable tribute to a Tutsi woman who did everything to protect her children from the Rwandan genocide by the daughter who refuses to let her family's story be forgotten The story of the author's mother a fierce loving woman who for years protected her family from the violence encroaching upon them in pre-genocide Rwanda Recording her memories of their life together in spare wrenching prose

Mukasonga preserves her mother's voice in a haunting work of art      Narratives of fear and safety Kaisa

Kaukiainen, Kaisa Kurikka, Hanna Mäkelä, Elise Nykänen, Sanna Nyqvist, Juha Raipola, Anne Riippa, Hanna Samola, 2020-09-01

The essays in this edited volume written in English and French tackle the intriguing problems of fear and safety by analysing their various meanings and manifestations in literature and other narrative media. The articles bring forth new cross-cultural interpretations on fear and safety through examining what kinds of genre-specific means of world-making narratives use to express these two affectivities. The articles also show how important it is to study these themes in order to understand challenges in times of global threats such as the climate crisis. The main themes of the book are approached from various theoretical perspectives as related to their literary and cultural representations. Recent trends in research such as affect and risk theory serve as the basis for the discussion. The articles in the volume also draw from disciplines such as gender studies and trauma studies to examine the threats posed by collective fears and aggression on individuals' lives and propose ways of coping with fear. These themes are addressed also in articles analysing new adaptations of old myths that retell stories of the past. Many of the articles in the volume discuss apocalyptic and dystopian narratives that currently permeate the entire cultural landscape. Dystopian narratives do not only deal with future threats such as totalitarianism, technocracy or environmental disasters but also suggest alternative ways of being and new hopes in the form of political resistance.      Tom
