

The background of the cover is a traditional East Asian ink wash painting. It depicts two figures, possibly scholars or monks, seated on a rocky outcrop. The figure on the left is shown in profile, looking towards the right. The figure on the right is seated and appears to be holding a long object, perhaps a scroll or a pipe. The style is minimalist, with bold black ink strokes for the figures and more delicate lines for the surrounding landscape, which includes some foliage and a distant structure. The overall tone is contemplative and artistic.
