The illustration depicts a young boy and girl in a state of panic, running through a city that has been devastated by war. The boy, in the foreground, wears a blue jacket and has a determined, fearful expression. The girl, slightly behind him, wears a yellow dress. They are running on a street littered with debris. In the background, tall buildings are crumbling, smoke billows from the ruins, and several military aircraft are visible in the sky. A crow flies near the children. The overall tone is somber and urgent.
