Military Skills Development System 2016:

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention, military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment, gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil-military relations of countries around the world.

Socio-Economic Perspectives on Vocational Skill Development: Emerging Research and Opportunities Okolie, Ugochukwu Chinonso, 2019-11-15 Vocational skill development (VSD) has the capacity to contribute to poverty reduction because it serves as the key to job creation and inclusive growth. As developed nations have been faced with high youth and graduate unemployment rates, basic education and vocational skill development have become a priority of development cooperation activities. However, there is a realization that measures to improve skill training can only be successful if they are in harmony with employment and economic policies. Socio-Economic Perspectives on Vocational Skill Development: Emerging Research and Opportunities is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of equipping individuals with relevant work skills and implementing effective skills systems that can lead to economic growth and high levels of productivity. While highlighting topics including human capital, professional development and skill gaps, this book is ideally designed for managers, business professionals, policymakers, academicians, researchers and management students seeking the current understanding of the strategic role of skill development at different levels of the socio-economic system.

Diplomatic Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP, Inc.,2018-03-06 Kazakhstan Diplomatic Handbook Strategic Information and Developments Political Handbook of the World 2016-2017 Tom Lansford,2017-03-31 Published since 1928 the Political Handbook of the World provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies and political parties than any other reference guide The updated 2016 2017 Edition continues this legacy as the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country's governmental and political makeup. Political science and international relations scholars have revised this edition and made understanding complex foreign affairs and political situations easy and accessible. With more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world housed in one place, these volumes are renowned for their extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system. They also provide names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and United Nations agencies. This comprehensive update will include coverage of current events, issues, crises, and controversies from the course of the last two years, including the closely watched U.S. presidential election, the effect of the Brexit referendum, and installment of a new British prime minister. The extensive investigation and subsequent impeachment of Brazil's president, the far-reaching impact of the Panama Papers scandal, changes in U.S.-Cuba diplomatic relations and the reopening of their embassies, the unconstitutional declaration of Gambia as an Islamic State, sentiments about the migrant and refugee crisis across Europe, and the influence on policy. Also, the new For Further Reference feature included for every country entry directs readers to additional resources to continue their research.

The Impact of Information on Modern Humans

Elena G. Popkova, 2018-03-06 This book features contributions from various spheres of socio-humanitarian sciences presented at the scientific and practical conference on Humans as an Object of Study by Modern Science which took place in Nizhny Novgorod, Russian Federation, on November 23-24, 2017. The conference was organized by Kozma Minin, Nizhny Novgorod State Pedagogical University, and the non-profit organization Institute of Scientific Communications. Presenting the results of multidisciplinary studies as well as new approaches, the target audience of the book includes postgraduates, lecturers at higher educational establishments, and researchers studying socio-humanitarian sciences. The complex study of humans by representatives of various socio-humanitarian sciences—philosophy, pedagogics, jurisprudence, social sciences, and economics—allows a comprehensive concept of the field to be developed. Selecting humans as an object of research opens wide possibilities for studying various issues related to their activities while considering humans within multiple sciences means that the methods of induction and deduction can be combined to achieve precise results. This book includes the results of leading scientific studies on the following key issues: establishment of an information economy under the influence of scientific and technical progress; new challenges and opportunities; information and communication technologies as a new vector of development of the modern world economy; specifics and experience of using new information and communication technologies in developed and developing countries; problems of implementing new information and communication technologies in the modern economy; and priorities of using new information and communication technologies in the modern
