

- unless the 'falconer' or people within power keep a strong grip on the events in society.
- The second stanza beacons and yearns for a 'revelation' or 'Second Coming' from Christ, which reinforces the Christian beliefs of redemption and sacrifice. Society needs salvation and major change.
- The image of the 'Spiritual Mundi', the 'shape with a lion body and head of a man' creates an impression of a sphinx crawling towards 'Bethlehem'. The poem tells the story of the failings of contemporary society – and uses the repetition of 'Surely' to highlight that God must be aware of the need for 'revelation' and upliftment.
- Alliteration of 'darkness drops' and 'stony sleep' underlines the 'nightmare' state of values in society and the need for change.
- A big change is needed so the speaker pleads and prays to God for a 'Second Coming' to the out-of-control gyre and spiral of life on Earth, which is no longer being held together by the forces of heaven.

QUESTION 2: POETRY – CONTEXTUAL QUESTION

Read the poem below and then answer the questions that follow.

Piano
By D. H. Lawrence

Softly, in the dusk, a woman is singing to me;
Taking me back down the vista of years, till I see
A child sitting under the piano, in the boom of the tingling strings
And pressing the small, poised feet of a mother who smiles as she sings.

In spite of myself, the insidious mastery of song

The Assessment of Multilingual Learners Kate Mahoney, 2024-09-10 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the topic of assessing students who use two or more languages in their daily life The book provides foundational information for assessing multilingual learners MLs in schools with an emphasis on school language and content Major assessment ideas are viewed through a framework called PUMI Purpose Use Method and Instrument to help readers focus on important assessment principles leading to better quality assessments for MLs This is a substantially revised and updated second edition of The Assessment of Emergent Bilinguals Updates in this edition include a greater focus on multilingual assessment and assessment in language contexts in addition to English Spanish This edition addresses both the current politics of multilingual assessment and recent theoretical developments including an expanded exploration of translanguaging in assessment contexts This edition aims to be more practical than the first edition with more examples of assessments and rubrics and a greater emphasis on using assessment results in formative ways Knowledge-building Karl Maton, Susan Hood, Suellen Shay, 2015-10-08 Education and knowledge have never been more important to society yet research is segmented by approach methodology or topic Legitimation Code Theory or LCT extends and integrates insights from Pierre Bourdieu and Basil Bernstein to offer a framework for research and practice that overcomes segmentalism This book shows how LCT can be used to build knowledge about education and society Comprising original papers by an international and multidisciplinary group of scholars Knowledge building offers the first primer in this fast growing approach Through case studies of major research projects Part I provides practical insights into how LCT can be used to build knowledge by enabling dialogue between theory and data in qualitative research bringing together quantitative and qualitative methodologies in mixed methods research relating theory and practice in praxis conducting interdisciplinary studies with systemic functional linguistics Part II offers a series of studies of pressing issues facing knowledge building in education and beyond encompassing diverse subject areas including physics English cultural studies music and design educational sites schooling vocational education and higher education practices of research curriculum pedagogy and assessment both education and informal learning contexts such as museums and masonic lodges Carefully sequenced and interrelated these chapters form a coherent collection that gives a unique insight into one of the most thought provoking and innovative ways of building knowledge about knowledge building in education and society to have emerged this century This book is essential reading for all serious students and scholars of education sociology and linguistics Refugee Learner Experiences. A Case Study of Zimbabwean Refugee Children Lawrence Meda, 2017-09 This study is a presentation of Zimbabwean refugee learner experiences Children escaped political persecution and economic problems which affected Zimbabwe in the year 2008 Many of these children were abused and witnessed traumatic experiences their close relatives and neighbours being executed in cold blood This study was guided by three critical questions i who are the Zimbabwean refugee learners ii what were

Zimbabwean refugee learners migration experiences and iii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners school experiences The study employed Bronfenbrenner s Social Ecological Model as its overarching theoretical framework Each stage of the refugee experience was described at each point in time

Blended learning environments to foster self-directed learning Christo van der Westhuizen,Mncedisi C. Maphalala,Roxanne Bailey,2023-03-31 This book on blended learning environments to foster self directed learning highlights the focus on research conducted in several teaching and learning contexts where blended learning had been implemented and focused on the fostering of self directed learning Several authors have contributed to the book and each chapter provides a unique perspective on blended learning and self directed learning research From each chapter it becomes evident that coherence on the topics mentioned is established One of the main aspects drawn in this book and addressed by several authors in the book is the use of the Community of Inquiry CoI framework when implementing teaching and learning strategies in blended learning environments to foster self directed learning This notion of focusing on the CoI framework is particularly evident in both theoretical and empirical dissemination presented in this book What makes this book unique is the fact that researchers and peers in varied fields would benefit from the findings presented by each chapter albeit theoretical methodological or empirical in nature this in turn provides opportunities for future research endeavours to further the narrative of how blended learning environments can be used to foster self directed learning

Friending the Past Alan Liu,2018-11-27 Can today s society increasingly captivated by a constant flow of information share a sense of history How did our media making forebears balance the tension between the present and the absent the individual and the collective the static and the dynamic and how do our current digital networks disrupt these same balances Can our social media with its fleeting nature even be considered social at all In Friending the Past Alan Liu proposes fresh answers to these innovative questions of connection He explores how we can learn from the relationship between past societies whose media forms fostered a communal and self aware sense of history such as prehistorical oral societies with robust storytelling cultures or the great print works of nineteenth century historicism and our own instantaneous present He concludes with a surprising look at how the sense of history exemplified in today s JavaScript timelines compares to the temporality found in Romantic poetry Interlaced among these inquiries Liu shows how extensive network archaeologies can be constructed as novel ways of thinking about our affiliations with time and with each other These conceptual architectures of period and age are also always media structures scaffolded with the outlines of what we mean by history Thinking about our own time Liu wonders if the digital networked future can sustain a similar sense of history

Multiple Perspectives on Language Play Nancy Bell, 2016-12-19 Interest in language play and linguistic creativity has increased in recent years and the topic has been taken up from a variety of perspectives In this book disparate approaches to the topic are brought together demonstrating that a number of phenomena whose similarities might not have been immediately recognized have an academic home under the umbrella of language play and linguistic creativity The contributions to this collection illustrate the variety of questions that can be asked regarding the social cognitive emotional political and cultural mechanisms and significance of innovative linguistic practices and point to new directions of inquiry Furthermore the work exemplifies a variety of ways in which this research can be carried out as well as the range of contexts in which it might be investigated including second language classrooms online settings and workplaces Taken together the chapters serve to illustrate the range of work that we will be accepting in the Language Play and Creativity series viewed individually each makes a unique contribution to some aspect of our understanding of creative language use

Multilingual Learners and Academic Literacies Daniella Molle, Edynn Sato, Timothy Boals, Carol A. Hedgspeth, 2015-03-05 Shifting the discourse from a focus on academic language to the more dynamic but less researched construct of academic literacies this volume addresses three key questions What constitutes academic literacy What does academic literacy development in adolescent multilingual students look like and how can this development be assessed What classroom contexts foster the development of academic literacies in multilingual adolescents The contributing authors provide divergent definitions of academic literacies and use dissimilar theoretical and methodological approaches to study literacy development Nevertheless all chapters reflect a shared conceptual framework for examining academic literacies as situated overlapping meaning making practices This framework foregrounds students participation in valued disciplinary literacy practices Emphasized in the new college and career readiness standards the notion of disciplinary practices allows the contributing authors to bridge the language content dichotomy and take a more holistic as well as nuanced view of the demands that multilingual students face in general education classrooms The volume also explores the implications of the emphasis on academic literacy practices for classroom instruction research and policy
