Bøttcher,2019-04-02 This collection of papers examines key ideas in cultural historical approaches to children s learning and development and the cultural and institutional conditions in which they occur The collection is given coherence by a focus on the intellectual contributions made by Professor Mariane Hedegaard to understandings of children s learning through the prism of the interplay of society institution and person She has significantly shaped the field through her scholarly consideration of foundational concepts and her creative attention to the fields of activity she studies The book brings together examples of how these concepts have been employed and developed in a study of learning and development The collection allows the contributing scholars to reveal their reactions to Hedegaard s contributions in discussions of their own work in the field of children s learning and the conditions in which it occurs Playing for time Geraldine

Cousin,2013-07-19 Playing for time explores connections between theatre time the historical moment and fictional time Geraldine Cousin persuasively argues that a crucial characteristic of contemporary British theatre is its preoccupation with instability and danger and traces images of catastrophe and loss in a wide range of recent plays and productions The diversity of the texts that are examined is a major strength of the book In addition to plays by contemporary dramatists Cousin analyses staged adaptations of novels and productions of plays by Euripides Strindberg and Priestley A key focus is Stephen Daldry s award winning revival of Priestley s An Inspector Calls which is discussed in relation both to other Priestley time plays and to Caryl Churchill s apocalyptic Far Away Lost children are a recurring motif Bryony Lavery s Frozen for example is explored in the context of the Soham murders which took place while the play was in production at the National Theatre whilst three virtually simultaneous productions of Euripides Hecuba are interpreted with regard to the Beslan massacre of schoolchildren The Fountain and the Furnace Maggie Ross,2014-06-10 Endorsements Tears are a little

Hickey,1928 Rape on the Contemporary Stage

Lisa Fitzpatrick,2018-01-22 This book investigates the representation of rape in British and Irish theatre since the second wave of the Women's Movement. Mainly focusing on the period from the 1990s to the present, it identifies key feminist debates on rape and gender and introduces a set of ideas about the function of rape as a form of embodied gendered violence to the analysis of dramaturgical and performance strategies used in a range of important and/or controversial works. The chapters explore the dramatic representation of consent, feminist performance strategies that interrogate common attitudes to rape and rape survivors, the use of rape as an allegory for political oppression, the relationships of vulnerability, eroticism and affect in the understanding and representation of sexual violence, and recent work that engages with anti-rape activism to present women's personal experiences on stage.

The Theatre Arts Audition Book for Women Annika

Bluhm, 2013-10-08 First published in 2003, The Theatre Arts Audition Books offer one hundred speeches from plays of the past twenty-five years: fifty in a volume for men, fifty in a volume for women. Each excerpt is preceded by a note situating the play and the selection. Speeches come from a wide range of plays, including David Mamet's Oleanna, Caryl Churchill's Serious Money, Martin McDonagh's The Beauty Queen of Leenane, Jim Cartwright's Road and Timberlake Wertenbaker's Our Country's Good, as well as plays by Anthony Minghella, Mark Ravenhill, Sue Townsend, Alan Ayckbourn and others. Annika Bluhm has assembled two sparkling collections of monologues that will challenge and inspire the actor.

Hysteria, Trauma and

Melancholia C. Wald, 2007-10-11 Hysteria, trauma and melancholia are not only powerful tropes in contemporary culture; they are also prominent in the theatre. As the first study in its field, Hysteria, Trauma and Melancholia explores the characteristics and concerns of the Drama of Hysteria, Trauma and Melancholia through in-depth readings of representative plays.

Stephenson Plays: 1 Shelagh Stephenson, 2013-10-16 The first collection of plays by one of Britain's most acclaimed contemporary playwrights, one of the most promising dramatic prospects of the new millennium. Daily Telegraph: The collection includes THE MEMORY OF WATER, in which three sisters meet on the evening after their mother's funeral and fight out old troubles with one another; FIVE KINDS OF SILENCE, a terrifying portrayal of a family for whom rules, duties and punishments are the driving force; AN EXPERIMENT WITH AN AIR PUMP, in a world of scientific chaos, cloning and genetic engineering, the cellar of a house yields up the secrets of the scientific discoveries of 1799; ANCIENT LIGHTS, Hollywood stars come home to the hills of Northumberland. The Memory of Water combines a flair for witty dialogue with a relish for the dynamics of theatre, a mistress of comic anguish. Guardian: Five Kinds of Silence, this quietly eloquent play. Independent: An Experiment With An Air Pump, teeming with interest, humour, eloquence, and above all, ideas. It's not often we see a new play with this much energy, variety and intelligence. Independent: Ancient Lights, a cracking grown-up play with a light touch that cuts surprisingly deep. Daily Telegraph.
