

TIPS FOR FIRST-TIME HOMEBUYERS

If you're trying to buy your first home in today's housing market, you'll want to know what you can do as mortgage rates rise and inventory is still low overall. Here are a few tips to keep in mind.

Get Pre-Approved

Mortgage rates have climbed and that impacts what you can comfortably afford. Connect with a lender to find out what you can borrow.

Prioritize Your Wish List

Make a list of your desired features and prioritize which are nice-to-haves and what's essential. Review it with your agent before looking for homes.

Consider Condos

While inventory has grown this year, it's still low. Adding condos to your search can help you get your foot in the door to build equity.

Expand Your Search Radius

Need even more options? Widening your radius to include nearby neighborhoods or communities could mean finding a hidden gem.

Your first home is out there. Let's connect to explore your options and go over what other first-time buyers are doing to find their homes.

Handbook of Parenting Marc H. Bornstein, 2019-02-01 This highly anticipated third edition of the Handbook of Parenting brings together an array of field leading experts who have worked in different ways toward understanding the many diverse aspects of parenting Contributors to the Handbook look to the most recent research and thinking to shed light on topics every parent professional and policymaker wonders about Parenting is a perennially hot topic After all everyone who has ever lived has been parented and the vast majority of people become parents themselves No wonder bookstores house shelves of how to parenting books and magazine racks in pharmacies and airports overflow with periodicals that feature parenting advice However almost none of these is evidence based The Handbook of Parenting is Period Each chapter has been written to be read and absorbed in a single sitting and includes historical considerations of the topic a discussion of central issues and theory a review of classical and modern research and forecasts of future directions of theory and research Together the five volumes in the Handbook cover Children and Parenting the Biology and Ecology of Parenting Being and Becoming a Parent Social Conditions and Applied Parenting and the Practice of Parenting Volume 4 Social Conditions and Applied Parenting describes socially defined groups of parents and social conditions that promote variation in parenting The chapters in Part I on Social and Cultural Conditions of Parenting start with a relational developmental systems perspective on parenting and move to considerations of ethnic and minority parenting among Latino and Latin Americans African Americans Asians and Asian Americans Indigenous parents and immigrant parents The section concludes with considerations of disabilities employment and poverty on parenting Parents are ordinarily the most consistent and caring people in children's lives. However, parenting does not always go right or well. Information education and support programs can remedy potential ills. The chapters in Part II on Applied Issues in Parenting begin with how parenting is measured and follow with examinations of maternal deprivation, attachment and acceptance, rejection in parenting. Serious challenges to parenting, some common such as stress and depression and some less common such as substance abuse, psychopathology, maltreatment and incarceration are addressed, as are parenting interventions intended to redress these trials.

Governor's Houses and State Houses of British Colonial America, 1607-1783 Hoke P. Kimball, Bruce Henson, 2017-05-11 This comprehensive survey of British colonial governors' houses and buildings used as state houses or capitols in the North American colonies begins with the founding of the Virginia Colony and ends with American independence. In addition to the 13 colonies that became the United States in 1783, the study includes three colonies in present-day Florida and Canada: East Florida, West Florida, and the Province of Quebec obtained by Great Britain after the French and Indian War.

Policing the Sex Industry Teela Sanders, Mary Laing, 2017-12-12 The exponential growth of sexual commerce, migration and movement of people into the sex industry, as well as localised concerns about transactional sex, are key areas of interest across the urban west. Given the complex regulatory frameworks under which the sex industry manifests, the role of the police is significant. Policing the Sex Industry draws on the research and expertise of academics and practitioners, presenting advanced scholarship across a range of countries and spaces. Unpicking the relationship between police practice and commercial sex, whilst speaking to the current policy agendas, Policing the Sex Industry explores key issues including trafficking, decriminalisation, localised impacts of punitive policing approaches, uneven policing approaches, hate crime approaches and the impact of policing on trans sex workers. A dynamic and incisive contribution to existing research, Policing the Sex Industry will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as researchers at all levels interested in fields including Criminology, Sociology, Gender Politics and Women's Studies.
