La Baise Du Dimanche:

L'Intime épistolaire (1850-1900) Jelena Jovicic, 2010-01-08 L'Intime pistolaire 1850 1900 genre et pratique culturelle is a study of private letters by eight Nineteenth Century French authors Flaubert Zola Sand Baudelaire Maupassant Eberhardt Bashkirtseff and Edmond de Goncourt during the period of 1850 to 1900 Through in depth analyses of these intriguing documents the book demonstrates that personal correspondences cast fresh light on the concept of intimacy in Nineteenth Century French culture Since epistolary writing implies a necessary exchange between lived experience and the written word the book's intention is also to interpret letter practice as a specific textual form with its own generic expectations and constraints which are distinct from other life writing genres such as the diary the autobiography and the memoir Divided into five chapters the study begins with a short introduction to the culture of individuality The four subsequent chapters explore the poetics of epistolary writing including significant topics the various roles of the letter writer epistolary pacts and the problem of the signature Addressing a wide range of epistolary situations including daily life health money problems love travel and even suicide notes the book also offers new critical perspectives on six of the most interesting manuscript letters that have been chosen from the examined sources , Cérémonial romain rédigé d'après les sources authentiques ... 3e édition revue et augmentée Jean Adrien de CONNY, 1858

Contemporary French Women's Writing Shirley Ann Jordan, 2004 In the 1990s the French literary arena was enlivened by the emergence of a new generation of women writers This book selects six of its most distinctive voices and addresses important questions about the very new in French women's writing What are young women choosing to write about What do they tell us about changing perceptions of feminine identities What does it mean to write and to read as women at the start of the new millennium An introductory chapter explores key issues such as the woman writer in the public imagination and continuity and change within French women's writing since the 1970s It also highlights thematic threads which recur across the work of the authors studied history and time wandering and exile self and other the body and sexuality and writing and telling The remaining chapters propose productive approaches to the fictional worlds of Marie Darrieussecq Virginie Despentes Marie Ndiaye Agnès Desarthe Lorette Nobcourt and Amélie Nothomb through close readings of their most challenging popular or telling texts They focus on perennial preoccupations in women's writing which are given new treatment by these writers and discuss important developments such as uses of the pornographic myth and fairy tale and parody and irony in new women's writing Manuel de liturgie et cérémonial selon le rit romain Léon-Michel Le Vavasseur, 1902 Queer Sites David Higgs, 2002-01-04 There are areas which can be described as gay space in that they have many lesbians and gays in the population Queerspace A History of Urban Sexuality edited by David Higgs offers a history of gay space in the major cities from the early modern period to the present The book focuses on the changing nature of queer experience in London Amsterdam Rio de Janeiro San Francisco Paris Lisbon and Moscow This book provides an interdisciplinary analysis of extensive source material including diaries poems legal accounts and journalism By concentrating the importance of the city and varied meeting places such as parks river walks bathing places the street bars and even churches the contributors explore the extent to which gay space existed the degree of social collectiveness felt by those who used this space and their individual histories The Court Magazine and Monthly Critic, and Lady's Magazine and Museum ,1840-07
