La Fine Bouche:

Washing the Brain □ Metaphor and Hidden Ideology Andrew Goatly, 2007-01-17 Contemporary metaphor theory has recently begun to address the relation between metaphor culture and ideology In this wide ranging book Andrew Goatly using lexical data from his database Metalude investigates how conceptual metaphor themes construct our thinking and social behaviour in fields as diverse as architecture engineering education genetics ecology economics politics industrial time management medicine immigration race and sex He argues that metaphor themes are created not only through the universal body but also through cultural experience so that an apparently universal metaphor such as event structure as realized in English grammar is in fact culturally relative compared with e g the construal of cause and effect in the Algonquin language Blackfoot Moreover event structure as a model is both scientifically reactionary and as the basis for technological mega projects has proved environmentally harmful Furthermore the ideologies of early capitalism created or exploited a selection of metaphor themes historically traceable through Hobbes Hume Smith Malthus and Darwin These metaphorical concepts support neo Darwinian and neo conservative ideologies apparent at the beginning of the 21st century ideologies underpinning our social and environmental crises The conclusion therefore recommends skepticism of metaphor s reductionist tendencies

The Incident at Antioch/L'Incident d'Antioche Alain Badiou, 2013-02-12 The Incident at Antioch is a key play marking Alain Badiou s transition from classical Marxism to a politics of subtraction far removed from party and state Written with striking eloquence and extraordinary poetic richness and shifting from highly serious emotional and intellectual drama to surreal comic interlude the work features statesmen workers and revolutionaries struggling to reconcile the nature and practice of politics This bilingual edition presents L Incident d Antioche in its original French and on facing pages an expertly executed English translation Badiou adds a special preface and an introduction by the scholar Kenneth Reinhard connects the play to Paul Claudel s The City Saint Paul and the early history of the Church and the innovative mathematical thinking of Paul Cohen The translation includes Susan Spitzer s extensive notes clarifying allusions and quotations and hinting at Badiou s intentions An interview with Badiou encompasses the play s settings themes and events as well as his ongoing literary and conceptual experimentation on stage and off Poésie Bourrique MBANGA

Israel Tunisian Women's Writing in French Sonia Alba, 2018-11-21 Tunisian women's literary production in French published or set between the years 1987 and 2011 from Tunisia's second president Zine El Abidine Ben Ali's rise to power to the eve of the Tunisian Revolution reveals the role of women, their political engagement and their resistance to patriarchal oppression. A great deal of media and scholarly attention has focused on the role of women during the Tunisian Revolution itself, yet few studies have considered women's literary and active engagement prior to the uprising. By contrast, this book focuses specifically on the time period leading to the Revolution. The book is structured around three chapters, each focusing on a different form of writing and on a number of contemporary Tunisian writers who have chosen to express themselves in French. Sonia Alba explores the complex ways in which the authors have attempted to deal with those issues cultural, social and political most relevant to them. This is the first study of Tunisian women's writing in French to compare and contrast key themes in three different genres within a single study and within the conceptual framework of subaltern counterpublics. The work is enhanced by the inclusion of extracts from previously unpublished authors' interviews. Tunisian Women's Writing in French is essential reading for all Francophone and Postcolonial scholars and for scholars and students working in Contemporary Women's Writing.
