Mergent International Manual ,2009 Product Stewardship in Action Helen Lewis,2017-09-08 Product Stewardship in Action describes how and why leading companies are taking responsibility for the environmental impact of their products and packaging Product stewardship often referred to as extended producer responsibility or EPR is the idea that everyone that benefits commercially from a product including manufacturers distributors and retailers has a shared responsibility to minimize its environmental impacts Written primarily for a business audience it draws on the knowledge and experience of industry practitioners and other experts to provide a structured approach to product responsibility within firms This will help those new to the field as well as more experienced practitioners to develop an effective response to stakeholder concerns about the environmental impacts of their products and packaging Unlike other resources on product stewardship and EPR which tend to focus on the design or evaluation of public policy this book highlights the business case for action It argues that companies can achieve shared value both public and commercial value when they take a proactive and knowledge based approach to the life cycle management of their products Product Stewardship in Action focuses on product stewardship as an effective business strategy rather than a philanthropic exercise To be effective it needs to be based on a good understanding of product impacts and stakeholder concerns and the risks and opportunities that these present to the business The most effective responses will be those that address material issues in the product life cycle while supporting the achievement of other corporate goals and priorities Moody's International Manual ,1998 Wool to Weta Paul Callaghan,2013-11-01 Evaluating the competitiveness of New Zealand s current economy this authoritative analysis argues the need to switch from agriculture and tourism as the economic backbone of the country and suggests that the emerging industries of science technology and intellectual property will offer more prosperity Highlighting interviews with entrepreneurs who are creating successful science and technology based businesses including Weta workshop the cinema special effects company that worked on the Lord of the Rings film trilogy the study explores vital topics regarding sustainable wealth and cultural change Interviewees include physicist Andrew Coy professor Bill Denny entrepreneur Stephen Tindall and Weta workshop creator and director Richard Taylor The Yearbook ,1992 Reinventing Giants Bill Fischer,Umberto Lago,Fang Liu,2013-03-07 A compelling profile of an emerging Chinese competitor Chinese firms are reinventing their business models their corporate cultures and themselves becoming global competitors who increasingly offer knowledge rather than cheap labour in their quest to join the ranks of the world s best companies This book offers a compelling profile of the most ambitious of these emerging Chinese competitors the Haier Corporation the world s largest manufacturer of home appliances and shares insights on how one organization has repeatedly reinvented its business model and corporate culture in an effort to sustain its success Reinventing Giants provides an exclusive look within the Haier Corporation and shows how managerial accountability and responsibility have been repositioned at every level of the organization with the core value of market centricity while aligning strategy on each level of management It includes actual work reports that show this process in detail from the ground up The authors emphasize how a belief in the liberation of employee talent has consistently been the driving force underlying Haier s success Includes the remarkable story of Haier s turnaround and how these lessons can be applied to other organizations Contains information for any company grappling with competition in the global marketplace Shows how to liberate employees talent to drive business success Written by Bill Fischer Professor of Innovation
