

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2013 series

1123 ENGLISH LANGUAGE

1123/21

Paper 2 (Reading), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Economic Dignity Gene Sperling, 2021-10-12 Timely and important It should be our North Star for the recovery and beyond Hillary Clinton Sperling makes a forceful case that only by speaking to matters of the spirit can liberals root their belief in economic justice in people s deepest aspirations in their sense of purpose and self worth The New York Times When Gene Sperling was in charge of coordinating economic policy in the Obama White House he found himself surprised when serious people in Washington told him that the Obama focus on health care was a distraction because it was not focused on the economy How he asked was the fear felt by millions of Americans of being one serious illness away from financial ruin not considered an economic issue Too often Sperling found that we measured economic success by metrics like GDP instead of whether the economy was succeeding in lifting up the sense of meaning purpose fulfillment and security of people In Economic Dignity Sperling frames the way forward in a time of wrenching change and offers a vision of an economy whose guiding light is the promotion of dignity for all Americans

Transitional Justice and the 'Disappeared' of Northern Ireland Lauren Dempster, 2019-06-11 This book employs a transitional justice lens to address the disappearances that occurred during the Northern Ireland conflict or Troubles and the post conflict response to these disappearances Despite an extensive literature around dealing with the past in Northern Ireland as well as a substantial body of scholarship on disappearances in other national contexts there has been little scholarly scrutiny of disappearances in post conflict Northern Ireland Although the Good Friday Agreement brought relative peace to Northern Ireland no provision was made for the establishment of some form of overarching truth and reconciliation commission aimed at comprehensively addressing the legacy of violence Nevertheless a mechanism to recover the remains of the disappeared the Independent Commission for the Location of Victims Remains ICLVR was established and has in fact proven to be quite effective As a result the reactions of key constituencies to the disappearances can be used as a prism through which to comprehensively explore issues of relevance to transitional justice scholars and practitioners Pursuing an interdisciplinary approach and based on extensive empirical research this book provides a multifaceted exploration of the responses of these constituencies to the practice of disappearing It engages with transitional justice themes including silence memory truth acknowledgement and apology Key issues examined include the mobilisation efforts of families of the disappeared efforts by a former non state armed group to address its legacy of violence the utility of a limited immunity mechanism to incentivise information provision and the interplay between silence and memory in the shaping of a collective societal understanding of the disappeared

Making Hong Kong Pui-yin Ho, 2018-09-28 This insightful book provides a comprehensive survey of urban development in Hong Kong since 1841 Pui yin Ho explores the ways in which the social economic and political environments of different eras have influenced the city s development From colonial governance wartime experiences high density development and adjustments before and after 1997 through contemporary challenges this book explores forward looking ideas that urban planning can offer to lead the city in the future Evaluating the relationship between town planning and social change this book looks at how a local Hong Kong identity emerged in the face of conflict and compromise between Chinese and European cultures In doing so it brings a fresh perspective to urban research providing historical context and direction for the future development of the city Hong Kong s urban development experience offers not only a model for other Chinese cities but also a better understanding of Asian cities more broadly Urban studies scholars will find this an exemplary case study of a developing urban landscape Town planners and architects will also benefit from reading this comprehensive book as it shows how Hong Kong can be taken to the next stage of urban development and modernisation

Microscopy of Pulp and Paper John Henry Graff, 1952 The Eastern Mediterranean in Transition Spyridon N. Litsas, Aristotle Tziampiris, 2016-03-09 The wider region of the Eastern Mediterranean is in transition What is being evinced is a situation of continuous volatility centering on developments such as the Arab Spring the Greek sovereign debt crisis Islamic terrorism the continuation of deadlock over the Cypriot and Palestinian Issues significant energy finds in the Levantine Basin concerns over nuclear proliferation and more recently the Syrian Civil War At a systemic level the move towards a regional multipolar reality has also contributed to volatility by creating a crescendo of antagonisms between all the major international actors who continuously strive for more influence power and prestige This collective project by leading experts represents a unique combination of International Theory and International Politics analysis that deals exclusively with the wider Eastern Mediterranean It scrutinizes in a multidimensional manner the current geostrategic and geopolitical conditions that include the latest domestic socio political events as well as the active involvement of the Great Powers in the region This book should be of interest to academics decision makers and a general reading public focusing on a significant and influential region in flux      The Art of the English Trade Gun in North America Nathan E.

Bender,2018-07-06 Symbolic ornamentation inspired by ancient Greek and Roman art is a long standing Western tradition The author explores the designs of 18th century English gunsmiths who engraved classical ornamental patterns on firearms gifted or traded to American Indians A system of allegory is found that symbolized the Americas of the New World in general and that enshrined the American Indian peoples as noble savages The same allegorical context was drawn upon for symbols of national liberty in the early American republic Inadvertently many of the symbolic designs used on the trade guns strongly resonated with several Native American spiritual traditions      Targeted Killings, Law and Counter-Terrorism Effectiveness

Ophir Falk,2020-06-01 This book examines the permissibility and effectiveness of targeted killing in campaigns against terror Targeted killing has become a primary counterterrorism measure used by several countries in their confrontation with lethal threats The practice has been extensively used by the US in Afghanistan Iraq Pakistan Yemen and Somalia and by Israel in the West Bank and Gaza Several studies have already explored the difficult balance between achieving security while maintaining the liberties and rights of a country s civilians This book goes a step further by seeking to examine whether maintaining those liberties by complying with legal standards and minimizing unintended deaths can be more effective for national security Using targeted killing applied by Israel in particular as well as the United States during the first decade of the twenty first century as case studies this book explores that question and ultimately assesses whether compliance with legal standards can strengthen a state in its campaign against terrorism and thus provide stronger security The book focuses on civilian related criteria hypothesizing that minimizing civilian casualties will maximize effectiveness in an asymmetric war setting The conclusions are not limited to a specific tactic or theater and if adopted might have far reaching implications for how asymmetric warfare is strategized This book will be of much interest to students of counter terrorism law Middle Eastern studies and security studies      Participatory Constitutional Change Xenophon Contiades,Alkmene

Fotiadou,2016-10-04 This book explores the recent trend of enhancing the role of the people in constitutional change It traces the reasons underlying this tendency the new ways in which it takes form the possibilities of success and failure of such ventures as well as the risks and benefits it carries To do so it examines the theoretical aspects of public participation in constitutional decision making offers an analysis of the benefits gained and the problems encountered in countries with long standing experience in the practice of constitutional referendums discusses the recent innovative constitution making processes employed in Iceland and Ireland in the post financial crisis context and probes the use of public participation in the EU context New modes of deliberation are juxtaposed to traditional direct democratic processes while the reasons behind this re emergence of public involvement narratives are discussed from the aspect of comparative constitutional design The synthetic chapter offers an overview of the emerging normative and comparative issues and provides a holistic approach of the role of the people in constitutional change in an attempt to answer when where and how this role may be successfully enhanced The work consists of material specifically written for this volume and authored by prominent constitutional scholars and experts in public participation and deliberative processes English in Computer-Mediated Communication Lauren Squires, 2016-10-24 This book addresses the nature of English use within contexts of computer mediated communication CMC CMC includes technologies through which not only is language transmitted but cultures are formed ideologies are shaped power is contested and sociolinguistic boundaries are crossed and blurred The volume therefore examines the English language in particular in CMC what it looks like what it accomplishes and what it means to speakers

The War Report Annyssa Bellal, 2015-12-10 This War Report provides detailed information on every armed conflict which took place during 2014 offering an unprecedented overview of the nature range and impact of these conflicts and the legal issues they created In Part I the Report describes its criteria for the identification and classification of armed conflicts under international law and the legal consequences that flow from this classification It sets out a list of armed conflicts in 2014 categorising each as international non international or a military occupation with estimates of civilian and military casualties In Part II each of these conflicts are examined in more detail with an overview of the belligerents means and methods of warfare the applicable treaties and rules and any prosecutions for investigations into or robust allegations of war crimes Part III of the Report provides detailed thematic analysis of key legal developments which arose in the context of these conflicts allowing for a more in depth reflection on cross cutting questions and controversies The Report gives a full and accessible overview of armed conflicts in 2014 It should be the first port of call for everyone working in the field The Oxford

Handbook of Language Attrition Monika S. Schmid, Barbara Köpke, 2019-07-17 This volume is the first handbook dedicated to language attrition the study of how a speaker's language may be affected by crosslinguistic interference and non use The effects of language attrition can be felt in all aspects of language knowledge processing and production and can offer unique insights into the mind of bilingual language users In this book international experts in the field explore a comprehensive range of topics in language attrition examining its theoretical implications psycho and neurolinguistic approaches linguistic and extralinguistic factors L2 attrition and heritage languages The chapters summarize current research and draw on insights from related fields such as child language development language contact language change pathological developments and second language acquisition Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the (De-) Militarised New Scramble for Africa: A Pan African Socio-Legal Warikandwa, Tapiwa V., Nhemachena, Artwell, 2017-09-26 One of the fundamental challenges in deconstructing rethinking and remaking the world from a Pan African vantage point is that some captives have tended to delight in the warmth of the imperial predator's mouth. In other words, some captives forget that the imperial predator's mouth gets warm because empire is eating and heating up from prey on the continent. De Militarisation Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the New Scramble for Africa: A Pan African Socio-Legal Perspective is a book that knocks on key aspects relating to land militarisation, a Post-African World Order and a chaotic Post-God World Order which require critical scholarly and policy attention in the quest to free Africa from centuries-old imperial depredations. The book carefully navigates the imperial entrapments which are designed to focus African attention only on decolonising African minds without also engaging in the imperially more unsettling decolonisation of African materialities. Climate Change and Cities Cynthia Rosenzweig, William D. Solecki, Patricia

Romero-Lankao, Shagun Mehrotra, Shobhakar Dhakal, Somayya Ali Ibrahim, 2018-03-29 The Urban Climate Change Research Network's Second Assessment Report on Climate Change in Cities ARC3 2 is the second in a series of global science-based reports to examine climate risk adaptation and mitigation efforts in cities. The book explicitly seeks to explore the implications of changing climatic conditions on critical urban physical and social infrastructure sectors and intersectoral concerns. The primary purpose of ARC3 2 is to inform the development and implementation of effective urban climate change policies leveraging ongoing and planned investments for populations in cities of developing, emerging and developed countries. This volume like its predecessor will be invaluable for a range of audiences involved with climate change and cities: mayors, city officials and policymakers, urban planners, policymakers charged with developing climate change mitigation and adaptation programs and a broad spectrum of researchers and advanced students in the environmental sciences. Truce:

Pádraig Óg Ó Ruairc, 2016-01-22 On 8 July 1921 a Truce between the IRA and British forces in Ireland was announced to begin three days later. However, in those three days at least sixty people from both sides of the conflict were killed. In Truce Pádraig Ó Ruairc goes back to the facts to reveal what actually happened in those three bloody days and why. What sparked Belfast's Bloody Sunday in 1921, the worst bout of sectarian violence in Northern Ireland's troubled history? Why were four unarmed British soldiers kidnapped and killed by the IRA in Cork just hours before the ceasefire began? Who murdered Margaret Keogh, a young Dublin rebel in cold blood on her own doorstep? Were the last spies shot by the IRA really working for British intelligence or just the victims of anti-Protestant bigotry? This book answers these questions for the first time and separates fact from fiction to find out what really happened in the final battles between the IRA and the British forces.

Rural Poverty Today Mark Shucksmith, Jayne Glass, Polly Chapman, Jane Atterton, 2023-02-22 Poverty is perceived as an urban problem, yet many in rural Britain also experience hardship. This book explores how and why people in rural areas experience and negotiate poverty and social exclusion. It examines the role of societal processes, individual circumstances sources of support markets state voluntary organisations family and friends and the role of place It concludes that the UK's welfare system is poorly adapted to rural areas with the COVID 19 pandemic Brexit and cutbacks exacerbating pressures Voluntary organisations increasingly fill gaps in support left by the state Invaluable to those in policy and practice the book recommends a combination of person based and place based approaches to tackle rural poverty US-China Global

Maritime Relations Nong Hong, 2023-12-01 This book explores the U S China maritime relationship examining the development and implementation of the maritime strategies of both the United States and China Delving into the U S China maritime relationship within the global context the book investigates six key maritime regions the South China Sea the Northeast Asia waters the East China Sea the Yellow Sea the Indian Ocean the South Pacific Ocean as well as the Arctic and Antarctic regions Its observations form a comprehensive exploration of these regions and their significance in shaping the dynamics between the two nations and this analysis reveals that an expanded view is necessary to discover and clearly display the role that these maritime regions currently and could potentially play in overarching U S China relations Examining both the ongoing conflicts and opportunities for cooperation in the global maritime domain between the United States and China this book will be a valuable resource to students and scholars of international relations Chinese and U S politics strategic studies and maritime studies Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Technology Chan

Sin-wai, 2023-04-26 Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Technology second edition provides a state of the art survey of the field of computer assisted translation It is the first definitive reference to provide a comprehensive overview of the general regional and topical aspects of this increasingly significant area of study The Encyclopedia is divided into three parts Part 1 presents general issues in translation technology such as its history and development translator training and various aspects of machine translation including a valuable case study of its teaching at a major university Part 2 discusses national and regional developments in translation technology offering contributions covering the crucial territories of China Canada France Hong Kong Japan South Africa Taiwan the Netherlands and Belgium the United Kingdom and the United States Part 3 evaluates specific matters in translation technology with entries focused on subjects such as alignment concordancing localization online translation and translation memory The new edition has five additional chapters with many chapters updated and revised drawing on the expertise of over 50 contributors from around the world and an international panel of consultant editors to provide a selection of chapters on the most pertinent topics in the discipline All the chapters are self contained extensively cross referenced and include useful and up to date references and information for further reading It will be an invaluable reference work for anyone with a professional or academic interest in the subject
